IN GENERAL CONVENTION,
RICHMOND, 1st day of the Session,
October 2, 1907.

MESSAGE No. 1.

The House of Deputies informs the House of Bishops that it has appointed the Rev. Alfred B. Baker, D.D., and Mr. Chas. H. Stanley a Committee to wait upon the House of Bishops and inform that House that the House of Deputies has organized by the election of the Rev.

Randolph H. McKim, D.D., as President, and the Rev. Henry Anstice, D.D., as Secretary, and is ready to proceed to business.

Attest:

HENRY ANSTICE, Secretary.

The Presiding Bishop having announced to the House that it was by the courtesy of His Excellency the Governor of Virginia that the House was sitting in the Capitol, it was voted that a Committee be appointed to wait upon the Governor and request his attendance in the House. The Bishop of Virginia, the Bishop of Southern Virginia, and the Bishop of West Virginia, being appointed such Committee, presented the Governor to the House. An address on behalf of the House was made to him by the Presiding Bishop, to which he replied. The Governor then withdrew.

On motion, a conference in Council with the Archbishop of the West Indies and Bishop Montgomery as Secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel was made the Order of the day for tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

The Archbishop of the West Indies was presented to the House by the Bishop of Albany and the Bishop of Maryland, and was welcomed by the Presiding Bishop to an honorary seat in the House at his right hand.

The Bishop of St. Albans, Bishop Montgomery, the Bishop of Quebec, the Bishop of Mackenzie River, and the Bishop of Ontario were presented to the House by the Bishop of Pennsylvania and the Bishop of South Dakota, and were welcomed by the Presiding Bishop to honorary seats in the House.

The Bishop of London was presented to the House by the Bishop of New York and the Bishop of Southern Virginia, and was welcomed by the Presiding Bishop to an honorary seat in the House at his side; and in response the Bishop of London addressed the House.

The Bishop of Albany offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Rule of Order for the first day of the session numbered 7 be amended by omitting the clause, "A Bishop who has served as Chairman for three years may be elected for a second time, but not thereafter," or by inserting the word "immediately" before the word "thereafter."

which, on his motion, was referred to the Standing Committee on Rules of Order. [See p. 42.]

The Bishop of New York moved that—

WHEREAS, The usage of the House of Bishops, whereby it sits with closed doors, has no other basis than that of inherited custom;

AND WHEREAS, Such custom undoubtedly originated when the House consisted of only three or four Bishops; and when the Conference of the Bishops was wholly informal and conversational;

AND WHEREAS, The House of Bishops now consists of more than one hundred Bishops; and is governed by a fixed method of procedure, and by formal rules of order:

AND WHEREAS, It is entirely practicable for this House of Bishops, at such times as may be desired, to sit as Bishops in Council, and with closed doors;

AND WHEREAS, The custom of this House of sitting with closed doors differs radically from that of the other House, viz., the House of Deputies;

AND WHEREAS, It is to be desired that the usage of the two Houses which compose the General Convention—such General Convention being the chief legislative body of the Church in this Republic—should be one, and should be consonant with the rules and usages prevailing in the chief legislative bodies in this land; therefore be it

Resolved, That it be referred to the Standing Committee on Rules of Order to consider and report to this House such action, if any, as may be necessary to secure that hereafter the House of Bishops as such shall sit with open doors.—

which, on his motion, was referred to the Standing Committee on Rules of Order. [See p. 43.]

A motion to reconsider the vote on the above resolution of reference was not adopted by the required two-thirds vote.

At the request of the Presiding Bishop, the Chairman took the Chair.

The Bishop of Southern Virginia presented to the House an invitation to be present at a special service to be holden at Bruton Parish Church on Saturday next. On motion, the invitation was accepted, and the Chairman was desired to appoint a Committee, of which he should be a member, to represent this House at said service. [See p. 19.]

The Bishop of Georgia presented a memorial from the Diocese of Georgia, asking for a division of said Diocese; which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on New Dioceses. [See p. 32.]

On motion, it was voted that the House adjourn until tomorrow morning.

The Presiding Bishop pronounced the Benediction, and the House adjourned.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, October 3, 1907.

The House met after Morning Prayer, the Chairman in the Chair.

The roll was called; and the Bishop of Mexico, not present yesterday, appeared and took his seat.

A lesson of Holy Scripture was read by the Bishop Coadjutor of South Carolina, after which the House was bidden to prayer by the Chairman.

Resolved, That in sending these proposed amendments to the House of Deputies the two resolutions be included in the message with a request for a conference either between the two Committees on Canons or between special Committees to be appointed by each of the two Houses.—

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 5. See p. 45.]

The Bishop of Central Pennsylvania presented a copy of the report of the Commission on Sunday School Instruction, of which he is Chairman. [See p. 44.]

The Bishop of Pittsburgh presented the following report :

The Committee to whom was referred at the last Convention the proposition to change the title page of the Prayer Book, beg leave to say:

1. This proposition was originally made in the General Convention of 1886 by the Rev. Dr. Egar of Central New York, as follows:

Whereas, The Book of Common Prayer is the common heritage of all English-speaking people who have been baptized into the Church of Christ, and should express that fact upon its title page;

And whereas, It is according to the custom of the Church in all ages, as well as in the New Testament, that a Branch of the Church Universal, by whatever name it may be convenient otherwise to distinguish it, be also designated by the name of the country in which it exists: therefore,

Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, That the Joint Committee on the Revision of the Prayer Book be instructed to report an amendment to the title page of said book setting forth that the Book of Common Prayer, in its American form, is "according to the use of the Church in the United States of America."

This Resolution coming up for consideration in the House of Deputies, on October twenty-first, 1886, the Rev. Dr. Huntington, of New York, offered an amendment that instead of the words "according to the use of the Church in the United States of America," should be the words, "according to the use in the United States of America." A motion to lay the Resolution and Amendment on the table failed [page 441]. A motion that it was inexpedient failed [page 444]. The amendment of Dr. Huntington was lost, and on a vote by Dioceses and Orders the Resolution of Dr. Egar was defeated.

II. The change is advocated in the interests of Church Unity, a point touched upon in the Preamble of Dr. Egar's Resolution.

III. Also it is advocated in the interest of Church Extension, especially in Dioceses where there are large numbers of non-Roman immigrants, accustomed to a liturgical service, who finding themselves far from home use at first a book in their own language, but their children inevitably tend toward the use of English. Our Prayer Book in German, Swedish, or French, could much more effectively be used as a missionary agent, if it had not on its title page that which narrows its proprietorship and the scope of its use.

IV. It is advocated again in the interest of brevity and comprehensiveness; inasmuch as the words which follow "The Book of Common Prayer," are really superfluous. The shorter title includes within itself all that is expressed by the sub-title.

In the General Convention of 1904, these propositions were made.

1. The Bishop of Pittsburgh offered the resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That from and after November 1, 1907, all copies of the Book of Common Prayer printed for this Church shall bear the following inscription upon the title page:

THE
AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENTS
AND OTHER RITES AND CEREMONIES OF THE CHURCH,
ACCORDING TO THE USE IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, TOGETHER WITH THE PSALTER OR PSALMS OF DAVID.

2. The Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac offered as an amendment to substitute the following:

That a Special Edition be published with the title of the Book of Common Prayer and may be used in any Diocese with the permission of the Bishop.

3. The Bishop of Albany moved that it be referred to the same Committee to consider the following amendment of the Title Page of the Prayer Book, namely, to strike out the words "according to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America"; which was adopted.

Your Committee reports that while not recommending the adoption of any change, they believe, that if the title page is to be altered at all, it should be by adopting the precise language of the Ratification: "The book of Common Prayer, and administration of the Sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the Church." This commends itself, first, on the ground of its brevity, secondly, because it conforms to the descriptive title of the Prayer Book in the Ratification, and thirdly, that it takes away all narrowness of possession or exclusion as though the book were only for the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church. While, as the Ratification says, "the book is declared to be the Liturgy of this Church and required to be received as such by all members of the same," it nevertheless suggests that so far as its use is concerned, it is offered to all English-speaking Christians in the various Protestant communions.

WILLIAM CROSWELL DOANE,
CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,
WILLIAM PARET.

The Bishop of Pittsburgh offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the title page of the Prayer Book be made to conform in its phraseology to the title as given in the Ratification: "A Book of Common Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church."—

Which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution. [See pp. 37, 46.]

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That for greater facility in the use of the Book of Common Prayer the following order be adopted: In all future editions of the Book of Common Prayer an alphabetical index shall be printed in the fore part of the book or on the inside of the cover, and that the Custodian of the Prayer Book certify to those editions only which contain such index.—

Which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Prayer Book. [See p. 99.]

The Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Canon 4, § II. [i.], be amended by striking out the words, "(f) The English language, unless he is to be licensed to officiate in a foreign language."

Resolved, That Canon 7 be amended by striking out Clause (c) in § IV., and also § VI.—

Which, on his motion, were referred to the Committee on Canons. [See pp. 31, 38.]

Resolved, That Canon 3, § IV., be amended by the addition of the following clause:

Which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on Canons. [See p. 31.]

To the Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America,

The Bishops, Clergy, and Laity of the same, as assembled in the General Convention at Richmond, Virginia, in the year 1907, and upon the occasion of the celebration of the 300th Anniversary of the Church built at Jamestown.

The Society is bound to enter with a special interest into your great work and begs leave to greet you with the assurance of its sympathy and the promise of its prayers as you meet and celebrate the 300th Anniversary of the founding of the first Church in the American Continent.

The Mercy of God allowed the Society more than two centuries ago, to bear some part in the beginning of that enterprise which has grown and prospered under His Blessing beyond all that men could ask or think. To your forefathers and to ours He then showed His work: to the generations that have passed since then He has shown his glory: and we trust that through many generations in the future He still will carry forward that course of faithful and fruitful labor which He has thus blessed; and that you may be strengthened to send far and wide the Grace and Truth which came by Jesus Christ.

For your meeting now we implore His special Blessing. May He grant you by the guidance of His Holy Spirit a right judgment in all things; that through the wisdom that is from above you may truly know how he would have you deal with the great questions which are before you; and that the Church in this and other lands may gain fresh light from your deliberations and decisions in the power of the Spirit of Counsel and Understanding.

Finally we crave from you the help of your prayers: that we may grow in faith and patience: that we may be less unworthy of the encouragement which God has granted to the labors of the past; and that in the future we may know what He would have us do, and strive, with singleness of heart to do for His Name's sake.

Signed on behalf of the Society on the Festival of St. Bartholomew, August 24, 1907.

RANDALL CANTUAR,

President.

REPORT No. 5.

In re Memorial from the Church Association of the Blind, asking for official recognition of said association by the House of Bishops and the appointment by the House of Bishops of a commission of advisors for said association; the Committee recommend that the Secretary of the House be requested to write to the officers of the Church Association of the Blind, expressing the cordial sympathy of the House with the work of the association; and the Committee asks to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

The Bishop of Vermont, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report [see p. 24]:

REPORT No. 1.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred a proposal of the Bishop of Ohio to amend Canon 1, § III., so that it should read, "No person shall be received as a Postulant or Candidate for Holy Orders, except in the Diocese where he is actually resident;" respectfully reports that in the judgment of the Committee this amendment is unnecessary, the matter being already sufficiently provided for with reference to Postulants in Canon 1, § I. [ii.], which requires that a man seeking to be admitted a Postulant must make his application to the Bishop in whose jurisdiction he has been resident for the three months preceding, and with reference to Candidates in Canon 2, which requires that a Postulant must apply in the Diocese or Missionary District in which he is a Postulant for recommendation as a Candidate.

HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.

Attest: ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Secretary.

On motion of the Bishop of Vermont, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The Bishop of Vermont, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report [see p. 27]:

REPORT No. 2.

To the Committee on Canons was referred a proposal of the Bishop of Kyoto to amend Canon 3, § IV., so that it shall read: "No Bishop of this Church shall receive as a Candidate for Holy Orders any native person who has already applied and been rejected by the Standing Committee of any Foreign Church in communion with ours, until after the lapse of a period of three years from the date of such rejection, and after a careful and satisfactory inquiry into the causes of the same, and until receiving the consent of the Foreign Missionary Bishop of this Church under whom the Candidate expects to work."

In the judgment of the Committee the object aimed at in the above proposal would be sufficiently secured by the insertion in the Canon named of the words "or of any Church in communion with this Church," the matter being otherwise sufficiently covered by the provisions of Canon 1, § III. [i.], [ii.], and § I. [iii.] (f).

The Committee would therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That Canon 3, § IV., is hereby amended so that the opening sentence shall read:

"A Candidate for Holy Orders in any Diocese or Missionary District of this Church, or of any Church in communion with this Church, whose name shall have been stricken from the list of Candidates," etc.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.

Attest: ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Secretary.

On motion, the resolution contained in the report of the Committee was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 6. See p. 64.]

[i.], by striking out from among the subjects in which a Candidate for Deacon's Orders is to be examined, "(f) The English language, unless he is to be licensed to officiate in a foreign language," respectfully reports that in the judgment of the Committee this qualification is sufficiently provided for in the earlier requirements in Canon 2, § V. [i.], [ii.], concerning the qualifications of men to be admitted as Candidates for Holy Orders.

The Committee therefore recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That Canon 4, § II. [i.] be amended by striking out the clause lettered (f), and by changing in accordance with this omission the lettering of the two following clauses.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.

Attest: ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Secretary.

On motion, the resolution contained in the report of the Committee was adopted.

REPORT No. 1.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to which was referred the resolution of the Bishop of Pittsburgh, raising the question whether the Title Page of the Prayer Book can be legally altered by a vote of the General Convention at a single regular session, begs respectfully to report;

That it is the unanimous opinion of this Committee, as it has manifestly been the judgment of the General Convention implied in its procedure for the Revision of the Prayer Book (vide Journal of 1886, p. 696), that the Title Page is an integral part of the Book of Common Prayer and cannot be altered except by the method prescribed in Article X. of the Constitution.

WILLIAM C. DOANE, Chairman.

On motion, the opinion expressed in the foregoing report was adopted by this House. [See pp. 46, 99.]

The Bishop of Vermont, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report [see p. 26] :

REPORT No. 4.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred a proposal of the Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac to amend Canon 7 by striking out § IV. (c), and the whole of § VI., concerning testimonials from the Vestry or from other laymen in favor of a Deacon desiring to be advanced to the Priesthood, respectfully reports that in the judgment of the Committee such an amendment is inexpedient, as setting aside the principle that the laity should have a distinct share in the choice of men to be set apart for any order in the Ministry. This principle the Committee would desire to see more truly carried out, rather than ignored.

The Committee begs to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

Attest: HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.
ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Secretary.

On motion, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The Bishop of Vermont, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report [see p. 23] :

REPORT No. 5.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred a proposal by the Bishop of Pittsburgh to amend Canon 16, § I., by adding thereto the following sentence, "He shall not accept any appointment to work outside the Diocese to which he canonically belongs, without the written consent both of his own Bishop and of the Bishop in whose Diocese he desires to minister," respectfully reports that while in the judgment of the Committee the present rules are sufficient to show that a Deacon is entirely subject to the Bishop who ordains him unless he is formally transferred to the jurisdiction of another Bishop, yet as irregularities violating this principle have occurred, the Committee recommends the proposed addition to the Canon more explicitly stating the limitations on a Deacon's service. The Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, The House of Deputies concurring, That Canon 16, §1., be amended by the addition of the following sentence:

"He shall not accept any appointment for work outside the Diocese to which he canonically belongs, without the written consent both of his own Bishop and of the Bishop in whose Diocese he desires to minister."

Respectfully submitted.

