BIOGRAPHY OF THE GODS

By A. Eustace Haydon

This is a compelling picture of the world's great living religions, including the Hindu, Buddhist, Mohammedan, Jewish and Christian. Each stands revealed in this personal history of the gods who are worshipped today. BIOGRAPHY OF THE GODS shows religion to be more than a philosophy; it is a striking realization of experience. As Allah, Buddha and the other gods move across these scintillating pages, each is shown to be rooted in the social needs and aspirations of men. The development of the different religions is summarized in such a readable way as to give a symmetrical sketch of each, and arouse in the reader a sense of the spiritual experience of millions. A fascinating story for every reader and a splendid reference book. $2.50

COME, LET US WORSHIP

By Albert W. Palmer

Here is a basic manual on the practice of worship for the small church in town and country. The author first considers the primary requirement of the small congregation — the need for an intensely real worship experience — and points out how and why this can only result from a thoroughly cooperative spirit on the part of minister, choir and congregation. He provides a practical worship program and discusses available materials for worship, the organization of the church service, and the sermon. Building and redecorating problems of the small church are also considered. This is an indispensable book for every community pastor. $1.50

JUST AMONG FRIENDS

By William Wistar Comfort

For nearly three hundred years, the Quakers have solved a multitude of social and economic problems in America. Here is a revealing study of these three centuries of progress through the Quaker way of life. Dr. Comfort demonstrates the Friends' source of strength, and outlines their outstanding contributions to the causes of education, the ethics of business and race relations, and to war relief and peace. A fascinating chronicle. $2.00

LIVING WHERE JESUS LIVED

By Emma Jewell Ross

In a delightful, conversational style, Miss Ross gives us a vivid, illustrated story of a trip through the Holy Land of today. At each place the Biblical event which had occurred there is recalled. The scenes and people met along the way are described with accuracy and charm, and we see that the people and customs have changed but little since Jesus' day. $1.50

Dr. Mackay offers a non-technical approach to the relationship of theology and present-day individual and social ethics. A vital challenge for all thoughtful readers. $2.00

THE MEANING OF REVELATION

By H. Richard Niebuhr

The methods by which the Society seeks to accomplish its fundamental purposes are three: (1) The enlargement of its library, already remarkably fine, and the making of its invaluable collections available for use; (2) The promotion of diocesan and parochial history and assistance in building diocesan and parochial collections of historical materials; (3) The publication of scholarly works in American Church history and biography, and the encouragement of students laboring in this field.

For realizing the above purposes, the more members the Society has, the better. Annual membership is only $2 per year; Life membership is $25.00. Address the Society as above.

THERE IS ONLY ONE SURE WAY

The leaking walls of thousands of brick and stone structures built during the last thirty years cause untold damage.

Based on over twenty years of experience, we make this positive statement: There is only one intelligent and unfailing method that will make a leaking wall permanently weatherproof: Go to the root of the trouble, remove faulty mortar, and do a thorough job of repointing.

Surface treatments afford temporary relief at best. There are no shortcuts. The expert workmen of the ROCKWELL NEWMAN COMPANY do a lasting job.

If you have a leakage problem, we shall be glad to study it without placing you under the slightest obligation.

Foreword

In 1940 the former editor of Stowe's Clerical Directory approached the officers of The Church Pension Fund with the proposal that the Fund take over the publication of the Directory beginning with the triennial edition due to appear in 1941. The thought was expressed that a general church organization, with a staff and special facilities for undertaking a work of this sort, could be expected to give the Directory a greater usefulness and assure its future continuance as a semi-official publication of the Church.

After careful consideration, the Trustees of The Church Pension Fund accepted the proposal, believing that Stowe's Clerical Directory, although not an official publication of General Convention, is a much needed and valuable reference book of historical importance. The actual task of publication has been undertaken by The Church Hymnal Corporation which was established many years ago as a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Church Pension Fund for the purpose of publishing the Hymnal of the Church, the copyright of which was entrusted to the Fund by General Convention. Later, The Church Hymnal Corporation also undertook to publish certain editions of the Book of Common Prayer as well as a few other publications authorized and approved by General Convention.

