THE LAST VOYAGE.

*My work on earth is well nigh done,
I wait the setting of the sun.*

*I hear the surging of the sea
That beats upon Eternity.*

*I see far off the shadowy realm,
And thither turn the trembling helm.*

*The winds that blow so cold and drear
Grow softer, as the end draws near!*

*The distant gleams of silver light
Relieve the darkness of the night.*

*There stand upon the misty shore,
Faint forms of loved ones gone before!*

*The voice that once said "Peace be still,"
Now whispers softly "Fear no ill."*

*I sail alone, yet not alone,
The Saviour takes me for His own.*

*I wait His greeting when I land,
I wait the grasp of Christ's blessed hand.*

PREFACE.

The American Church Clergy and Parish Directory for 1903 is humbly offered to the Church. It has been prepared at the earnest solicitation and urgent pressure of a number of her Bishops, prominent clergy and representative laity. The labor has been enormous but delightful. The good men of the Church as well among the laity as the clergy have made my task as light as possible. I thank them for this. Especially do I thank the Bishop of Kentucky, the Bishop-Coadjutor of Philadelphia, Mr. Henry E. Pellew of Washington, and Mr. Frederick T. Haskell of Chicago, whose interest in my work has been of a particularly helpful kind. To these honored names, in this connection, must be added, (though he has gone to be with Christ) the name of the much beloved and greatly deplored Dean Hoffman, of the General Theological Seminary. From every part of the Church at home and from the foreign field have come to me in literal showers, letters of congratulation and encouragement in preparing the work which lies in your hands, dear reader. While from the Diocesan secretaries at home have come offers of help innumerable, which I appreciate heartily and now acknowledge.

The purpose of the Directory is not as well understood as I should like it to be. Let it be said now, and may it never be forgotten, that it is not a money-making enterprise on the part of anyone. It is the outcome of a religious desire to serve the American Church at large. Nor

OUR can the Directory fail in this important matter. From many PURPOSE. letters whose contents have led me to the conclusion that the purpose of the American Church Directory is not quite understood I have taken the following extracts illustrative of this point. One very young cleric writes: "I cannot see what possible advantage is to be gained by the publication of the Directory." A veteran in the service of the Church writes: "Time and again I have heard your project praised from clerical and lay people as a most valuable and necessary reference book. Its influence will be increasingly felt and I am strongly inclined to think that it is one of the best forces in quickening the clergy to renewed efforts for worthy preparation and worthy work in the ministry. I congratulate you on your courageous service to the Church." Another priest of honored name and place in the Church declares: "You cannot better serve the Church than by giving it a really reliable Clergy Directory." Another reverend brother writes to me in the following pathetic terms which, at least, indicate a not unusual sorrowful experience among the clergy of the Church: "There is a much-needed work about the parishes and missions of the Church in the United States. It would save much suffering to some of our clergy if they could know beforehand something of the condition of a place before they accept a call. Unfortunately Bishops do not always know, or are unwilling to tell. Neither can a brother clergyman arrive at the facts until it is too late. Such a work would have to be of a private nature." The ever-to-be-revered Bishop of Springfield writes expressing his appreciation of the Directory: "I esteem the Clergy Directory a more than useful publication, it is almost now a necessity, if not now, it soon will be a book of reference which will be indispensable to the Clergy and especially Bishops, and also to many of our representative laity." A prominent priest speaks thus from out of the West: "At the risk of seeming presumptuous I am going to take the liberty of remarking that the Directory can never be 'accurate and trustworthy' if you permit each clergyman to make out his own record, for the simple reason that if a clergyman's record is not creditable to himself he will not give it to you to print, nor can he be expected to do so. And yet his record is the very one that persons using the Directory want to know about." An indignant brother from the East asks that: "My name be not inserted. I do not want to be advertised, those of my brethren who do may be permitted to insert their names." Many correspondents ask that the age as well as the place of birth be furnished, that some means should be devised by me of detecting the unworthy among the brethren, that the clergy should not have a labor bureau among themselves, that because a few of them send in untrustworthy returns therefore the work should not be supported. So various are the views concerning the object of the Directory. However, it is the overwhelming judgment of the many among the most honored and esteemed of the Church that the Directory is valuable and necessary. Its purpose is not to provide a medium for the clergy to advertise themselves, nor yet to spy out and publish the infirmities incident to humanity in cassock and shovel hat, it is not a detective, it will stoutly decline to indicate avenues whereby the weaknesses of the reverend clergy may be discovered; in a word the Directory is not designed to be a more or less of a rogues' gallery. We know that it is too true that the clergy are encompassed by infirmity, that their position exposes them to unique and serious temptations, that, in many cases, their fidelity and courage are sorely tried; but while there may be, as there must be, among us the unworthy and the reprobate, the great majority of the clergy of the American Church are men of devotion, of probity, of learning and of wisdom. Of the academic standing, of the particulars of the ordination, of the position held at the present or in the past, of the literature of which they may have been the authors of her clergy the Church has the right to know and to rejoice in.