Attest:

ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Secretary.

Which was adopted; and the Chairman appointed the Bishop of Vermont, the Bishop of Indianapolis, and the Bishop Coadjutor of New York, as members of the Joint Committee on the part of this House. [See p. 83.]

The Bishop of Vermont offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following declaration be adopted:
Seeing that a clause in the Pastoral Letter issued by the House of Bishops in 1895, which was intended only to apply to cases of great emergency, has been misinterpreted as giving a sanction to the practice of the continuous reservation of the Sacrament; the House of Bishops declares that in its judgment the reservation of the Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood for purposes of worship, the exposition or benediction of the Holy Sacrament, and the carrying the Sacrament in ceremonial procession are wholly unlawful, as altogether unprovided for in our formularies, and moreover without any authority in our Lord's institution of the Sacrament. The House of Bishops considers it the duty of Bishops to check any such practices in their several jurisdictions.

The Bishop of Easton moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on the Pastoral Letter.

The Bishop of Fond du Lac moved to amend the Bishop of Easton's motion by making the reference to a Committee of seven Bishops to be appointed by the Chairman.

7. A Province consisting of the Dioceses of Missouri, Kansas City, Arkansas, Louisiana, Kansas, Texas, Dallas, and West Texas, and of the Missionary Districts of New Mexico, Salina, and Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

8. A Province consisting of the Dioceses of California, Los Angeles, and Oregon, and of the Missionary Districts of Olympia, Spokane, Sacramento, Arizona, Alaska, Honolulu, and the Philippine Islands.

Provided, however, that no Diocese shall be included in a Province without its own consent.

SECT. 2. A Diocese or Missionary District may, upon its own petition, with the consent of the Synods of the Provinces concerned, be transferred from one Province to another by the General Convention.

SECT. 3. For the purposes of the Province, Dioceses and Missionary Districts shall have equal syndical rights and privileges.

SECT. 4. The representative or legislative body in the Province shall be a Provincial Synod, which Synod shall be composed of two Houses: a Provincial House of Bishops, embracing all the Bishops residing within the bounds of the Province having seats and votes in the House of Bishops of the General Convention, and a Provincial House of clerical and lay Deputies, chosen by the several Dioceses and Missionary Districts.

SECT. 5. The Bishops in each Province shall elect one of their number to be Primate.

SECT. 6. The Provincial Synod, when duly constituted, shall have power to enact Statutes or Canons: first, providing for its own organization, regulation and government; second, for the institution and government of a Provincial Board of Missions auxiliary to the General Board; third, for the development and regulation of its educational institutions; fourth, for such other matters as concern the general welfare of the Church within the Province; always providing that such legislation shall in no way conflict with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

SECT. 7. Within three months after this Canon takes effect, the Senior Bishop having jurisdiction within each Province shall convene the Bishops of the Province for the purpose of electing a Primate for such term of years as the Synod may subsequently determine.

SECT. 8. The Primate of each Province shall summon the Primary Synod to meet at some convenient place in the Province within one year after this Canon takes effect.

SECT. 9. In the Primary Synod the House of Deputies shall consist of the four clerical and the four lay Deputies from each Diocese elected to represent such Diocese in the last preceding General Convention, together with four clerical and four lay Deputies from each of the Missionary Districts elected by the Convocation thereof, or (if there be no meeting of the Convocation of a District before the assembling of the Synod) elected by the Bishop's Council of Advice. The Primary Synod when thus convened, a majority of those entitled to seats in both Houses being present, and when the two Houses shall have chosen their proper officers, shall be organized for business.

SECT. 10. All other Canons or parts of Canons conflicting with the provisions of this Canon are hereby repealed.

The following was also presented, as the opinion of a minority of the Commission:

The undersigned dissents from the views of the other members of the Commission, and through their courtesy respectfully offers the following as a substitute for the Canon recommended in the majority report. He takes this position because believing:

1st. That Catholic precedent and common sense alike point to civil divisions as the natural and logical boundaries of Provinces. An historic Church cannot wisely break with the past in its national organization.

2nd. The eight judicial departments for Courts of Review and the seven missionary departments for district conferences upon missions, already established and in successful operation, remove the necessity for any further organization of dioceses on sectional lines. Provincial Synods, as provided in the Canon reported by the majority, including (e. g.) Southern Ohio and Fond du Lac in one great loose-jointed aggregation, and Minnesota and Salt Lake in another, are entirely unnecessary and superfluous.

3rd. The only effective bond of association left, subsidiary to the General Convention, is that provided in a permissory Canon for State-Provinces. In 1865, when this plan was first proposed, but two States in the Union, New York and Pennsylvania, had more than one Diocese. Now there are twenty-three States that have more than one Diocese or Missionary District, and nearly fifty Dioceses, or about 80% of all our clergy and communicants, could at once be included in State-Provinces. This remarkable multiplication and increase of Dioceses in the last forty years points to the State as the simple and adequate framework for the future Provincial organization of the Church.

CANON _____ ON PROVINCES.

1. Two or more Dioceses now existing or hereafter created within the limits of any State may form an Ecclesiastical Province, and establish a Provincial Synod therein.

a. A Missionary District existing wholly or in larger part within the bounds of any State, shall be entitled under this Canon to the same rights as a Diocese.

b. If there be but one Diocese or one Missionary District in any State, such Diocese or Missionary District may, if it so elect, be attached to a contiguous Province for the purposes of this Canon; provided, that this connection shall cease whenever such Diocese or Missionary District shall be divided, and two or more Dioceses or Missionary Districts be thus formed within the same State.

2. The Provincial Synod shall consist of all the Bishops of the Province having seats and votes in the General Convention, and of ten clerical and ten lay delegates from each Diocese or Missionary District within the Province elected at the annual Convention or Council thereof next preceding the meeting of said Synod. The Bishops and delegates so chosen shall sit and deliberate as one House.

Provided, that upon request of any Bishop or of the clerical or lay representation of any Diocese, the vote shall be taken by orders; in which case the concurrence of a majority of the votes of the Bishops, of the clerical delegates and of the lay delegates entitled to seats, shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the Synod.

Provided also, that if there be three or more Bishops in the Province they may form a separate House, in which case a concurrence of both Houses shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the Synod.

3. The Senior Bishop in the order of consecration having jurisdiction within the State shall be empowered, upon due notice to the Bishops and Conventions of the several Dioceses and Missionary Districts thereof, to call the Primary Synod for the organization of the Province. The Bishops shall thereupon elect one of their number President of the Province, who shall serve for life, unless disabled or relieved of jurisdiction in his Diocese. When the clerical and lay delegates sit as a separate House, they may elect one of their number to act as Chairman.

4. The Provincial Synod, when duly constituted, may deliberate and, so far as not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, may take action upon questions of common educational, missionary and religious interest within the Province. It shall have power to establish a uniform mode of trial of Presbyters and Deacons, and in general to effect such unity of Diocesan legislation and action within the Province, as shall best promote the welfare of the Church. The times and places of meeting and other details of organization shall be determined at the Primary Synod of each Province.

The Bishop of Albany, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report [see p. 32]:

REPORT No. 3.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the resolution of the Committee on Foreign Missions, constituting the Brazilian Episcopal Church as a Missionary District of this Church and placing its Bishop, Clergy and Laity on the same Canonical footing as those of other foreign Missionary Districts, respectfully report:

While under the provisions of Canon 10, § I., the foreign Church of Brazil can, by vote of the House of Bishops, be established as a Foreign Missionary District of this Church, its Bishop cannot by a single resolution of this House be put upon the same Canonical footing as a Foreign Missionary Bishop of this Church.

Article III. of the Constitution seems clearly to deny to a Bishop of a foreign Church eligibility to the office of Diocesan or Coadjutor Bishop, or to a seat and vote in the House of Bishops.

It is the opinion, therefore, of your Committee, that the Brazilian Episcopal Church should first be constituted into a Foreign Missionary District; and, after this action shall have been taken, the House of Bishops can proceed in regular way to elect the present Bishop of Brazil as a Foreign Missionary Bishop for said District, with the consent of the House of Deputies.

Your Committee finally offers the following resolution for adoption, viz.:

Resolved, That the petition of the Brazilian Episcopal Church be granted and that Brazil be and is hereby established as a Foreign Missionary District of this Church.

Resolved, That the House of Bishops proceed to elect a Bishop for said Foreign Missionary District, such election to be confirmed by the action of the House of Deputies.—

On motion, the resolution contained in the report of the Committee was adopted.

The Bishop of Vermont, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report [see p. 23] :

REPORT No. 9.

The Committee on Canons, to which were referred resolutions proposed by the Bishop of Albany, looking to the amendment of Canons 38 and 39, respectfully reports that while in hearty and unanimous sympathy with the purposes of the Bishop of Albany's proposal, in the judgment of the Committee it would be inexpedient at this time to disturb the working agreement arrived at three years ago, inasmuch as we might thereby endanger the loss of the influence in the matter now exercised upon other religious bodies and for the improvement of civil enactments throughout the land; while there would be the further risk of losing the disciplinary provisions we now have with regard to the admission to the Sacraments of persons living in unlawful unions.

The Committee accordingly begs to be discharged from further consideration of the matter.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.

Attest: ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Secretary.

The Chairman bade the House to prayer for Mr. L. M. Blackford, Lay Deputy from the Diocese of Virginia, who had just met with a serious accident.

The Bishop of Pittsburgh presented the following report:

The Joint Committee to which was referred the Memorial from the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada upon the subject of the permanent Diaconate, or "The Revision and Expansion of the Ordinal for Deacons," has carefully considered the matter of such reference.

The Committee fully recognizes the urgent need of that increase of the working ministerial force of the Church, which the measure proposed is intended to supply. This proposal is not new to the American Church. During the last sixty years it has, from time to time, been brought to the attention of the Church and forcibly urged by brilliant advocates, notably the Rev. Dr. John Henry Hopkins and the Rev. Dr. S. D. McConnell. During this period Canonical provision has also been made to facilitate admission to the Diaconate. Results, however, have been so slender that such provisions have been repealed. This experience has been so far from convincing that your Committee feels unable to endorse the plan confidently, and it begs to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, 1. That the American Church fully recognizes the need of multiplying subordinate ministries in the Church, and is in sympathy with such plans for supplying them as may be possible without change in the Ordinal. It is not, however, prepared to take decisive action at this time on the lines proposed in the Memorial from the Church of England in Canada; but it welcomes the consideration of the subject, which, it hopes, may receive the attention of the collective Anglican Episcopate in the approaching Lambeth Conference.

2. That this General Convention requests that the Bishops, who may attend the Lambeth Conference of 1908, bring this subject to the attention of the Committee which shall be appointed on topic Number 3 of the agenda paper of the Lambeth Conference, namely, The Supply and Training of Clergy.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, and to the authorities of the Church of England in Canada.

The Joint Committee further recommends for the consideration of this General Convention, the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That a Joint Committee, consisting of three Bishops, three Presbyters, and three Laymen, be appointed to consider the whole question of the increase and efficiency of the Diaconate and other evangelistic ministries in this Church, and report to the next General Convention.

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, Chairman.

On motion, the resolutions contained in the report of the Committee were severally adopted; and the Chairman appointed as members of the proposed Joint Committee the Bishop of Pittsburgh, the Bishop of Michigan City, and the Bishop of Louisiana.

Resolved, That it be referred to the Committee on the Prayer Book to report upon a change in the third Collect for Good Friday, so that Jews shall no longer be grouped with Turks, infidels, and heretics.

Which was adopted. [See p. 100.]

The Bishop of Arkansas presented the following Memorial from the Council of the Diocese of Arkansas:

To the General Convention,

Pursuant to a resolution of the Annual Council of the Diocese of Arkansas, adopted after a most painstaking consideration of the various suggestions touching the spread of the Gospel among the colored people of the United States, and modified by the wise suggestions and candid criticisms of many among the most learned of the Clergy and Laity of the Church, the Arkansas delegation beg leave to present this memorial:

We believe that the method adopted by the Diocese of Arkansas, and now commonly designated as the Arkansas Plan, is the only method that will prove, ultimately, to be acceptable to the great body of the Church, and to the negroes themselves. We regard it as based upon the everlasting principle of social and racial separability. In the light of years of observation and experience, we steadfastly believe that racial amalgamation and social intermingling are incompatible and impossible, and, confiding in the civilizing, elevating and refining influence of our faith, ritual and service, believing that there are a certain elect few to whom the honors and responsibilities of the Episcopate may safely be entrusted, and that the Protestant Episcopal Church can and will purify and refine this unfortunate race of people, we propose to offer it to them, absolutely and without qualification or condition.

If, perchance, in the agitation consequent upon the discussion of the various plans suggested the negro race should refuse for a time to accept the benefits we tender, the responsibility will rest no longer upon the Church, but, as the years go by, when passion and feeling and pride of opinion shall have given place to sober second thought, we believe that those of that race already in our communion will seek voluntarily the fold of their autonomous Church, where hope and commendable ambition may find full fruition, and where liberty and self-government exist under proper restraint.

We, therefore, propose the following:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That this Convention shall appoint a commission to be composed of three Bishops, three Presbyters and three Laymen, whose duty it shall be to draft suitable Constitutional and Canonical provisions, for presentation to the next General Convention, embracing the following:

1. The consecration of three or more Presbyters of the African race, possessed of sufficient learning and piety, who shall profess adherence to the faith and doctrine of the Church, and agree to conform to the rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer as now in use in the Church, but who shall be independent of the General Convention of this Church for purposes of self-government: provided that neither the Negro Bishops so consecrated, nor their successors, nor the Bishops who may be consecrated by them, or by their authority, shall become members of the House of Bishops of this Church.

2. The election by such Diocesan Councils as may be organized by the Church herein provided for, of Clerical and Lay Deputies to a General Convention, whose first session shall be held at such time and place as said commission may designate.

3. A Constitution and Code of Canons, conformable as nearly as may be to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, to be tendered to such proposed African Bishops, Clerical and Lay Deputies, for their adoption or rejection at their option.

4. A provision that the Presbyters of the African race who may be consecrated Bishops as hereby proposed, shall not have, by virtue of their consecration, membership in the House of Bishops, nor the right to seats therein.

Which was adopted; and the Chairman appointed as members of such Joint Committee on the part of this House the Bishop of South Dakota, the Bishop of Southern Florida, and the Bishop of Minnesota.

The Bishop of California offered the following preamble and resolution:

At this Triennial Convention, when we celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of the planting of the Anglican Communion in America, a fitting memorial of this celebration would be recognition of the effort for the completion of the restoration, and for the adequate endowment of old Pohick Church.

Since the restoration of the Church on Jamestown Island, and of Old Bruton Church, no Church now has a stronger claim, because of its historical interest, and because of Washington's association with it, upon the whole Church, and upon the nation.

Pohick belonged originally with Christ Church, Alexandria, to Truro Parish, which dates back to 1730-1740. Pohick was the parish Church of Mount Vernon, and the adjacent estates, and it was rebuilt in brick and stone under the supervision of the following Committee of Vestrymen: George Washington, William Fairfax, George Mason, Daniel McCarty and Edward Payne. Records show that George Washington took the leading part in the construction and gave the ground for the site of the Church. Washington and his family occupied two of the old square pews, and Washington was constant in his attendance upon Pohick Church when he was in residence at Mount Vernon.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That we, as a House of Bishops approve the raising of a fund for the completion of the restoration of Pohick Church, and also a fund for the adequate endowment of this Church built by Washington, so that it may be preserved for future generations, secure from the chances and vicissitudes of a changing community.—

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Albany, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report [see pp. 32, 58]:

REPORT No. 4.