The Directory first appeared in 1898 as the successful publication of the Reverend Frederic E. J. Lloyd, D.D. Under his aegis six editions appeared at intervals. The Reverend Andrew D. Stowe, D.D. edited the three editions from 1917 through 1924, and his daughter, Mrs. Grace Stowe Fish, the five subsequent triennial editions terminating with that of 1938. It is expected that future editions will be published every three years, following each regular session of General Convention.

A Directory of this sort depends for its accuracy and comprehensiveness, and thus for its value, upon the cooperation of the individuals whose biographies are included. In preparing the present compilation, the 1938 edition has been used as the starting point, and the clergy on the whole have been most cooperative in bringing the material up to date. We have not been able, however, to reach some of the clergy because of unknown addresses. Although a small number to whom questionnaires were sent have stated that they do not wish to supply data, the name of every living clergyman in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, as of June 1, 1941, appears in these pages, in so far as it is possible to glean these names from available records. The files of The Church Pension Fund have been invaluable in the effort to fill the many gaps. The work on future editions will be carried on continuously in conjunction with the fact-finding functions of the office of the Fund.

In addition to the biographies appearing on pages 1 to 324, there are included on page 325 a list of those whose deaths have been reported since the 1938 edition was published, and on page 330 a list of depositions since that date, both complete to July 1, 1941.

It may be too much to expect a work of this sort to be perfect in every detail. In fact, the short period of time available to the editors since the rights to the Directory were acquired has not made possible a consistency in form and abbreviation which it is hoped will be achieved with the next edition.

The raison d'être of the Directory lies both in its current usefulness and its future value as an historical source. This two-fold purpose may well be kept in mind for future editions both by the editors and by the clergy who will supply the data.

The Presiding Bishop's Ten-Year Plan

With the unanimous approval of General Convention, the Presiding Bishop has called the Church to a ten-year program of advance. He calls every parish to these objectives:

Deepen the spiritual life of active members.

Recall lapsed members.

Reach the unchurched.

Attain a world-wide vision of the Church.

The time to go forward is NOW, says the Presiding Bishop. The days must be redeemed. The task will require effort and sacrifice but the world can be saved for Christ.

Prepare now to have your parish join in this concerted move to Go Forward in Service under the leadership of The Presiding Bishop.

Two Live, Modern Church Magazines

EDITED BY AND FOR LAYMEN OF THE CHURCH

THE LIVING CHURCH

is an accurate and dependable source of information on the news, the thought, and the work of the Episcopal Church. With 40 issues a year, it gives the most comprehensive, up-to-the-minute survey of the Church obtainable. You'll enjoy it immensely now; you'll like its new departmentalization. Every special topic is easy to find, fascinating to read. Regular departments include: Editorials, National, Interchurch, Diocesan, Parish Life, Church Music, and others.

THE LAYMAN'S

is a deliberate departure from the regular kind of Church magazine. . . . It is stepped up to match the popular magazines on the newsstands, but it has the firmer foundation of a moral basis and a purpose to help readers as well as to entertain them. Thus, it spans a breach heretofore existing in current reading. . . . There's a particular feature meant to please everyone in the family.

NO "SACRED COWS"

* The Churchman has no "sacred cows." Its policy is frankly liberal—using the word in its exact sense. The paper reflects varied opinion in the Protestant Episcopal Church and outside of it. Its own point of view—with which many readers, being literate persons who think for themselves, frequently take issue—is expressed in its editorial columns. Such a free press is one of the most precious assets of the church and the social order.

* Published under the sponsorship of The Churchman Associates, it relies for its continued freedom and constructive contribution to an alert and progressive church upon the support of friends of progress.