The Directory has taken no account of the birthplace or of the age of the clergy for the all-sufficient reason that we want neither Englishman, Canadian, Scotchman, Irishman, German, Swede or Italian among our clergy; we want those who join the ranks of our clergy from other countries to become Americans as quickly as possible. Homogeneity must be striven after, but this we shall never have until the Church periodicals cease to advertise the nativity of her Bishops and clergy. The American Church has her own special and unique genius, let her preserve it and let us enable her so to do. Then we shall not print the age of our clergy because we cannot afford to prevent parishes from enjoying the benefit of, and profiting by, the ripe and wide experience of the faithful among our older reverend brethren. We will refuse to recognise a "dead-line," as the obnoxious term goes, which like an unfathomable fixed gulf lies between a good soul in which the grace of Holy Order is enshrined and the honest and whole-hearted exercise thereof. This may be the day of young men, and there are not wanting evidences that manifest only too sadly that it is, but, if they be of good repute and well preserved, the old men, like old wine, are better. Some of the most remarkable letters that have reached me have been from the oldest clergymen, and, let me add, the wisest. Hence with the cheery "Good luck to you," of an Eastern Bishop, the fervent "God bless you," of a Bishop from the middle West, the gladsome "I wish the best success" of a Southern Bishop, and the wise greeting of a Philadelphia priest of great learning "Go on with your enterprise; the time will come when not to have his name and record in the Directory will be a hindrance to a priest" we shall continue our labors and with the conviction that they will not be in vain.

The name of the Directory may need some explanation. A reverend brother from the South wrote in answer to the circular letter which I sent out to the clergy: "I have received your letter asking for information about myself for the benefit of the 'American Church.' In reply permit me to inform you that there is no American Church in existence. I am a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and had you required information about me for the benefit of that Church I should have been very glad to send it to you." Now what was I to do with so obdurate a brother as this? A brother living in a country without a church? I felt that he was genteel and considerate, and had the greatest possible confidence in his own judgment and historic wisdom, all of which was in the highest degree creditable to him. But to hear of a priest in the United States, whether in the East, the West, the North, or the South, who was ignorant of the fact that there was such an institution as the American Church, being himself one of her officers, was so serious a shock to my feelings that I could not reply to his odd communication. He was the only one of his kind, thank Heaven. The title of the Directory was chosen, (1) as a witness to the fact that there is an American Church; (2) to help the great number of those who will use these pages to understand this; (3) to familiarize them with what I deem to be the best, nay, the only title befitting the Church in these United States; and (4) to be honest. So overwhelmingly large is the sentiment desiring a change in the name of the Church, and so confident are we that it will come (sooner than many suspect), that, unwilling to be behind in anything, we would be in the van in this happy relation.

We are not so boastful as to say that this book is without blemish, not so unwise as to think so; but while we acknowledge its many imperfections, of one thing we are sure—that it is a wonderfully accurate record, considering the many and serious difficulties we have had to meet and surmount in the process of editing and publishing it. The records of some of the clergy will be found more or less complete, more or less incorrect. If so, that fact must not be always attributed to the editor but to the brother who was willing to let the circular sent for the purpose of procuring the desired information remain unnoticed. It was a source of regret that we were not able (for that was the fact) to send a stamped envelope for reply; but so many and so accurate have been the returns furnished, in spite of this hindrance, that we are confident that the American Church Clergy and Parish Directory will be found to be a really wonderful work.

The editor desires at this point to earnestly ask those excellent clergymen who did not send in their returns to look up their record as it appears in this present work and, without loss of time, send in the necessary corrections and addenda so that the Directory for 1904 may be even more correct than this could possibly be. We shall not be satisfied until this work has taken its rightful place in the American Church, and that time is not far off.

In reply to our request that the venerable Presiding Bishop of the Church would write a brief preface to this issue of the Directory, and that we might be permitted to print a likeness of himself at the forefront thereof, he very thoughtfully and very fittingly sent instead his latest and exquisite poem, The Last Voyage, to be printed with his autograph, with the permission to use his picture. This kindness we desire to heartily and affectionately and respectfully acknowledge.

For the errors and other shortcomings which the critical eye may detect in this publication the editor asks forgiveness, and prays that it may be found of service in the American branch of the Catholic Church, to the Bishops, reverend clergy and the devoted laity.

An Annual Report of the Making, Ordaining and Consecrating of Deacons, Priests and Bishops within the American Church.

PREFATORY NOTE.