Your Committee, to which was referred the petition of the clergy and congregations in Brazil and the resolution offered by the Committee on Foreign Missions, respectfully presents the following report, viz.:

While it is true, that by the provision of Canon 10, § I., the House of Bishops may legally establish a Missionary District in territory beyond the United States; it is not true, as appears in Article III. of the Constitution, that this House can, by a simple resolution, transform a Bishop "consecrated for a foreign country" into a Missionary Bishop of this Church.

Moreover, it is distinctly stated in the Committee's report, under the terms of which the Bishop for the congregations in Brazil was consecrated and commissioned (vide Journal, 1898, pp. 110, 111), that the action was taken according to the provisions of Article X. (now Article III.) of the Constitution.

Your Committee, therefore, is of the opinion that the Bishop in charge of the congregations in Brazil must cease to be a Bishop "consecrated for a foreign country" before he can become eligible to be a Missionary Bishop of this Church; in other words, he must resign to this House the jurisdiction and Episcopal oversight of the congregations in Brazil, with which he was vested at the time of his consecration to the Episcopate.

The Bishop in charge of the congregations in Brazil has appeared before the Committee and herewith tenders his resignation, by the hands of your Committee; it reads as follows, viz.:

To the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A.:

BRETHREN—I hereby tender my resignation of the Episcopal oversight of the congregations in the State of Rio Grande do Sul, with which I was vested on my consecration as a Bishop for a foreign country by the House of Bishops on recommendation of their Committee, published in the Journal of the General Convention A. D. 1898, pp. 110, 111.

LUCIEN LEE KINSOLVING.

Richmond, Virginia, October 9, 1907.

Your Committee, finally, regard it as imperative that the resignation herewith presented shall be accepted by the House of Bishops, before the country of Brazil can be legally established as a Foreign Missionary District, and therefore offers the following resolutions for adoption, viz.:

Resolved, That the resignation of jurisdiction by the Bishop who has the present Episcopal oversight of the congregations in Brazil, according to the language of the resignation hereinbefore presented, be and is hereby accepted.

Resolved, That the petition of the clergy and congregations in Brazil met in annual Council at Bagé, Brazil, July 16, 1907, be granted, and that the United States of Brazil, South America, be and is hereby constituted a Foreign Missionary District of this Church.

Resolved, That the House of Bishops proceed to choose at this session a Bishop for the Foreign Missionary District of Brazil, subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies.

On motion, the first resolution contained in the report of the Committee was adopted.

On motion, the second resolution was adopted.

On motion, the third resolution was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 29. See p. 80.]

The Bishop of West Virginia, from the Committee on Domestic Missions, presented the following report [see p. 43] :

REPORT No. 2.

The Committee on Domestic Missions, to whom was referred the Memorial of the Bishops and Delegates of the Seventh Missionary Department, unanimously passed at the Conference in Boise, Idaho, on May 3, 1907, beg leave respectfully to report that they have considered the papers referred to them and have also heard the Bishops of Boies, Salt Lake, Laramie, Sacramento, and Spokane in regard to the questions involved.

It appears that the large territory under the care of the Missionary Bishops mentioned above has very inadequate Episcopal supervision.

Communication between different parts of this large territory are not yet fully developed, and the present grouping of the territory involved, whereby parts of different States are joined in one jurisdiction, operates to the great inconvenience of administration, and the loss of such advantages as naturally belong to the grouping together in one jurisdiction of all parts of the same State or Territory.

In order to give relief to this condition along the lines indicated by the Memorial of the Bishops and Delegates of the Seventh Missionary Department, the Committee offers the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the House of Bishops, acting under the provisions of Canon 10, § I., hereby changes the metes and bounds of the following Missionary Districts, namely:

The Missionary District of Boise, the Missionary District of Salt Lake, the Missionary District of Laramie, the Missionary District of Sacramento, the Missionary District of Spokane; so that hereafter the same area shall be included in Missionary Districts to be named, created, or revived as follows:

1. That the Missionary District of Wyoming be created, to consist of the territory within the boundaries of the State of Wyoming.

2. That the Missionary District of Utah be created, to consist of the territory within the boundaries of the State of Utah.

3. That the Missionary District of Idaho be created, to consist of the territory within the boundaries of the State of Idaho.

4. That the Missionary District of Nevada be revived, to consist of the territory within the boundaries of the State of Nevada.

5. That the Missionary District of Western Colorado be revived, to consist of the territory formerly constituting that district.

6. That the Missionary District of Laramie be changed in name to Kearney and include the area of the former Missionary District of the Platte, being relieved of any and all portions of the State of Wyoming heretofore attached to it.

7. That the Missionary District of Spokane be relieved of any and all portions of the State of Idaho that have been heretofore included therein.

8. That the Missionary District of Sacramento be relieved of any portion of Nevada that may have been heretofore included therein.

Resolved, 1, That the Right Rev. Dr. Anson R. Graves be and he is hereby appointed Missionary Bishop of the Missionary District of Kearney.

2. That the Right Rev. Dr. James B. Funsten be and he is hereby appointed Missionary Bishop of the Missionary District of Idaho.

3. That the Right Rev. Dr. Franklin S. Spalding be and he is hereby appointed Missionary Bishop of the Missionary District of Utah.

4. That, after the Districts of Nevada, Wyoming, and Western Colorado shall have been created, Missionary Bishops shall be chosen by this House (subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies), as follows:

- (a.) A Missionary Bishop for Nevada;
- (b.) A Missionary Bishop of Wyoming;
- (c.) A Missionary Bishop for Western Colorado.

For the Committee,

GEO. W. PETERKIN, Chairman.

The order of the day being called, on motion, it was postponed for five minutes.

On motion, the first resolution recommended by the Committee on Domestic Missions in the foregoing report was adopted.

On motion, the second resolution was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 30.]

The Bishop of West Virginia, from the Committee on Domestic Missions, presented the following report [see p. 29]:

The Committee on Domestic Missions, to whom was referred a petition from the Diocese of Oregon, asking that Eastern Oregon be set off as a Missionary District, beg leave respectfully to report.

It appears that a similar petition was formulated three years ago, but for various reasons that then seemed satisfactory it was not presented. The present Diocese of Oregon has 96,000 square miles and about 600,000 population. It is proposed to put 64,000 square miles and 150,000 population in the new Missionary District, leaving 32,000 square miles and 450,000 population in the Diocese of Oregon.

The Diocese would have 18 Clergy, 8 self-supporting Parishes, and 39 Missions; the new Missionary District would have 4 Clergy, 3 self-supporting Parishes, and 15 Missions. There is an endowment of $30,000 available for the support of a Bishop in the Diocese of Oregon, but no funds available for the support of the Episcopate in the proposed Missionary District. In the proposed District there are seven places where there is good property without debt. There is also at Cove property in the shape of a farm stated to be worth $100,000, for a girls' school, and also a fund of $5,000 for the support of a clergyman. The amount of the present appropriation from the Board of Missions that will be available for work in the proposed District would be $700.

The petition before us states that thousands of people are pouring into and settling in the State, and that vast industrial and commercial developments are opening up on every hand. Owing to the very great distances between the different parts of this large Diocese and the still very imperfect means of communication, it is impossible for the Bishop to extend suitable Episcopal supervision even to the existing Parishes and Missions, much less to push the Church work in the regions beyond.

The Committee, therefore, offer the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the proposed cession of the Eastern part of Oregon to the General Convention be accepted.

For the Committee,

GEO. W. PETERKIN, Chairman.

WHEREAS, It is highly desirable that all lay powers be developed and given proper standing; and

WHEREAS, the present Canon on Lay Readers (Canon 21, § III.), in its effort to open to the layman a proper sphere for preaching, seems to infringe upon the Ordinal, allowing what in the Ordinal is made to spring out of ordination to rest in the Canon on Lay Readers upon the natural right of the confirmed member subject to license; therefore,

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That such authority as may be required by law from the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the publication of a new edition of the Book Annexed is hereby given to such persons as may be willing to assume the labor and cost of such publication; and further, that the Bishop of New York be appointed to select a publisher for such book.

Resolved, That the House of Deputies be respectfully requested to return to this House Message No. 29.—

Which was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 32. See p. 93.]

The Order of the Day being called, the Bishop of Vermont, from the Joint Committee on Suffragan Bishops, presented the following report:

A Joint Committee, composed of five Bishops, five Presbyters, and five Laymen, was appointed by the last General Convention, to take into consideration the subject of Suffragan Bishops, with instructions to report their conclusions to this General Convention, together with such recommendations for Canonical action as they might deem expedient. (Journal, 1904, p. 93.)

The Committee organized by electing the Bishop of Vermont chairman, and the Rev. Dr. F. P. Davenport Secretary. Owing to Dr. Davenport's absence from this Convention, through illness, the Rev. E. L. Parsons has taken his place as Secretary.

Considerable correspondence was carried on during the interval between the Conventions, and papers on the subject circulated among the members of the Committee. A conference of such members as could attend was held in New York last May, and several meetings of the Committee have been held in Richmond since the assembling of the Convention.

Concerning the Canonical status of the question, the Committee would report that, while in our present Constitution and Canons there is no prohibition of Suffragan Bishops (such as formerly existed), at the same time no provision is made for them; and in the judgment of the Committee it is desirable, if not absolutely necessary, that before any provision is made by Canon for Suffragan Bishops, there should be explicit recognition in the Constitution of this class of Bishops. In any case an amendment of Article I. of the Constitution, Section 2, would be necessary if they were to have seats and votes (which the Committee does not propose) in the House of Bishops; and an amendment of Article II., Section 2, if it were desired that their election should be confirmed by any body short of a majority of all the Standing Committees, and a majority of all the Bishops.

In considering the question of Suffragan Bishops, the Committee has had in mind four special kinds of need for additional Episcopal ministrations:

1. The needs of very large cities, which, if not actually pressing at the present time, may soon become urgent;
2. The needs of very large Dioceses, where division or the provision of a Coadjutor is deemed impracticable, or where more than a single Coadjutor (which is all that the Canons allow) is needed;
3. The needs of special races in our country;
4. Or of populations, like the Swedes or Poles, speaking a foreign language.

These cases must be considered separately, while certain general principles will apply to all in common, and the Committee has endeavored to frame its recommendations with a view to meet the several needs, rather than to suggest legislation having one particular case in mind. The Committee would point out that the provision of Suffragan Bishops for any section of the population, rather than of Missionary Bishops for a particular race, would preserve the principle of Diocesan unity, which is a matter of very grave importance. At the same time it would be possible for Bishops of neighboring Dioceses to avail themselves of the services of the Suffragan belonging to a particular Diocese; and some common arrangement might be made for his support.

With a view to such provision, the Committee will recommend an amendment to the Constitution by the insertion of a new Article, enacting that

"Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and without seats in the House of Bishops, may be elected by a Diocese according to its Canons, and consecrated under such conditions as may be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention.

"Such Suffragan Bishop shall not vacate his office on the death or removal of the Bishop of the Diocese. He shall be eligible by any Diocese to the office of Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor thereof, or by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop, or he may be elected a Suffragan in another Diocese."

By these Constitutional provisions the Committee has sought at once to guard the House of Bishops from being unduly swollen in numbers, or from a disproportionate representation of any one Diocese, and at the same time to secure the dignity and rights of the Suffragan Bishop. Freedom of translation would be in some sort a compensation for the absence of a seat in the House of Bishops.

For such an office no inferior men ought to be chosen; the office will provide (as has been the case in England) an opportunity for testing a man and for developing in him powers which may show him fitted for a still more responsible position. It will be especially noted that a Presbyter chosen as a Suffragan Bishop would still preserve all the rights belonging to him as a Presbyter; while in addition, he would become by consecration the spiritual equal of any Bishop in the Church of God, and would be given a sphere of action affording opportunity for wide usefulness. The Committee feels that these considerations should make the position of a Suffragan Bishop attractive as affording to Presbyters of a high order of ability and character a field of valuable and dignified service.

Within the provisions of such an Article of the Constitution as is proposed, the Committee believes that all necessary Canonical regulation could be framed. This could not be enacted until the necessary amendments to the Constitution had been adopted. But it may be desirable to note certain questions which would have to be decided: e. g., (1) Should previous consent (as in the case of a Bishop Coadjutor needed by reason of the extent of Diocesan work) be required for the election of a Suffragan Bishop? This would not seem necessary, unless in cases where the financial support of the Church at large was asked. In ordinary cases the Diocese would be expected to provide for its own Suffragan. (2) In the election of a Suffragan, as of a Coadjutor, the initiative should be with the Bishop of the Diocese, asking the Convention for such assistance.

(3) Provision should be made in the Canon that it should be lawful for a Suffragan Bishop to resign his special office, falling back on Parochial or other work, and exercising Episcopal functions only as he might be called upon by a Bishop having jurisdiction.

It will be understood that in such tentative suggestions for future

Canonical legislation, the Committee is simply desiring to show how the proposed amendment to the Constitution could be carried out and reduced to practice in detail. For the suggestions, and more especially for the formal resolution, the Committee begs the candid consideration of the General Convention, believing that in the manner proposed a way is pointed out for meeting new demands and situations, such as, in different parts of the country, we are called upon to face, without any departure from recognized Church principles, and by adapting to our circumstances an expedient that has been proved of great service in the Church of England.

The Joint Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert the following as Article IV., and change accordingly the numbers of the subsequent Articles:

ARTICLE IV.

Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and without seats in the House of Bishops, may be elected by a Diocese according to its Canons, and consecrated under such conditions as may be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention. Such Suffragan Bishop shall not vacate his office on the death or removal of the Bishop of the Diocese. He shall be eligible by any Diocese to the office of Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor thereof, or by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop, or he may be elected a Suffragan in another Diocese.

*Agreeing to the report in general, while preferring that a Suffragan Bishop should have a seat without a vote in the House of Bishops.

The question being on the resolution contained in the report of the Joint Committee, the Bishop Coadjutor of New York moved to substitute the words "with the right of seats, but without the right to vote," in place of the words "and without seats."

At noon the Chairman bade the House to prayer for Missions.

Resolved, That it be referred to the Joint Committee on Suffragan Bishops to consider the following proposed amendment of the resolution recommended by the Joint Committee, viz.:

Which was adopted.

On motion, the further consideration of the resolution contained in the report of the Joint Committee on Suffragan Bishops was postponed. [See p. 118.]

The Bishop Coadjutor of New York offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the evil of Child Labor is apparently on the increase in this Christian country, and it is known that the employment of children in factories, mines, and shops reduces wages to the child standard, disintegrates the family, deprives the child of his natural rights to a period of training and a time for play, and depreciates the human stock; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the profound responsibility of the Church for our ethical as well as our spiritual standards;

Therefore, we call upon employers and parents to use example and influence toward better legislation and better enforcement of the laws for the protection of children, to the end that the exploitation of the labor of children shall become impossible in this Christian country.—

Which was adopted.

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the following alteration in the Prayer Book be proposed and notice thereof be sent to the Secretaries of the Diocesan Conventions in accordance with Article X. of the Constitution:

Amend the title page of the Book of Common Prayer so as to read: "A Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church."

The Bishop of New York, from the Joint Commission upon the Work among Seamen, presented the following report:

This Joint Commission begs to submit the following report in accordance with the resolution under which it was appointed. We gather as a summary from the full and exhaustive data that have been secured and are now in our possession, that over three million seamen are toiling on the seven seas. At present, more than 177,000 of them are employed on the 25,000 vessels of the American Mercantile Marine, and the number is rapidly increasing with the growth of the merchant service, which has increased 42 per cent. during the last decade.

