Foreword

The technological revolution in communication is being manifested everywhere. This thirty-seventh edition of the Episcopal Clerical Directory (ECD) is the first to contain E-mail addresses. Remarkably, over twenty-five percent of the Episcopal clericus supplied us with E-mails upon first request.

Another sign of technology at work in the 1999 edition: we have begun to "scrub" (or standardize) the data. The primary beneficiary of this refinement will be the user of the new CD-ROM version of the Clerical Directory (ECD-ROM). For example, we have replaced the several variant abbreviations for the School of Theology at the University of the South ("TS of U So"; "Theol Sch of U So"; and "U So TS") with a single new abbreviation: "STUSo." Consequently, the ECD-ROM can generate quicker, more reliable lists of graduates of the seminary at Sewanee.

Still more ECD changes:

• We have removed mothers' maiden names from the 1999 biographies. (This decision was made in direct response to your concerns that such information may be used nefariously to circumvent banking security measures.)
• The Church in Central and South America is particularly dynamic these days (i.e., the transformation by the Mexican Church into an autonomous Province; the new diocesan redistricting of Ecuador). Official transfer notices (into the "new" Church of Mexico) and updated canonical residences (for Ecuador) will be listed in the next edition of ECD (2001).

Some things have not changed:

• As usual, a name in boldface indicates that the cleric has responded to the 1999 edition update form and that, consequently, the information is current.
• We cannot change canonical residence or ordination dates unless the Recorder of Ordinations informs the Directories Editor that a written confirmation is on file from the diocese.
• We do not expunge all biographical evidence of marriages with children.

We are grateful to the members of the ECD production team for their many hours of hard work in the production of the 1999 edition:

Mr. Scheller and Ms. Ellis deserve special mention and thanks for their organizational and supervisory contributions. Also, I should thank our Production Coordinator, Amy Davis, who went far beyond the call of her regular duties to help produce this book.

Editor

If you know someone who has ordered the ECD-ROM, ask for a demonstration. The ECD-ROM requires no installation; it is fast, easy to use, and fully mail-mergeable; best of all, it contains an entirely new companion directory of all Episcopal parishes, chapels, seminaries, dioceses, and their ordained staffs.

To purchase additional copies of the Episcopal Clerical Directory or to inquire about the new ECD-ROM, please call our toll-free customer service number: 1-800-242-1918.