The first "List" of ordinations in the Church in the United States was prepared by the Rt. Rev. Dr. George Burgess, Bishop of Maine, and was for the years 1785 to 1857, both inclusive. It was confined to the ordinations to the Diaconate. It contained 2,787 names.

This List, still confined to the Diaconate, was continued by the Rev. E. H. Downing, of Iowa, his working ending with 1884. This Second List embraced 3,190 names.

The undersigned presented to the General Convention of 1895, a list of all ordinations beginning with those of 1885, and this list has been supplemented by his reports of 1898 and 1901; all of which are published in Journals of the years named. Reference by name or number in the pages following refer to the names and numbers of the foregoing reports. The present recorder has filed records for 3,065 persons.

The average number of persons made Deacon in the 73 years embraced in the time covered by the Bishop Burgess List was 38; in the 27 years covered by the Downing List was 119; while the average of the 18 years covered by the present compiler is 170.

The undersigned takes advantage of this opportunity to say that, as accuracy is greatly desired by him, he would be very thankful to receive any corrections of errors that he may make.

He also takes advantage of this opportunity to say that he is compiling a list of all ordinations in the American Church; to the Priesthood, as well as to the Diaconate and the Episcopate; and would gladly welcome any assistance obtainable. He would be glad to have some one in each Diocese offer to obtain for him by examination of the Diocesan records such data of ordinations as he may lack to complete this work.

HERMAN C. DUNCAN,
RECORDER OF ORDINATIONS.

Statistics of the American Church for 1901-02.

After a careful study of the vexed question of Statistics, and observing the considerable mutual divergencies of the various Church Almanacs in this important matter, it has deemed good to me to present in the AMERICAN CHURCH DIRECTORY the most important summaries of the three Year Books, and by striking an average reach, what may be deemed, an approximately accurate conclusion. Only the main statistics are given.

The Living Church.

A Weekly Illustrated Church Paper for the family. Contains the important news of the Church in all sections, and intelligent discussions of subjects prominently before the Church. Always courteous and reliable.

Don't take your information about Church affairs from the secular press. : : :

It is the intention of THE LIVING CHURCH to supply a bright, readable paper, attractive to Church people in general, telling in up-to-date fashion what is being done in the Church, and illustrating events of especial interest. There are also discussions of subjects of current thought, in a frank, open manner, without bitterness and with positive convictions. The editorial policy is consistently made known and is never evasive. The paper supports the Catholic Movement in the Anglican Communion, adhering to the Protestant Episcopal Church because it sees in her a living branch of the historic Catholic Church. We are loyal Churchmen because we are Catholics, and should be untrue to our Catholicity if we were not loyal to the national Church of our Baptism.

Literary matters receive careful treatment. There are excellent correspondents from England and Europe, who relate the movements in those lands, and special correspondents throughout the world. The news of the American Dioceses in general is also gathered with care. A new department of Church Music has just been commenced under the editorship of G. Edward Stubbs, M.A.

Bishop Kemper's life is the story of the expansion of the Church in the United States. It is the romance of domestic missions, and is told in these pages with a vivid realism. Every Churchman, old or young, but especially the young, and especially in the many dioceses that have sprung from Kemper's old jurisdiction, should be familiar with the facts in his career. No one can read this book without a deepening sense of loyalty to the Church of which he was so splendid a champion.

What in the world to give a friend?

College men know and the New Haven Union says, apropos of Xmas birthdays and other occasions, such as term-end with its good-bys: "The question of what in the world to give a friend at parting seems to have been solved by the publication of

Songs of all the Colleges which is alike suitable for the collegian of the past, for the student of the present, and for the boy (or girl) with hopes; also for the music-loving sister, and a fellow's best girl."

"All the NEW songs, all the OLD songs,
"and the songs popular at all the colleges;
"a welcome gift in any home anywhere."

Do YOU know HOW to Attract and Hold an Audience ?

Every clergyman, every lawyer, every teacher, every man or woman occupying an official position, every citizen and every youth who is likely ever to have occasion in committee, or in public, to enlist the interest, to attract and hold the attention of one or more hearers, and convince them—every person who ever has to, or is likely to have to “speak” to one or more listeners will find in our new book a clear, concise, complete handbook which will enable him to succeed!

If you have the “gift” of oratory this book will enable you to perfect it. If you are an indifferent speaker, you can become a finished one by accepting this book’s guidance. If you are a beginner, but ambitious withal, this book will serve you as a guide-post to success, and by a path escaping the many embarrassments which discourage the novice.

Thorough, concise, methodical, replete with common sense, complete—these words describe fitly this new book; and in his logical method, in the crystal-like lucidity of his style, in his forceful, incisive, penetrating mastery of this subject, the author has at one bound placed himself on a plane with the very ablest teacher-authors of his day.