For these and for the vast number of seamen of foreign nations, frequenting the seaports and inland ports of our country and its possessions, the General Church has done nothing. But, however, under diocesan and local authority, well organized and successful spiritual and temporal work has been accomplished in three ports on the Atlantic and in four ports on the Pacific Coasts, dating back to the year 1843, which demonstrates that there is urgent and immediate need of a special and central organization, acting on behalf of the Church, for the purpose of co-ordinating existing institutions for seamen, and for extending the work to those ports which are at present unoccupied by the Church.

May this Church perform her duty towards the seamen who visit our shores, irrespective of creed or nationality, "linking all our ports together in one world-wide girdle of Christian-loving ministrations afloat as well as ashore."

This Commission, therefore, recommends that a Central Board for Church work among Seamen be appointed by the General Convention, and that said Board be organized under the auspices of the Board of Missions, and be known as "The Seamen's Church Institute of America."

The Commission further recommends that the work of this Board shall be laid down in the following scheme:

- I. That there be appointed an Organizing Secretary.
- II. That the existing Seamen's Institutes be invited to agree to mutual affiliation, each retaining its own entire independence.
- III. That the duties of the Organizing Secretary be somewhat as follows:

(a) To ascertain what ports in the United States and its possessions are without Seamen's Institutes, to visit those ports, interview the Bishops and Clergy, and endeavor to raise the salary of a chaplain for three years, on condition that the local Church undertakes all expenses of maintenance. After three years, the grant towards the chaplain's salary to be gradually reduced and finally to cease.

(b) To interest inland cities in work among Seamen.

(c) To contribute articles to the Church Press.

(d) To safeguard marine legislation.

(e) To obtain, tabulate, and publish statistics from all Seamen's Church Institutes annually.

(f) To act as the intelligence department of the Church Marine work.

(g) To call conferences of chaplains at convenient intervals and localities, say every three years.

IV. The Organizing Secretary shall not solicit funds from States in which a Seamen's Institute already exists, without permission of institutions concerned.

V. Existing Institutes not to solicit funds beyond the borders of their own State.

VI. All existing Institutes to agree upon one common flag which could be used in conjunction with existing flags.

VII. The work of the Church among seamen to be organized under the auspices of the Board of Missions, except as specified in Section 2.

The Committee recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Whereas, this General Convention being held in Richmond, Virginia, in the year 1907, takes note of the 300th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown, and the bringing to this land of the historic faith, which events could not have been consummated save by the labors and self sacrifice of seamen,

And, Whereas, There are at present more than 177,000 seamen serving this country in the vessels of the American Mercantile Marine alone, not to mention the many thousands of foreign seamen visiting our ports, for most of whom the Church has not hitherto made spiritual or temporal provision; therefore be it

Resolved, The House of Deputies concurring, That a Board to be known as "The Seamen's Church Institute of America" and to consist of five bishops, five presbyters and five laymen, be and is hereby appointed a Board to manage the work of the Church among Seamen in the United States of America and its possessions, such Board to be organized by and be under the direction of the Board of Missions.

HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.

Secretary.

The Bishop of North Carolina presented a statement of the views of two members of the Joint Committee [see Appendix IX.], recommending the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That Article VI. of the Constitution be amended by inserting the following Section to be numbered Section 4:

The House of Bishops may establish Missionary Districts upon racial lines, i. e., for specified race or races, within the bounds of Dioceses and Missionary Districts, established as authorized in Section I., either severally or in such grouping as it may determine; provided, that in the case of a Diocese, such racial jurisdiction within the Diocesan borders shall be first ceded by the Bishop and Convention of the Diocese.

In the interpretation of the Constitution and Canons the people and Churches of such racial Missionary Districts shall occupy the same relation to the General Convention as any other Domestic Missionary District.

No such cession by a Diocese, or division of a Missionary District, shall carry with it the members of the ceded race, who may be or become members of congregations not included in such missionary districts.

The House of Bishops may from time to time change, increase, or diminish such racial Missionary Districts in such manner as may be prescribed by Canon. Such racial jurisdiction within the borders of any Diocese may be re-ceded to the Diocese by the House of Bishops, if the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall consent to receive it.

The Order of the Day being called, on motion of the Bishop of Vermont, the consideration of the report of the Joint Committee on Suffragan Bishops, together with the amendment offered by the Bishop Coadjutor of New York [see p. 83], was laid on the table for the present. [See p. 139.]

The Bishop of Rhode Island moved the adoption of the resolution contained in the report of the Joint Commission on the Memorial of Church Workers among Colored People.

At noon, the Chairman bade the House to prayer for Missions.

It was voted that, after the Bishop of Cape Palmas has spoken, the time of speakers be limited to ten minutes.

The Bishop of Texas moved, by way of amendment, that the resolution contained in the statement of the views of the minority be substituted for that contained in the report of the Commission. [See pp. 119, 144.]

At one o'clock the House took a recess.

The House met at three o'clock after the recess, the Bishop of West Virginia in the Chair.

The Bishop of New York laid before the House a letter from Gen. James Grant Wilson, presenting to the Church the manuscript of the sermon preached by the first Bishop of New York before the General Convention in Philadelphia, September 11, 1795, and he offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this House begs to return to General James Grant Wilson its grateful acknowledgements for his gift to this House of the sermon of the Right Rev. Dr. Provoost, and that the Secretary of this House be instructed to receive and deposit the same with the Custodian of the Archives of this House.—

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Salina offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The existence of special movements, like the Sunday School Lenten Offering, Woman's Auxiliary Offerings, and the proposed Men's Triennial Offering, makes success under the Apportionment Plan more difficult in many Dioceses;

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That, on and after September 1, 1908, in any Diocese or Missionary District where the Convention or Convocation thereof shall have declared that the inclusion of such special offerings is absolutely necessary to the meeting by such Diocese or Missionary District of its apportionment for general missions, the gifts made and reported in any year under the Sunday School Lenten Offering, the offering of the Woman's Auxiliary, or the Triennial Offering of the men, may be so credited to such Diocese or District under the apportionment plan; provided, that the statistics of such separate movements shall still be separately tabulated.—

Which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Domestic Missions. [See p. 156.]

The Bishop of Minnesota offered the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the Bishops of those Dioceses which have Diocesan Boards of Missions, which are charged with the raising and expenditure of money for the maintenance and extension of the Church within such Diocese, be and they are hereby requested to make annually a detailed report of the receipts and expenditures of the Diocesan Board of Missions to the General Board of Missions; and that the General Board of Missions be and it is hereby instructed: (1) To publish the totals so shown in their tabulation of the Missionary offerings of the Church; (2) To take into consideration, in fixing the apportionment for any Diocese, the necessary burden of that Diocese for the support of its episcopate, and for Diocesan Missions, and the relative ability of the Diocese to sustain such burdens, as shown by the existence or non-existence of endowments, or by the proportion and strength of self-supporting parishes.—

Which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Domestic Missions. [See p. 135.]

The report of the Joint Committee on the Memorial of Church Workers among Colored People being called up for further consideration, the Bishop of Asheville moved that the whole subject be laid on the table for the present; which was not adopted.

The following Message was received from the House of Deputies:

IN GENERAL CONVENTION,
RICHMOND, 11th day of the Session,

MESSAGE No. 68.

The House of Deputies informs the House of Bishops that it has adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That this General Convention wishes to express to the world its thankfulness to God that all the nations of the world have at last, in this year of our Lord 1907, been brought together at The Hague in a glorious effort to promote and establish universal Peace.

We rejoice in all efforts to bring about this grand consummation, especially those to create and perfect Courts for the judicial decision of international disputes.

We rejoice to see that these efforts spring from a growing conviction that relations between nations must rest on the solid foundation of justice.

We reverently thank God for the guidance of His Holy Spirit in bringing all nations into relations of amity. Only when convinced that they are friends and no longer enemies will they be ready to lessen preparations for war and to devote the productive energies of men towards wise measures for their uplift. Even now the great Hague Conference is studying to abate the brutalities of war and to strengthen the bonds of peace.

We pray the God of Nations to make the nations of the world to be no longer enemies, but sincere friends; to love justice; to create courts for its enforcement; and so to establish peace on the firm foundation which our Lord Jesus Christ has revealed to us in His will for all His children here on earth.

Attest:

HENRY ANSTICE, Secretary.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 69.]

The Bishop of Delaware offered the following resolution [see p. 91]:

Resolved, That, while heartily sympathizing with the objects contemplated in the pending Resolution and especially as to securing larger contributions from the men of the Church, this House does not deem it expedient at this time to take such action as is therein proposed.—

Which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on Domestic Missions. [See p. 156.]

At five o'clock the house took a recess.

The House met at eight o'clock after the recess, the Bishop of West Virginia in the Chair.

The Bishop of New York, from the Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops, presented the following report:

The Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops begs leave to report the following recommendation:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That Article II. of the Constitution be amended by adding the following as Section 5 of said Article; and that this proposed alteration be accordingly made known to the several Dioceses:

SECTION 5. A Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of any Diocese of this Church may not accept election and jurisdiction in another Diocese than that for which he was consecrated without great and reasonable cause and a strong and general demand for the translation, nor without the consent of a majority of the Bishops of this Church having jurisdiction within the United States and the consent of a majority of the Standing Committees of all the Dioceses of this Church. But if his election to such other Diocese shall have taken place within three months next before the meeting of the General Convention, then the consent of the House of Deputies shall be required in place of that of the Standing Committees.

HENRY C. POTTER, Chairman.

The Bishop of Maryland, as a member of the Joint Committee, presented the following statement:

As a member of the Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops, I am not able to agree to the decision reached by the majority of that Committee.

While convinced that the Translation of Diocesan Bishops would be wrong in principle and harmful in practice, I feel also that so great a change should not be made without very full study and most careful consideration; and that it is not possible to secure such full consideration at this stage of the Convention, when every hour is required for matters of far greater and more immediate importance. I therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That since the subject of the Translation of Bishops is not, at present, among those immediately pressing for action by the General Convention, the consideration of the subject be postponed; and (the House of Deputies concurring), that the Joint Committee be continued, with instructions to report, as early as possible, at the next regular meeting of the General Convention.

WILLIAM PARET, Bishop of Maryland.

On motion, the resolution offered by the Bishop of Maryland in the preceding statement, was adopted.

The Committee is of opinion that it is impossible to frame such a plan in time for action at this Convention, and recommends the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That a Joint Committee of two bishops, two presbyters, and two laymen, be appointed to report a plan for the uniform registration of communicants to the next General Convention.

On motion, the resolution recommended by the Committee was adopted.

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Brazil thereupon took his seat.

The Bishop of Springfield offered the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That a Joint Committee of three bishops, three presbyters, and three laymen be appointed, to consider the advisability of a Book of Offices and Prayers for occasions not provided for in the Book of Common Prayer, and, if deemed desirable, to prepare such a book and present it to the next General Convention.—

Which was adopted. [See pp. 126, 155.]

TWELFTH DAY.

The House met after Morning Prayer and Litany; the Bishop of West Virginia in the Chair.

On the Committee on Book of Offices [see p. 125], the Bishop of Albany, the Bishop of North Carolina, and the Bishop of Springfield;

On the Committee on the Uniform Registration of Communicants [see p. 124], the Bishop of Oklahoma and Indian Territory and the Bishop of Maine;

On the Commission on a Mission Hymnal [see p. 120], the Bishop of Pittsburgh and the Bishop of Harrisburg;

Committee to confer with Swedish Bishops [see p. 120], the Bishop of Marquette, the Bishop of Minnesota, and the Bishop of North Dakota.

The Bishop of Missouri offered the following preamble and resolution:

The American Bible Society has been used of God in giving to the Chinese Church the two versions in Mandarin and in Wenli, the results of the heroic toil of Bishop Schereschewsky; it has published the New Testament, or parts of it, and parts of the Old Testament also in the languages needed by our North American Indians. At the present time, in conjunction with the British and Foreign Bible Society, it is carrying forward at a cost of many thousands of dollars a revised translation of the Portuguese Scriptures in Brazil. These instances of its wide usefulness, both at home and abroad, constitute a valid plea for our sympathy and our prayers, and make it a proper subject for the benevolence of all who love God's Holy Word; therefore

Resolved, That this House commends anew to the generous consideration of all the congregations of this Church the service rendered for more than ninety years past by this historic society.—

Which was adopted.

The Bishop Coadjutor of Albany offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Missions be requested to publish a text-book or text-books on Missions, and especially those of this Church, for the special use of Mission Study classes.

The Bishop of Springfield offered, as a substitute by way of amendment, the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Missions be requested to appoint a Special Committee to take charge of the work of preparing Mission Study courses and other literary matter for the use of persons wishing to inform themselves upon the subject of Missions, and be further requested to instruct such committee to prepare and publish at early date a Text-book of the Missions of the Anglican Communion throughout the world.—

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Western Massachusetts, from the Committee on the General Theological Seminary, presented the following report [see p. 39]:

Owing to miscarriage in the mails, the usual reports from officials of the Seminary have failed to reach your Committee through the proper course, so that a review thereof cannot be submitted at this time. Nevertheless, other matters affecting the welfare of this institution have been considered, with the result that a resolution has been framed which because of pressure of business is offered without further delay. Your Committee is of the opinion that the present method prescribed for the government of the Seminary in the selection of Trustees and otherwise is cumbrous, antiquated, and unsatisfactory. Attention is called to the fact that a Joint Committee has been appointed by the Convention to consider the affairs of the Seminary and belief is expressed that the objects described can be best obtained by the enlargement of the powers of the said Joint Committee. Therefore, your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the Joint Committee appointed to consider the affairs of the General Theological Seminary be instructed to report to the next General Convention such measures as in the judgment of the Committee would tend to the greater efficiency of the Seminary.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEX. H. VINTON, Chairman.
JUNIOUS M. HORNER,

C. H. BRENT,

BEVERLEY D. TUCKER,

The Bishop of Oklahoma and Indian Territory offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it be referred to the Committee on Rules to consider the abolishing of the Standing Committee of this House on Despatch of Business.—

Which was adopted. [See pp. 172, 173.]

On motion of the Bishop of Washington, it was voted that no new business be presented to the House after this evening's session.

The Bishop of Long Island, from the Joint Committee on the Society for Promoting Christianity among the Jews, presented the following report:

Your Committee, which was appointed on the 11th day of the General Convention meeting in Boston in 1904, to consider the question of continuing the Christian work among the Jews under the Society for promoting Christianity among the Jews, respectfully report:

That on looking into the question, they find that the growth of the Jewish population in the United States during recent years has been very great. Between the years 1894 and 1904, 694,000 Jewish immigrants came to this country, of whom 504,000 were bound for New York. It would be a safe estimate to say that the number of Jews in this country now amounts to 1,500,000, and that in New York State alone they number nearly 800,000. New York City contains more Jewish inhabitants than any other city in the world. The other Hebrews are scattered widely over the country, Illinois, Massachusetts, Ohio, New Jersey, Missouri, and California having large numbers.

We have held too strongly to the opinion that the Jew on embracing Christianity must necessarily give up all the distinctive ritual and symbolism of the Hebrew faith, whereas in the New Testament we find no warrant for such complete and sudden separation from his former beliefs on his conversion to Christianity. A more liberal toleration of the Hebrew customs and usages, and a recognition of the reasonableness and helpfulness of the Law would be far more in accord with the teaching of St. Paul.

If, therefore, Missionary work amongst a special race like that of the Jews is to be undertaken through a general organization, it should be placed distinctly under the auspices of the Board of Missions, believing that the Church ought not to delay its efforts or disregard so large a proportion of our community, and believing that much can be accomplished by a combination of sincere and faithful men, trained in the Jewish speech and familiar with the Jewish methods of life and thought.

Your Committee accordingly offers the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That, inasmuch as the Society for Promoting Christianity among the Jews has been disbanded, the whole subject of promoting Christianity among the Jews be referred to the Board of Missions for its consideration and action.

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

On motion, the foregoing report was laid on the table for the present. [See p. 136.]

Message No. 51 from the House of Deputies being taken up [see pp. 95, 111], and the question being on the resolution therein contained, the Bishop of Albany moved to amend the proposed Preamble to be prefixed to the Constitution, by striking out the word "and" immediately before the words "the record," and to substitute a comma therefor.

The Bishop of Vermont moved to strike out the words, "and accounting to be members of the flock of Christ all who have been duly baptized in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost"; which was not adopted.

The question recurring on the amendment offered by the Bishop of Albany, it was adopted.

The question recurring on the resolution contained in Message No. 51 from the House of Deputies, as amended, it was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 73. See p. 146.]

The Bishop Coadjutor of Albany, from the Committee on the Prayer Book, presented a report [see pp. 99, 100, 130, 71]:

REPORT No. 7.

I. Acting upon the request of the House of Deputies that the House of Bishops set forth a Prayer for Persons on a journey by land, the Committee begs leave to report: That, whereas a prayer put forth by the House of Bishops for regular use throughout the Church would be practically an addition to the Prayer Book, your Committee prefers not to recommend such a prayer and asks to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

II. Acting on a Resolution offered by a Committee of the House of Bishops, and a similar resolution from the Bishop of Porto Rico asking for a change in the Title Page of the Book of Common Prayer, the Committee begs leave to offer the following resolutions:

(1) Resolved, That in the opinion of the House of Bishops it is inexpedient to raise any question concerning the title by which this Church is known in law.

(2) Resolved, That in view of circumstances in connection with the missionary work of the Church, and in the publication of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages, it is deemed expedient by the House of Bishops that some change should be made in the Title Page of the Book of Common Prayer in order to avoid all possibility of misunderstanding concerning the character of this Church.

(3) Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the following alteration in the Book of Common Prayer be proposed and that notice thereof be sent to the Secretaries of the Diocesan Conventions in accordance with Article X. of the Constitution, viz.: Amend the Title Page of the Book of Common Prayer so as to read, "The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, Together with the Psalter, or Psalms of David."

III. Acting on the resolution offered by the Bishop of Vermont proposing to amend the Ordering of Deacons, so as to omit the following question and answer:

The Bishop.—Do you unfeignedly believe all the Canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?

Answer.—I do believe them.—

the Committee is of the opinion that this question and answer, following as they do the subscription and declaration required by Article VIII. of the Constitution, are sufficiently explicit, and impose nothing on the conscience of the Candidate to which he is not already bound. The Committee ask to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

IV. Acting on the Memorial of Commander Rodney, U. S. N., presented to the House of Bishops by the Presiding Bishop, your Committee report: (1) That so far as his suggestions concern alterations in the Prayer Book it is inexpedient to take action upon them; and—

(2) That in the judgment of the Committee no hymns are authorized for general use in this Church, except those contained in the Hymnal set forth by the General Convention.

The Committee beg to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

The question being on the request in the first paragraph of the report, on motion, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 74.]

The question being on the three resolutions contained in the second paragraph, they were severally adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 75. See p. 161.]

The question being on the request of the Committee in the third paragraph, on motion, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The question being on the request of the Committee in the fourth paragraph, on motion, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The Bishop of Albany presented the following report [see p. 151]:

The Bishops appointed by this House on a Committee of Conference with representatives of the House of Deputies concerning the Canon on Provinces passed by this House and rejected in the House of Deputies, respectfully report that in their judgment it would be undesirable at this time to press the matter of Provinces, more especially because the proposed amendment of Canon 52 ("Of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society") will secure many of the objects aimed at by the proposed Canon on Provinces. The Bishops recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the Joint Committee on Provinces be continued, with instruction to report to the next General Convention.

WM. CROSWELL DOANE,
G. H. KINSOLVING,
ARTHUR C. A. HALL.

The Bishop of Minnesota, from the Committee on Domestic Missions, presented the following report [see pp. 91, 123]:

REPORT No. 7.

The Committee on Domestic Missions, to which were referred the resolutions contained in Message No. 44 from the House of Deputies, concerning the proposed triennial men's offering, beg leave to report and recommend for passage the following resolution:

Resolved, That, while heartily sympathizing with the object of increasing the offerings of the men of the Church, and approving of the plan of keeping up the organization of the Men's Thank-Offering Committee, or any other instrumentality which in the judgment of the Board of Missions may aid in educating and stimulating the men of the Church to a fulfilment of their duty to missions, this House does not deem it expedient at this time that the men of the Church shall be asked to make a special triennial offering. In the judgment of this House, the further success of the Apportionment Plan is the object upon which the attention of the men of the Church should be concentrated during the coming three years. Therefore, the House of Bishops does not concur in the resolutions contained in the House of Deputies' Message No. 44.

On motion, the resolution contained in the foregoing report was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 102.]

The Committee on Domestic Missions, to whom was referred the resolution offered by the Bishop of Salina, concerning the inclusion of the Sunday School and other special offerings in the Apportionment plan, report that they recommend the passage of such resolution, provided it be amended as follows:

WHEREAS, The existence of special movements, like the Sunday School Lenten Offering, the Woman's Auxiliary Offerings, and the proposed Men's Triennial Offering, makes success under the Apportionment Plan more difficult in many Dioceses; Therefore, be it Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That for the year beginning September 1, 1908, the Board of Missions be and it is hereby instructed to make an apportionment for at least one million dollars, and that the gifts made during that year under the Sunday School Lenten Offering and by the Woman's Auxiliary shall be credited to the respective Dioceses and Districts under the Apportionment Plan; pro- vided, that the statistics of such separate movements shall still be separately tabulated.

On motion, the resolution contained in the foregoing report was adopted.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 103. [The House of Deputies did not concur.]

The Bishop of Virginia moved to amend by striking out the words "with seat and without vote" in line third of the resolution, and substituting the words, "without seat"; which was not adopted.

The question recurring on the resolution contained in the report of the Joint Commission on Memorial from Conference of Workers among Colored People, in the following words:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert in Article II. as Section 4 the following, and renumber the present Section 4:

It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and with seat and without vote in the House of Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Indianapolis offered the following resolution [see pp. 173, 184]:

Resolved, That the House of Bishops, while recognizing the impropriety of any Church's interfering in matters of purely political import and while abstaining from all expression of opinion on mere questions of legislative or administrative policy, is charged from time to time with the responsibility of declaring its mind on the moral aspect of political measures, and that it hereby places itself on record as believing it to be the duty of all Christian citizens to insist that the injustice allowed hitherto and now by our Federal Government of refusing ordinary trade rights to the Filipinos which all other people under the American flag enjoy, be removed without further delay; also that the law be repealed which in the interest of American corporations attempts to impose on the Filipino market cotton textiles at the cost of advancing the price of a necessity of life for the Filipino people.—

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Newark offered the following resolution [see p. 155]:

Resolved, That the subject of the preparation of a Book of Offices for use upon occasions not provided for by the Book of Common Prayer be referred to a Commission of five Bishops to report at the next General Convention.—

Which was adopted; and the Chairman appointed as such Committee the Bishop of Texas, the Bishop of Kansas, the Bishop of Newark, the Bishop of Springfield, and the Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac.

At noon the Chairman bade the House to prayer for Missions.

The Bishop of Hankow offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in communicating to the Archbishop of Canterbury the action of the House of Bishops expressing its appreciation of the courtesy and consideration shown by his Grace in the final settlement of the question of jurisdiction formerly existing in the Province of Kiangsu and the City of Shanghai, China, the Presiding Bishop be desired to request the good offices of the Archbishop in delimiting the jurisdiction of the successor of the English Bishop in Mid-China, resigned, so that such jurisdiction shall not conflict with that of the Bishop of Hankow as defined by this House of Bishops.—

Which was adopted.

A motion that the Committee on the Pastoral Letter be discharged was not adopted.

The Bishop of Vermont presented the following report [see p. 190]:

The Committee of Conference concerning a proposed article in the Constitution on the Standard Bible, proposed by the House of Deputies in their Message No. 107, in which the House of Bishops did not concur, respectfully report that they have not been able to come to an agreement on the matter.

On motion, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

On a report from the Committee on Unfinished Business, it was voted that the Commission on a German Version of the Prayer Book, the Commission on Ecclesiastical Relations, and the Commission on Archives be continued.

The Bishop of Albany presented the following minute:

The House of Bishops recognizes, with sincere thanks to the Bishops, Clergy, and Lay-people and other citizens of Richmond, their cordial welcome of the General Convention to the churches and homes of this beautiful city, and adds the expression of special satisfaction with the full, careful, and accurate reports of the doings of the General Convention in the daily press. Specific mention must be made of the arrangements which, with much labor and pains, have been made, under the Bishop's guidance, by the various Committees for the comfort and convenience of the Convention. To the Governor especial acknowledgment has been made for his extreme courtesy in an engrossed address, of which the following is a copy:

"The House of Bishops having, by the courtesy of the Governor of Virginia, enjoyed the privilege of holding its sessions in the hall of the House of Delegates, begs leave to assure His Excellency of its grateful appreciation of the courtesy which has literally set their feet in a large room."

"The Bishops sitting in the House at this session beg leave to present to His Excellency this formal assurance of their recognition of his kindness, which has ministered so satisfactorily to their convenience and comfort."

"Richmond, October 19, 1907."

The high water mark of enthusiasm about Missions has been reached at this session, not only in the great gifts of the Woman's Auxiliary and the men's thank offering, but in the unflagging attendance of the Deputies at the special missionary sessions of the two Houses.

The historic services, so wisely appointed, and so well ordered, at "old Bruton" Church and at Jamestown Island, have given a peculiar distinction to this gathering, and kindled in the hearts of our people a new sense of consecrated patriotism and reverence for the fathers and founders of the Nation and the Church.

The presence of the Bishop of London and his share in the services and gatherings of the Convention as the preacher and the presenter of the King's Bible, as well as in his most gracious personality; the wholesome counsel given by the Archbishop of the West Indies, and the constant companionship of the Bishop of St. Albans, Bishop Montgomery, and the Bishops of the Canadian Deputation, have given to our meeting this year a fresh indication of the loving and living realness of the three hundred years of close communion with the historic Church of England.—

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of Washington offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary convey the thanks of the House of Bishops to the Richmond, Fredericksburg, and Potomac Railroad Company, the Washington Southern Railroad Company, and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, for their provision of ample and generous accommodations in their special trains for the use of members of this Convention.—

Which was adopted.

Bishop Penick offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be voted to the attendants, pages, and all who by their services during our sessions have helped our work and added to our comfort here.—

Which was adopted.

The Chairman appointed as the Committee to act with the Secretary in publishing the Journal, the Bishop of New York and the Bishop of Connecticut.

A Committee from the House of Deputies, consisting of the Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D.D., and Mr. Francis A. Lewis, appeared and announced that the House of Deputies had completed its business, and was ready to adjourn.

The Secretary was instructed to notify the House of Deputies that the House has completed all its business requiring concurrent action, and is ready to take a recess until three o'clock, and to adjourn without day after Divine Service and an address from the Presiding Bishop.

[Communicated to the House of Deputies by Message No. 138.]

The minutes of the day's session were read and, on motion, approved.

At one o'clock the House took a recess.

The House met with the House of Deputies in the Church of the Holy Trinity at three o'clock, when the closing Service of the Convention was held and an address was delivered by the Presiding Bishop.

Divine Service being ended, and the Benediction pronounced by the Presiding Bishop, the House adjourned without day.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE, Chairman.

On reassembling, the Rev. Dr. Hodges of Maryland, presented the report of the Committee appointed at the last Convention on Definition of the word "Communicant," the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

The Committee appointed at the last General Convention to "ascertain the usage of the several Dioceses as to the use of the word Communicant in the gathering of their statistics, and to report to this Convention a plan for the uniform registration of "Communicants," respectfully report:

That in fulfillment of the first part of the duty assigned to them, the ascertaining the usage of the different Dioceses, a letter of enquiry was sent to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese, to which forty-nine answers were received. The greater number of these reply that there is no prescribed or settled usage in the Diocese, each individual clergyman deciding whom to report.

Three Dioceses report only those who have made their Communion during the preceding year. One reports those who have made their Communion once in two years. One Diocese by Canon authorizes the dropping from the list of Communicants every one who has not made his Communion in six months. One reports, first, the number of Confirmed persons, and secondly, the number of actual Communicants. One reports as "Dormant" those who have not made their Communion for one year, and drops from the list all who have not made their Communion for two years. And there are still other usages.

From this it will be seen that the greater number of the Dioceses have no uniform usage, leaving the matter entirely to the judgment of the individual priest; and that the usage of others is to authorize the dropping entirely from the list of Communicants those who for a longer or shorter time have not been known to make their Communion.

It may be remembered that the consideration of this question was raised by a Memorial from the Diocese of Albany requesting a definition of the word "Communicant." This Memorial was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church, which Committee reported that they "were not in possession of sufficient information to warrant them in giving a definition of the word which they could hope would be authoritatively received." Your present Committee could scarcely hope to be more successful in giving a definition which would be authoritatively received, they being in no degree helped by the information they have gathered. But in as much as the Church requires her ministers to report the number of Communicants in their respective cures, it is manifestly proper that there should be a uniform understanding and use of the word Communicant throughout the Church.

Your Committee know no better definition of the word Communicant than that he is one who being baptised and confirmed, is entitled to receive the Holy Communion; or, who being ready and desirous to be confirmed, has been admitted to the Communion. The names of all such persons should be placed on the list of Communicants, and remain upon that list until removed by death, by formal transfer to another cure, or by ecclesiastical discipline.

The chief duty laid on this Committee, however, was to report a plan for the uniform registration of Communicants. In the judgment of the Committee this can best, and perhaps can only, be done by the General Convention adopting, and appointing to be used by every minister in charge of a cure, a form for the registering of Communicants; or by a Canon governing the question. The manner of making and keeping a list of Communicants in any Parish or Congregation should not be left to the individual minister or Diocese; but should by authority be made the same throughout the Church. Your Committee is not prepared to submit such a plan, and ask its consideration and adoption by this Convention; but there are certain suggestions which they deem it important to make, as to the general principles on which such plan should be based.

Upon the list of Communicants in every Congregation should be placed the name of every baptised and confirmed person; of every one, who in anticipation of Confirmation has been formally admitted to the Holy Communion; of every one regularly received as a Communicant by transfer from another Parish or Congregation; and every one who, lacking such letter of transfer, and not being able to obtain it, shall give satisfactory evidence that he has received Confirmation. From this list no name should be removed but for the following causes: 1, death, or reasonable certainty of death; 2, transfer to another cure; and 3, ex-communication, if that has not practically ceased among us.

Neglect in receiving the Holy Communion, neglect of religious duty, leading an evil life, these show that a man is not a faithful Communicant; but he does not therefore cease to be a Communicant, and lose his right upon penitence to come to the Holy Table. Nor should his name on these accounts be taken from the list of Communicants. Difficulties will from time to time arise, from the removal from the parish or locality without letter of transfer; prolonged and unexplained absence, etc., but in the judgment of this Committee these cases will be far less frequent if the Clergy will be strict in insisting upon giving and receiving letters of transfer as provided for by the Canons of the Church. In this connection your Committee would suggest that a form for the certificate to be given to the Communicant, a form for the notifying of the minister to whom it is to be given, and a form for his acknowledgment of the same, should be adopted and authorized by the General Convention.

Your Committee further suggest that the Roll of Communicants should be kept in chronological order—not alphabetically—thus becoming an interesting and important part of the history of the Parish; that it should not be a new list from year to year, but one corrected from time to time by marginal indications of death, removal, unaccounted absence, etc. No name once entered should be erased, or be made illegible, so that its historical value is lost. Upon real and practical removal from a parish or neighborhood, and attendance at another Church, if the person does not ask for the letter of transfer, the Minister should insist upon giving or sending it, and should notify the new Minister of his having sent it. This is to avoid the inaccuracy so frequently occasioned by the same person being upon the list of Communicants of two, or even three, Churches. There might be a provision made, that no one should be enrolled as a Communicant, in more than one place.

A further suggestion is in regard to persons claiming to have been confirmed in Great Britain or its colonies, or elsewhere beyond the jurisdiction of this Church. When a letter of transfer can not be obtained, after due effort, such persons may be formally admitted to the Holy Communion, and their names placed upon the list of Communicants, when the Minister after sufficient enquiry is convinced that they have been Confirmed by a Bishop in Communion with this Church.

In reporting the number of Communicants as required by the Canon of the Church all persons whose names are upon the prescribed list shall be counted, unless removed by death, by letter or transfer, or by ecclesiastical discipline.

Suggestion is also made that in the form of report provision should be made for stating, first, the number of Confirmed persons in the cure, and second, the number of the actual Communicants. The difficulty of this will be to decide where to draw the dividing line.

As already stated your Committee has not prepared a plan, with the suggested forms to submit for the action of this Convention. The matter seems to them to be of such importance that the judgment and counsel of the Bishops should be had before the drawing up of a formal plan. They therefore propose the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That a Joint Committee to consist of two Bishops, two Presbyters and two Laymen be appointed, to report if possible to this Convention a plan for the uniform Registration of Communicants.

And your Committee asks that it be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report, which was placed on the Calendar:

REPORT No. 1.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution to whom was referred the resolution offered by a clerical deputy from New York proposing to prefix a Preamble to the Constitution, report unanimously in favor of the measure.

Precedents both civil and ecclesiastical for such action abound. The Constitution of the United States, as well as an overwhelming majority of the Constitutions of the several states of the Union have preambles. A preamble is of the nature of a preface, and the prefaces respectively to the Prayer Book, the Ordinal and the Book of Articles in the English form are, for all intents and purposes, preambles. The proposed action will therefore not be in violation of, but wholly in accordance with established usage. As to its contents, the proposed Preamble is found by your Committee to have the characteristics that ought to attach to such a document in that it is a direct, positive and comprehensive statement of what is commonly believed among us as to the essentials of Christian doctrine and Church policy. The polemical attitude is avoided and the controversial note is absent. Thirdly, in point of timeliness the Preamble merits acceptance, marking, as it does, a point of transition in an ordered historical development and our entrance as a Church, upon a fourth century of corporate life.

Your Committee then recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution; as follows: Prefix to the Constitution the following:

PREAMBLE

This American Church, first planted in Virginia, early in the Seventeenth Century, by representatives of the ancient Church of England; acknowledging the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the record of God's Revelation of Himself in his Son, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; holding the Catholic Creeds, to wit, the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed, to be a sufficient statement of the Christian Faith; maintaining the Orders of the Sacred Ministry in such form as from the hands of faithful men it first received the same; reverently conserving the Sacraments ordained by Christ Himself; and accounting to be members of the flock of Christ all who have been duly baptized in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, has ordained and established, for the furtherance of the work to which it has been called of God, the following

CONSTITUTION.

The Committee on Canons have considered the resolution of Mr. Thomas of Pennsylvania amending Canon 6, Section II. (ii.), and recommend the following:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 6, Section II. (ii.) be amended by adding the words "The principles and methods of Religious Education especially as applied to the Sunday School," so that the Canon will read "Canon 6, Section II. (ii.) The second examination shall be in:

The Old Testament in Hebrew. Christian Ethics, Ecclesiastical History from the third century; Ecclesiastical Polity, the history and contents of the Book of Common Prayer, the Constitution and Canons of this Church and those of the Diocese to which the Deacon belongs,

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 319.]

REPORT No. 8.

The Committee on Canons have considered the resolution proposing amendments to Canon 53, Section IV., and they recommend the following:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 53, Section IV. be amended by inserting the word "Convention" between the word "each" and the word "year" on the second line; so that the Canon will read Canon 53, Section IV. "The Trustees shall publish a report on the first of September in each Convention year, showing a complete list of all contributions to the Fund within the three years past, and shall cause a copy of such report to be sent to every Bishop and Clergyman of this Church."

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON, Chairman.

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 318.]

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report:

REPORT No. 9.

The Committee on Canons have considered the proposal contained in Message No. 7 from the House of Bishops proposing to amend Canon 4, Section II. (i.) by striking out Clause "P" and recommend the following:

Resolved, That this House does not concur in Message No. 7 of the House of Bishops.

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON, Chairman.

The question being put, "Shall this House concur in the action of the House of Bishops as communicated in their Message No. 7," it was not concurred in.

The Rev. Dr. Hodges, from the Committee on the Prayer Book, presented their Report No. 1, which, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Wilmer of Georgia was referred back to the Committee.

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 2.

The Committee on the Prayer Book to which was referred the memorial asking for the insertion of a Prayer for Missions in the Order for Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, respectfully report that, having carefully considered the question, while in full sympathy with the desire that prayer for the great Missionary work should be offered by the Church day by day, they yet deem it inexpedient to make the proposed change in the Prayer Book, inasmuch as it would make incomplete and inaccurate all the editions of the Prayer Book now in use, and might render necessary an alteration in the paging of the Standard Book; and especially in view of the fact that such prayer may be set forth by the Bishop of any Diocese for use in his Jurisdiction. (Constitution, Article X.).

They therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

J. S. B. HODGES, Chairman.

Mr. Browne of Washington, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 3.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom was referred the memorial from the Missionary District of Honolulu proposing that the Constitution and Canons be amended by changing the designation "Missionary District" to "Missionary Diocese" respectfully report as follows:

In accordance with the present usage of this Church, a "Diocese" is an organized jurisdiction in union with the General Convention; a "Missionary District" is a territory under the jurisdiction of a Missionary Bishop; a "Missionary Department" is the name given by the Board of Missions to groups of Dioceses and Missionary Districts; and "Jurisdiction" refers generally to the territorial authority of a Bishop whether Diocesan or Missionary. These terms are distinctive and there is no occasion for confusion in their use. The proposed change would confuse organized Dioceses with Missionary Dioceses, and would necessitate wholesale revision of the Constitution and Canons to unmistakably discriminate between them.

Your Committee, therefore, deem the proposed change inexpedient and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Mr. Packard, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following reports, the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

Resolved, That this House concur in said message. The Canon will then read: "Canon 3, Section IV. A candidate for Holy Orders in any Diocese or Missionary District of this Church, or of any Church in communion with this Church, whose name shall have been stricken from the list of candidates or whose application for ordination has been rejected, shall not be ordained without re-admission to candidateship, said candidateship to continue for not less than one whole year; Provided, that in no such case shall the whole term of candidateship be less than three years.

By order of the Committee.

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 9, Section I. (iii.) be amended so that the Testimonial therein contained shall read as follows: "We, being a majority of all the members of the Standing Committee of _____ and having been duly convened at _____, fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the Reverend A. B. is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness of life; and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office."

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this day of _____ in the year of our Lord

CORRECTED FORM OF MESSAGE No. 22.

The House of Bishops informs the House of Deputies that it has received the report of the Joint Committee to which was referred the memorial from the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada on the subject of the Permanent Diaconate, and has adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring,

1. That the American Church fully recognizes the need of multiplying subordinate ministries in the Church, and is in sympathy with such plans for supplying them as may be possible without change in the Ordinal. It is not, however, prepared to take decisive action at this time on the lines proposed in the memorial from the Church of England in Canada; but it welcomes the consideration of the subject, which, it hopes, may receive the attention of the collective Anglican Episcopate in the approaching Lambeth Conference.

2. That this General Convention requests that the Bishops, who may attend the Lambeth Conference of 1908, bring this subject to the attention of the Committee which shall be appointed on topic No. 3 of the Agenda paper, of the Lambeth Conference, namely, The Supply and Training of Clergy.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury and to the Authorities of the Church of England in Canada.

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That a Joint Committee, consisting of three Bishops, three Presbyters and three Laymen be appointed to consider the whole question of the increase and efficiency of the Diaconate, and other Evangelistic Ministries in this Church, and report to the next General Convention.

And this House has appointed as members of such Joint Committee on its part the Bishop of Pittsburg, the Bishop of Michigan City and the Bishop of Louisiana.

SAMUEL HART, Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Brewster, from the Committee on the State of the Church, presented the following report, the first and second resolutions appended to which were laid upon the table and the third resolution was adopted:

REPORT No. 1.

The Committee on the State of the Church, to whom was referred the memorial of the Diocese of Georgia requesting the General Convention to prepare and authorize a uniform parochial report, and also to define the word "Communicant" for the purpose of parochial report, respectfully report that they have had these matters under careful consideration for several days, with the earnest desire to give this General Convention something of a definite nature. Your Committee has deemed it advisable to divide the subject into two parts. The first relates to a uniform method of parochial report; the second to definition of the word "Communicant" for the purpose of such report. It is the opinion of the Committee that there should be a uniform parochial report whose use should be mandatory upon the various Dioceses. The preparation of such a form, however, is no small undertaking. It should be placed in the hands of experts who should have ample time to investigate, compare and study the best form of parochial report now in use. So far as the definition of the word "Communicant" is concerned, that matter is now in the hands of a special Committee of the House of Deputies, and your Committee on the State of the Church is not called upon to intrude its opinion in advance of that of your Special Committee. For the practical purpose of parochial report, however, your Committee is willing to accept the situation as presented and postpone the matter no longer. As a parochial report generally covers the period of one Ecclesiastical year, it is the Committee's opinion that a Communicant is one who has communicated at least once during the past twelve months. Those confirmed persons or potential Communicants who absent themselves from the Lord's table should be enrolled in some other way, in order that the live and vigorous factor of Church strength may appear in the report. Your Committee therefore submit the following resolutions and ask for their adoption:

Resolved, That a Special Committee of five, members of this House or otherwise, who have had experience as Secretaries of Dioceses or in tabulating statistics of the Church, be appointed to prepare a uniform parochial report. Moreover, that they shall have authority to sit during recess and report to the next General Convention.

Resolved, That for the purpose of Parochial report a Communicant should be regarded as one who has communicated in the Parish or elsewhere at least once during the past twelve months.

Resolved, That the Committee on the State of the Church be discharged from the further consideration of this subject.

MATTHEW BREWSTER, Chairman.

The Rev. Mr. Patton, from the Committee on Missions, presented the following report, the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

The Committee on Missions, to whom was referred the two resolutions concerning the continuation of the agencies now existing in the several Dioceses and Missionary Districts, in connection with the Men's Thank Offering, respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration and recommend the adoption of the following as substitute therefor:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the men of the Church be asked to make a triennial offering for missions, to be presented at each General Convention.

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That this General Convention recommend to the several Dioceses and Missionary Districts that they continue their agencies in connection with the Men's Thank Offering, where they now exist, and where necessary make them more nearly complete, and that in those Dioceses and Districts where such agencies do not now exist, such agencies be established for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing resolution and also for the purpose of making known to her men, the needs of the Church and their duty in respect thereto.

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the Board of Missions be instructed to do whatever may be necessary in their judgment to aid in the extension of this plan.

The Committee has carefully considered the resolution so referred to it and with the consent of the mover presents the following for the action of the House:

WHEREAS, the work of the Church is prosecuted under different heads and through different agencies because of necessity and for convenience of administration and not because the several departments of the work are really different in nature; be it

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That it is the sense of the General Convention that the moral obligation which rests upon every member of the Church to contribute, according to his means, toward the support of all departments of Church work, all of which are essentially missionary in character, is one obligation; and that each member of the Church should consider in making his offerings the needs of the several departments; and that it is the duty of the clergy to inform themselves and every member of their congregations of these needs.

REPORT No. 31.

The Committee have had under consideration the resolution by Mr. Page of Washington in the matter of reporting the number of baptized persons in the Church or congregation, and recommend the following:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 47, Section I. be amended by inserting in line 9, after the words "Number of," the following words: "Baptized persons, and the number of" so that the section will read:

§ I. It shall be the duty of every Minister of this Church in charge of a Parish or Congregation, or, if there be no Minister in charge, of the Churchwardens, or other proper officer, to deliver, on or before the first day of every annual Convention to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, where there is no Bishop, to the Presiding Officer of the Convention, a report of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages and Burials, and the number of baptized persons and the number of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation; of the condition of the Sunday Schools; of all contributions for parochial purposes, for charities, for Missions, Diocesan, Domestic or Foreign, or for any purpose whatever; and of other matters that may throw light upon the state of the Parish or Congregation. And every Minister not in charge of any Parish or Congregation shall also report his occasional services; and if there have been none, the causes or reasons which have prevented the same. And these reports, or such parts of them as the Bishop may deem proper, shall be entered in the Journal.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON.

REPORT No. 32.

The Committee have had under consideration the Report No. 25 of this Committee, which proposed to amend Canon 6, Section 2 (ii.) by striking out the words "Constitution and Canons of this Church and those of the Diocese to which the Deacon belongs" and report that they have reconsidered their action thereon, and recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the matter.

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON.

The Rev. Dr. Hodges, from the Committee on the Prayer Book, presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

REPORT No. 4.

The Committee on the Prayer Book to whom was referred the memorial of the Diocese of Louisiana requesting that the General Convention "forbid the issuance of any Edition of the Prayer Book that is not paged in accordance with the Standard, except editions noted for music," begs to report that Canon 41, Section II. already provides that all editions of the Book of Common Prayer, excepting "Editions smaller than those known as 24 mo., or editions noted for music, shall conform in paging to the Standard Prayer Book in that portion of the book which begins with the Order for Morning Prayer and ends with the Psalter, that is, in all those portions of the book in ordinary use. Your Committee has been informed by the Custodian of the Standard Prayer Book that the familiar cheap edition of the book most commonly used for general distribution and described typographically as "Imperial 32 mo." is similarly paged by the publishers, and that a uniform paging with the Standard of smaller editions is typographically impracticable. This Committee is, therefore, unable to recommend compliance with the Memorial of the Diocese of Louisiana. It does, however, recommend that Canon 41, Section II. be so amended as to require that all editions known as 32 mo. be paged in conformity with the Standard Prayer Book and offers accordingly the following:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 41, Section II. be amended by striking out in the last line the word "24 mo." and inserting in lieu thereof the words "32 mo." so that it shall read in the last clause "and shall not extend to editions smaller than those known as 32 mo., or to editions noted for music."

FREDERICK F. REESE, Secretary.

[For the report of the Committee see p. 340.]

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 5.

The Committee on the Prayer Book to whom was referred the memorial of the Diocese of Georgia requesting the General Convention to authorize the publication on one of the blank leaves of the Prayer Book, under the heading "Qualifications of Membership in the Episcopal Church," respectfully report that it has given careful attention to the matter so referred to it and is unable to change the conclusion previously reported to the House.

If the purpose of the Memorial is, as stated in the proposed heading, to indicate the qualifications of Membership in the Episcopal Church, the references proposed to be made are not apt, as your Committee understands it. Membership in this Church comes only by and through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. The qualifications are as stated in the Holy Gospels, Repentance and Faith.

If it is the intention of the Memorial to set forth some definition of the requirements for admission to the Holy Communion, it would necessarily involve in some sense the definition of the word "Communicant" now in the hands of a Joint Committee.

The more serious difficulty in the matter is that anything authorized by the General Convention to be printed or inserted, at any place within the covers of the Prayer Book is of necessity in the nature of an amendment thereof. Your Committee believe that action of this kind is not expedient at this time.

There would seem to be no objection to the printing and pasting in the Prayer Book of such directions as the Ecclesiastical Authorities may deem proper, provided such directions are in harmony with other directions now quite generally inserted in Prayer Books, giving information as to the use of the Book. It seems to your Committee unwise to have any such action taken by the General Convention for the reason that however carefully given, it would be considered as an official interpretation of matters fully regulated by the Rubrics of the Prayer Book, or committed to the control of the Ordinary.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

J. S. B. HODGES, Chairman.

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report, which was placed on the Calendar:

REPORT No. 6.

The Committee on the Prayer Book, to whom was referred a concurrent resolution offered by the Rev. Dr. Shields of Florida, relative to the appointment of a Joint Committee of three Bishops and three Presbyters, to consider the advisability of providing an office for the Unction of the Sick, and also Message No. 23 of the House of Bishops proposing a Joint Resolution for the appointment of a Joint Committee of three Bishops, three Presbyters and three Laymen to consider the same subject, without committing itself in any way upon the subject of such message, but believing it expedient that the action of the House of Bishops should be concurred in, recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this House concur with the House of Bishops in their Message number twenty-three.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. B. HODGES, Chairman.

[For the action of the House see p. 372.]

The Rev. Mr. De Rosset, of the Committee on Memorials of Deceased Members, presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Memorials of Deceased Members be made the special order for Friday morning, October 18th, at a quarter before eleven o'clock.

Mr. Morgan of New York presented the following Appendix to the Report of the Custodian of the Standard Book of Common Prayer, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

By vote of the Committee on the Standard Book of Common Prayer in 1895 (Journal, 1895, pages 637, 638), the Custodian was directed to "keep in store all the remaining copies" of the Book of Common Prayer from the type of the Standard, "to be given by vote of the General Convention from time to time to such institutions or individuals as the Custodian shall, in his triennial report, formally recommend to such honor." In accordance with this vote, I beg to ask for the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That a copy of the large paper edition of the Book of Common Prayer from the plates of the Standard be presented to the Right Reverend and Right Honorable Arthur F. Winnington-Ingram, at present Lord Bishop of London, as a souvenir of his visit to this Convention; also a copy to the Library of the Commonwealth of Virginia; a copy to the Library of the DeLancey Divinity School, Geneva, New York; and a copy to the Watkinson Library, Hartford, Connecticut.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Custodian.

[For the report see Appendix VIII.]

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hopkins of Chicago, it was Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That a Joint Committee consisting of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen be appointed to nominate the members of the Board of Missions and the General Secretary and the Treasurer of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 335.]

On motion of Mr. Thomas of Pennsylvania, No. 7 was taken from the Calendar, to wit:

Message No. 28 of the House of Bishops in which the House concurred. [See p. 281.]

The Order of the Day being called for, to wit, the Report of the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution proposing a Preamble thereto, the Rev. Mr. Whitney of Georgia moved to amend by inserting the word "and" between the words "the Word of God" and "the record of His revelation," which amendment was accepted and adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Jones of Ohio moved to amend by substituting the words "been continued" for "existed" which amendment was accepted and adopted.

The question being upon the adoption of the resolution appended to the report of the Committee, it was adopted in the following form by a vote by Dioceses and Orders as follows:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows: Prefix to the Constitution the following

IN GENERAL CONVENTION,
RICHMOND, 9th day of the Session,
October 11, 1907.

MESSAGE No. 32.

The House of Bishops informs the House of Deputies that it has adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the House of Deputies be respectfully requested to return to the House of Bishops its Message No. 29.

Attest:

SAMUEL HART, Secretary.

On motion the request was granted.

On motion of Mr. Lewis it was Resolved, That the order of the day be postponed so as to permit the Joint Committee on Suffragan Bishops to present its report by title, and have it appropriately referred.

The Rev. Dr. Parks of New York presented the following report of the Joint Committee on Suffragan Bishops, the resolution appended to which was referred to the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution:

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON SUFFRAGAN BISHOPS.

A Joint Committee, composed of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen, was appointed by the last General Convention, to take into consideration the subject of Suffragan Bishops, with instructions to report their conclusions to this General Convention, together with such recommendations for canonical action as they might deem expedient. (Journal, 1904, p. 93.)

The Committee organized by electing the Bishop of Vermont chairman, and the Rev. Dr. F. P. Davenport secretary. Owing to Dr. Davenport's absence from this Convention, through illness, the Rev. E. L. Parsons has taken his place as secretary.

Considerable correspondence was carried on during the interval between the Conventions, and papers on the subject circulated among the members of the Committee. A conference of such members as could attend was held in New York last May, and several meetings of the Committee have been held in Richmond since the assembling of the Convention.

Concerning the canonical status of the question, the Committee would report that, while in our present Constitution and Canons there is no prohibition of Suffragan Bishops (such as formerly existed), at the same time no provision is made for them; and in the judgment of the Committee it is desirable, if not absolutely necessary, that before any provision is made by Canon for Suffragan Bishops, there should be explicit recognition in the Constitution of this class of Bishops. In any case an amendment of Article I. of the Constitution, Section 2, would be necessary if they were to have seats and votes (which the Committee does not propose) in the House of Bishops; and an amendment of Article II., Section 2, if it were desired that their election should be confirmed by any body short of a majority of all the Standing Committees, and a majority of all the Bishops.

In considering the question of Suffragan Bishops, the Committee has had in mind four special kinds of need for additional Episcopal ministrations:

1. The needs of very large cities, which, if not actually pressing at the present time, may soon become urgent;
2. The needs of very large Dioceses, where division or the provision of a Coadjutor is deemed impracticable, or where more than a single Coadjutor (which is all that the Canons allow) is needed.
3. The needs of special races in our country;
4. Or of populations, like the Swedes or Poles, speaking a foreign language.

These cases must be considered separately, while certain general principles will apply to all in common, and the Committee has endeavored to frame its recommendations with a view to meet the several needs, rather than to suggest legislation having one particular case in mind. The Committee would point out that the provision of Suffragan Bishops for any section of the population, rather than of Missionary Bishops for a particular race, would preserve the principle of Diocesan unity, which is a matter of very grave importance. At the same time it would be possible for Bishops of neighboring Dioceses to avail themselves of the services of the Suffragan belonging to a particular Diocese; and some common arrangement might be made for his support.

With a view to such provision, the Committee will recommend an amendment to the Constitution by the insertion of a new Article, enacting that

"Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and without seats in the House of Bishops, may be elected by a Diocese according to its Canons, and consecrated under such conditions as may be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention.

"Such Suffragan Bishop shall not vacate his office on the death or removal of the Bishop of the Diocese. He shall be eligible by any Diocese to the office of Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor thereof, or by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop, or he may be elected as Suffragan in another Diocese."

By these constitutional provisions the Committee has sought at once to guard the House of Bishops from being unduly swollen in numbers, or from a disproportionate representation of any one Diocese, and at the same time to secure the dignity and rights of the Suffragan Bishop. Freedom of translation would be in some sort a compensation for the absence of a seat in the House of Bishops.

For such an office no inferior men ought to be chosen; the office will provide (as has been the case in England) an opportunity for testing a man and for developing in him powers which may show him fitted for a still more responsible position. It will be especially noted that a Presbyter chosen as a Suffragan Bishop would still preserve all the rights belonging to him as a Presbyter; while in addition, he would become by consecration the spiritual equal of any Bishop in the Church of God, and would be given a sphere of action affording opportunity for wide usefulness. The Committee feels that these considerations should make the position of a Suffragan Bishop attractive as affording to Presbyters of a high order of ability and character a field of valuable and dignified service.

Within the provisions of such an Article of the Constitution as is proposed, the Committee believes that all necessary canonical regulation could be framed. This could not be enacted until the necessary amendments to the Constitution had been adopted. But it may be desirable to note certain questions which would have to be decided: e. g., (1) Should previous consent (as in the case of a Bishop Coadjutor needed by reason of the extent of Diocesan work) be required for the election of a Suffragan Bishop? This would not seem necessary, unless in cases where the financial support of the Church at large was asked. In ordinary cases the Diocese would be expected to provide for its own Suffragan. (2) In the election of a Suffragan, as of a Coadjutor, the initiative should be with the Bishop of the Diocese, asking the Convention for such assistance.

(3) Provision should be made in the Canon that it should be lawful for a Suffragan Bishop to resign his special office, falling back on parochial or other work, and exercising Episcopial functions only as he might be called upon by a Bishop having jurisdiction.

It will be understood that in such tentative suggestions for future canonical legislation, the Committee is simply desiring to show how the proposed amendment to the Constitution could be carried out and reduced to practice in detail. For the suggestions, and more especially for the formal resolutions, the Committee begs the candid consideration of the General Convention, believing that in the manner proposed a way is pointed out for meeting new demands and situations, such as, in different parts of the country, we are called upon to face, without any departure from recognized Church principles, and by adapting to our circumstances an expedient that has been proved of great service in the Church of England.

The Joint Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

1. Resolved, the House of ——— concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert the following as Article IV., and change accordingly the numbers of the subsequent Articles:

ARTICLE IV.

Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and without seats in the House of Bishops, may be elected by a Diocese according to its Canons, and consecrated under such conditions as may be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention. Such Suffragan Bishop shall not vacate his office on the death or removal of the Bishop of the Diocese. He shall be eligible by any Diocese to the office of Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor thereof, or by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop, or he may be elected a Suffragan in another Diocese.

*Agreeing to the report in general, while preferring that a Suffragan Bishop should have a seat without a vote in the House of Bishops.

[Recalled for consideration by the House, p. 325.]

The Rev. Dr. Eccleston, from the Committee on Courts of Review and Repeal presented the following report, which was the Order of the Day:

The Committee on Courts of Review and Appeal to which the reported Canon on Courts of Appeal was recommitted by the House in 1904, (Journal p. 281), to be considered and presented to this General Convention, respectfully report as follows:

The Committee after having met and considered the said Canon, reports the same, with some slight changes, introduced for clearness or perspicuity only, without any recommendation (as the Committee was divided in opinion), as follows:

CANON 29. A. OF THE ULTIMATE COURT OF APPEAL.

SECTION 1. An Ultimate Court of Appeal is hereby established which shall consist of all the Bishops of the Church entitled to vote in the House of Bishops canonically assembled in such House.

SEC. 2. The said Court is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from the final determinations of Courts of Review established by Canons 27 and 29, and from the determination of a Trial Court which stands affirmed under Section 19 of said Canon 29, provided, however, that an appeal to the Court of Appeal can only be taken on questions of doctrine, faith or worship. No other questions shall be considered or determined by said Court. No appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from the decision of a Court of Review granting a new trial.

SEC. 3. Such appeal may be taken by an accused Bishop from an adverse determination of a Court of Review established by Canon 27 or by the Church Advocate who represented the Church upon the hearing, in such Court; but an appeal by the Church Advocate cannot be taken except upon the written request of three Bishops of the Church within the United States exercising jurisdiction other than Bishops who had acted as presenters or judges in the case, and Bishops disqualified from sitting in the Court of Review under Section 3 of Canon 27. The three Bishops uniting in such request may appoint a Church Advocate to take such appeal and to appear on the hearing thereof, if for any reason they deem it proper to make such appointment. An appeal may likewise be taken by an accused Presbyterian or Deacon from an adverse determination of a Court of Review established by Canon 29, or from an adverse determination of a trial Court which stands affirmed under Section 19 of said Canon, or by the Bishop or Standing Committee or Council of Advice of the Diocese or Missionary District in which the trial was had, provided, however, that such appeal can only be taken by a Bishop, Standing Committee, or Council of Advice upon the written request of three Bishops qualified to unite in such request, as in a case of an appeal by the Church Advocate from a determination of the Court of Review of the trial of a Bishop. The Standing Committee or Council of Advice shall be entitled to take the appeal only in case of the absence of the Bishop from the United States, or of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in his office. It shall be the duty of the Bishop or Church Advocate or the Standing Committee or Council of Advice, as the case may be, to take an appeal in the cases mentioned when a request has been made as in this section provided.

SEC. 4. The Court of Review upon the final determination of an appeal or in a case in which the decision of the trial Courts stands affirmed under Section 19 of Canon 29, shall as soon thereafter as practicable, cause written notice thereof to be served on the accused and upon the Church Advocate who appeared in such Court. Within ninety days after service of such notice, the party desiring to appeal to the Court of Appeal shall serve written notice of appeal upon the opposite party and upon the President of the Court of Review which decided the case, and upon the Secretary of the House of Bishops, briefly describing the determination from which the appeal is taken and assigning the grounds of appeal. An omission to serve such notice within the time stated shall be deemed a waiver of the right of appeal.

SEC. 5. Within sixty days after the receipt of such notice, the President of the Court of Review shall transmit to the Secretary of the House of Bishops the record upon which the proceedings in that Court were had, together with the transcript of the determination from which the appeal is taken, certified by him and by the Clerk or Secretary of the Court. The Secretary of the House of Bishops shall thereupon notify the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops thereof and shall lay such notice, record and transcript before the House of Bishops at its next meeting. It shall be the duty of the Appellant within four calendar months after the appeal shall have been taken to procure a copy of such notice, record and transcript, certified by the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops or by the Secretary of the House of Bishops, to be printed and to serve two printed copies thereof upon the opposite party, and deliver twelve printed copies thereof to the Secretary of the House of Bishops for the use of the House. For reasons by him deemed sufficient, the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops may dispense with the printing of the record or of any part thereof.

SEC. 6. The House of Bishops when assembled at any time, shall be deemed for the purpose of this Canon a Court of Appeal. The Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops unless disqualified or unable to act, shall be President of the Court. In case of his disqualification or inability the House shall appoint a Presiding Officer and it may appoint one or more Presbyters as clerks of the Court. It may proceed to hear any appeal pending in such Court of which hearing notice shall have been given, as hereinafter provided, or it may appoint a time and place for hearing the same.

SEC. 7. After the expiration of the time hereinbefore prescribed for printing and serving the record and other papers, either party may bring the appeal to a hearing at any meeting of the House of Bishops by serving upon the opposite party and upon the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops a written notice of his intention so to do at least sixty days before such meeting.

SEC. 8. The accused may appear and be heard in person or by Counsel. If the appeal is brought to reverse the determination of a Court of Review established by Canon 27, the Church Advocate who appeared in behalf of the Church on the hearing in such Court or the person designated as Church Advocate pursuant to Section 3 of this Canon, may appear in behalf of the Church. If the appeal is brought in the case of a Presbyter or Deacon, a Church Advocate shall be appointed from time to time by the Bishop or in case of his absence from the United States or of his disqualification, or of a vacancy in the office, by the Standing Committee or Council of Advice of the Diocese or Missionary District in which the trial was had to appear in behalf of the Church on the hearing of the appeal. The Council and Church Advocate shall in all cases be communicants of the Church.

SEC. 9. No Bishop who was a presenter or who sat as Judge in the case or who is related to the accused by affinity or consanguinity in a direct ascending or descending line, or as brother, uncle, nephew or first cousin shall sit on the hearing of the appeal nor in the case of a Presbyter or Deacon the Bishop of the jurisdiction in which the trial was had. The Court may adjourn from time to time and to such place as convenience or necessity may require. The appeal shall be heard upon the record of the Court of Review. The Court of Appeal may reverse or affirm, in whole or in part, the determination from which the appeal is taken or may, if in the opinion of the Court, justice shall so require, grant a new trial. It shall cause a full record to be kept of its proceedings.

SEC. 10. If in the case of an accused Bishop, the Court shall affirm a conviction, in whole or in part, or shall reverse an acquittal without granting a new trial, the Court before pronouncing sentence shall give to the accused, if present, an opportunity to be heard or to offer any matter in excuse or palliation. Thereafter the Court shall determine the sentence which shall be pronounced, which shall be of admonition, suspension or deposition. The sentence shall be pronounced by the Presiding Officer of the Court or other Bishop designated by the Court. If the sentence be of suspension or deposition, the Court shall cause the fact to be communicated to the Bishop or to the Ecclesiastical authority of every Diocese or Missionary District of the Church and to all Archbishops or Metropolitans and all presiding Bishops of Churches in communion with this Church. In the case of an accused Presbyter or Deacon, if the Court shall affirm a conviction, in whole or in part or shall affirm an adverse decision of the trial Court which stands affirmed under Section 19 of Canon 29, or shall reverse an acquittal without granting a new trial, the Court of Appeal shall remit the record with a transcript of its decision certified by the President or Clerk of the Court to the Bishop of the jurisdiction in which the trial was had, or if the Bishop shall be absent, or unable to act, or there be a vacancy in his office, to the Standing Committee, or to the Council of Advice, and thereafter sentence shall be pronounced, and such proceedings taken as are provided in Section 20 of Canon 29 on the remission of a record of a Court of Review.

SEC. 11. The concurrence of two-thirds of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and not disqualified from sitting in the case, shall be necessary to the decision of an appeal. If the concurrence of that number is not obtained, no sentence shall be imposed and the appeal shall be dismissed and the determination of the trial Court and of the Court of Review, relating to questions of doctrine, faith or worship shall be set aside and held for naught. An appeal to the Court of Appeal duly brought shall operate as a stay of all proceedings in the Court below until such appeal shall have been determined or dismissed.

SEC. 12. Notices required to be given by this Canon shall be in writing and may be served personally or by registered mail, addressed to the person to be served at his last place of residence in the United States. After the appeal has been taken, the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops may for reasons deemed by him sufficient, extend the time for doing any of the acts thereafter required specified in this Canon.

SEC. 13. The Court of Appeal may make rules not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the Church, regulating procedure in said Court and the mode of preserving and authenticating its records.

SEC. 14. All Canons and parts of Canons inconsistent with this Canon are hereby repealed.

REPORT No. 1.

Your Committee beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer which have been audited and found to be correct.

The total receipts from the various Dioceses for the Convention of 1904 amounted to $13,887.00 and the total expenses during the past three years has been $12,483.12, showing a balance in receipts over expenditures of $1,403.88.

In addition to this the old balance prior to 1904 with interest amounts to $2,211.96.

The interest account for the Convention term of 1904 to 1907 shows an amount of $1,122.77. Making a total balance of $4,738.61.

Your Committee desires to put on record as the sense of this Convention a recognition of the able manner in which Mr. W. W. Skiddy, the treasurer, has administered the affairs of the office. At the present time not a single Diocese is in arrears for assessments.

Your Committee beg leave to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Mr. William W. Skiddy be elected Treasurer of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Treasurer be instructed to pay to the Presiding Bishop of the House of Bishops for the necessary expenses of his office the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800.00) per annum.

Resolved, That the Treasurer be authorized to pay drafts of the Registrar for the expenses of his office a sum not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for the triennial period, and the further sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150.00) for expenses attendant on the consecration of Bishops.

Resolved, That the Treasurer be authorized to pay only such bills for printing, stationery, binding, postage or other incidental expenses as have been approved and countersigned by the Chairman of the Committee on Expenses. JOHN N. CARPENDER, Chairman.

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following reports, the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

REPORT No. 2.

The Committee on Expenses to whom was referred the resolution, providing that the Presiding Bishop be paid $1,500.00 per annum, beg leave to report, that they have considered the same, and deem it unnecessary to increase the amount now paid, as the present allowance seems sufficient to defray the expenses of the office. They therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the matter.

For the Committee.

JOHN N. CARPENDER, Chairman.

REPORT No. 3.

The Committee on Expenses, to whom was referred the resolution requesting the Bishop of Brazil to furnish the Convention with a copy of his sermon for publication, beg leave to report, that the passage of a subsequent resolution requesting the Board of Missions to publish said sermon, makes it unnecessary for this Committee to take any action, and therefore request the passage of the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the matter.

For the Committee.

JOHN N. CARPENDER, Chairman.

REPORT No. 4.

The Committee beg to report the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the House of Deputies be authorized to have printed 1,000 copies of the address of the Archbishop of the West Indies, before the House of Bishops, on his work among the colored people.

For the Committee.

JOHN N. CARPENDER, Chairman.

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report:

REPORT No. 5.

Your Committee beg to report that the late Edmund Parsons Dwight of the City of Philadelphia left the following legacy:

"To the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America to be used for the establishment of the Christian Religion, that the Light of the Gospel may be made to shine more perfectly, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00)."

Under the terms of the will and by the decision of the court, there has been paid to the Treasurer of this Convention the sum of $43,437.76 and he has received interest on the same amounting to $867.24, leaving a balance in his hands of $44,305.00.

There will probably be an additional sum to come from said estate of about $6,000.00 of principal, and $10,000 in interest and it rests with this Convention to instruct the Treasurer through the Committee on Expenses in what way this money shall be expended.

We therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the Treasurer be instructed to pay the amount now in his hands received from the estate of the late Edmund Parsons Dwight to the Treasurer of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society together with the accrued interest thereon, to be invested and held as a fund to be known as the Edmund Parsons Dwight Fund, the income therefrom to be applied to the Missionary uses of the said Society; and the Treasurer of the General Convention be directed to pay over to the Treasurer of the Domestic & Foreign Missionary Society all further funds which he may hereafter receive from the same source to be applied in the same manner.

For the Committee.

JOHN N. CARPENDER, Chairman.

Mr. Thomas of Pennsylvania presented the following substitute for the resolution reported by the Committee, which was not adopted:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the Treasurer of the General Convention be directed to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions such money as may now be in his hands, and such as may hereafter be received by him, from the Estate of Edmund P. Dwight, late of the City of Philadelphia, deceased, to be used by the Board of Missions for the object set forth in the testator's will.

The resolution of the Committee was thereupon adopted.

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 335.]

The Rev. Dr. Huntington, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report:

REPORT No. 4.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom was referred under the head of unfinished business the subject of a Standard Bible, and to whom were also referred certain memorials asking for the permissive use of the Revised Version or Versions of the Holy Scriptures in reading the Lessons in the Daily Offices of the Church, respectfully report as follows.

The history of the legislation of this Church with reference to a Standard Bible is a very singular one. For a long succession of years there would seem to have been grave doubt as to whether the Church did really possess a Standing Bible or not.

Finally in the Convention of 1898, a learned and exhaustive report upon the subject, prepared by the late Dr. Gold of the Diocese of Chicago, was presented to this House, in which the whole history of the matter was reviewed. The conclusion reached as to the question whether this Church has or has not a Standard Bible was as follows:

"The inevitable conclusion is that this Church has a Standard Bible and that such Standard is an edition of the Version of 1611, published by Eyre and Strahan, in 1812, further described by Dr. Mason in 1859 as printed by Woodfall. Whether any copy of this Bible can be had or not, it still remains the legal standard in this present year of Grace 1898."

Your Committee is of opinion that this lamentable confusion was due to the mistaken policy of taking a particular edition of the Bible for a Standard, rather than a version. In days when books were invariably printed from movable types, there may have been safety in adhering to a specified edition, but since the introduction of stereotype and electrotype processes, there can never be any certainty that the plates may not have been tampered with, at some period subsequent to the establishment of the Standard.

Having determined to recommend a Version and not an edition as the Standard Bible of this Church your Committee next took up the question, which version. They report that it is their unanimous conclusion that the Standard Bible should be the translation of the Sacred Scriptures known as the King James or Authorized Version. Whatever may be the inaccuracies of this Version (and nobody pretends that any one of them is serious enough to work injury to the souls of listeners) the fact that it is the one supreme classic of the English language, and a great conservator of sound and wholesome forms of speech, is reason enough, why on literary grounds alone it should be continued in use. Your Committee feels persuaded that any attempt to remove this Bible by canonical enactment from the lecterns of our Churches would be resented by the vast majority of our people who have learned to love its cadences and are far from being offended at its archaisms.

At the same time, your Committee cannot but acknowledge the prevalence and persistency of the demand for some recognition on the part of the General Convention of that great monument of modern Biblical scholarship, the Revised Version.

They recommend, therefore, two things, first, the recognition of the King James Version as the permanent Standard Bible of this Church; and second, that the principle of the so-called Marginal Readings Bible be extended to the point of including, not merely certain selected readings critically culled from the Revised Version, but all such readings of the Revised Version, whether in its English or its American form, as may from time to time be authorized by Canon. The margin thus becomes the receptacle for the suggestions of such authorized revisers as the Church may from time to time determine to recognize, while the old Version continues from generation to generation undisturbed.

Before this report is closed, attention should be called to the thoroughly unsatisfactory character of the present Canon 40.

"Of the Standard Bible." The language of it comes as near to being meaningless as it well can. It enjoins what is impossible, and takes for granted, things which do not exist. What ever else is done or left undone, this unintelligent and unintelligible Canon should be expunged, for it is a discredit to the legislation of the Church.

Your Committee recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert as Article X., renumbering subsequent articles as follows:

The translation of the Holy Scriptures commonly known as the King James or Authorized Version is hereby declared to be the Standard Bible of this Church, and all due care is to be taken by the proper parochial authorities to secure for public use, in the congregation, typographically accurate copies of the same. The various readings of the translation commonly known as the Revised Version, whether in its English or its American form, are to be regarded as marginal to the Standard text; and may be used by the Minister at his discretion, in the reading of the Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer.

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 40 be repealed.

Resolved, That the foregoing second resolution together with the memorials be referred to the Committee on Canons.

W. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

The first of the foregoing resolutions was placed on the Calendar, the second was referred to the Committee on Canons, and the third was adopted.

[For the action of the House see pp. 322, 373.]

[For the report of the Committee see p. 363.]

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following reports, the resolutions appended to Nos 5, 6, and 8 being adopted, and that appended to No. 7 being placed on the Calendar.

REPORT No. 5.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom were referred memorials from the Dioceses of Massachusetts and Rhode Island for a Revision of the Lectionary, report that no constitutional question is involved, and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

W. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

REPORT No. 6.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom have been referred memorials from the Dioceses of Southern Ohio and Indianapolis and a resolution of Rev. E. B. Niver relating to reduced and proportional representation in the House of Deputies, deem that the same are inexpedient and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

W. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

REPORT No. 7.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom has been referred a proposal to amend Article I. of the Constitution, deem the same expedient and move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution as follows:

That Article I., Section 4, be amended in the seventh line by substituting the word "residence" for "domicile."

W. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

[For the action of the House see p. 372.]

REPORT No. 8.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom has been referred the memorial of the Diocese of Pennsylvania concerning Missionary Districts upon racial lines, respectfully report as follows:

If the plan of the Diocese of Pennsylvania should be approved by the General Convention, a change in the Constitution would be necessary. As to the merits of the plan your Committee makes no recommendation; but should the plan be approved by the General Convention it can be carried out by the Constitutional provision which follows:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution; and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution.

Insert the following as Section 4 of Article VI. of the Constitution:

SEC. 4. The House of Bishops may establish Missionary Districts upon racial lines, namely for a specified race or races within the bounds of Dioceses and Missionary Districts established as authorized in Section I., either severally or in such groupings as it may determine, provided, that in the case of a Diocese such racial jurisdiction within the Diocesan borders shall be first ceded by the Bishop and the Convention of the Diocese.

In the interpretation of the Constitution and Canons the people and Churches of such racial Missionary Districts shall occupy the same relation to the General Convention as any other Domestic Missionary District.

No such cession by a Diocese, or division of a Missionary District, however, shall carry with it the members of the ceded race, who may be or become members of congregations not included in such Missionary Districts.

The House of Bishops may from time to time change, increase, or diminish the territory included in such racial Missionary Districts in such manner as may be prescribed by Canon.

Such racial jurisdiction within the borders of any Diocese may be retroceded to the Diocese by the House of Bishops, if the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall consent to receive it.

Your Committee report the foregoing constitutional amendment simply for the purpose of bringing the subject before the House of Deputies and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

ALEXANDER MANN,
ALFRED MILLS,
JOHN H. STINESS,
CHARLES B. ANDREWS,
ARTHUR S. BROWNE,
GEORGE WHEARTON PEPPER,
JOHN L. O'BRIAN.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Grammer of Pennsylvania the report just presented was ordered printed and made the Order of the Day for tomorrow at 11 A. M., provided the present Order of the Day shall have been by that time disposed of.

The Order of the Day being called for, to wit, the subject of Provinces, Mr. Saunders, from the Committee on Canons, to which had been referred Message No. 31 of the House of Bishops, reported it to the House, pointing out wherein it differed from the report of the Joint Commission.

Mr. Niver moved to amend Section 3 by substituting for it the following:

SECTION 3. Three or more Dioceses or Missionary Districts now existing or hereafter created within the limits of any State, may with the consent of the General Convention withdraw from the larger Province of which they have formed a part, and may constitute a new Province in accordance with the provisions of this Canon; Provided, however, that no such State Province shall be formed unless at least three contiguous Dioceses or Missionary Districts be left in the existing Province out of which it is constituted.

The Rev. Dr. Grosvenor of New York presented the following resolution, which, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Rhodes of Southern Ohio, was laid on the table:

That the Joint Commission on Provinces be continued and that the whole subject of Provinces be referred back to that Commission to report to the next General Convention.

On motion of Mr. Lewis of Pennsylvania, further consideration of the subject was postponed until 8 P. M.

The President announced the following members on the part of this House of the Joint Committee to nominate a Board of Missions:

The Rev. Dr. Parks of New York, the Rev. Dr. Robinson of Milwaukee, the Rev. Dr. Hodges of Massachusetts, the Rev. Mr. Buckner of Arkansas, the Rev. Dr. Ringgold of Tennessee, Mr. Pepper of Pennsylvania, Mr. Lyman of Chicago, Mr.

Parker of Colorado, Mr. Rives of Washington, and Mr. McMaster of Missouri.

The House took a recess until 8 P. M.

On re-assembling, the rules were suspended, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Wilkins of Los Angeles, to enable him to present the report of a special Committee as follows, the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

Your Committee, to which was referred the Memorial of the Diocese of Los Angeles, relating to the creation of a Joint Commission to raise a sum of not less than five millions of dollars for the General Clergy Relief Fund, respectfully report, that they are unanimous in the conviction that this is a matter of imperative importance. The small salaries of most of the clergy make it impossible for them to provide for the hard conditions of ill health and of old age. Some of them are compelled by necessity to continue in the endeavor to discharge their duties when their retirement would be a relief both to themselves and to their parishes. The General Convention has recognized this need in successive sessions since 1853, and various Dioceses have tried in various ways to meet it. The present seems an opportune time to deal with this subject in a new and larger way.

We therefore recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That a Special Commission of ten Bishops, fifteen Presbyters, and twenty Laymen be appointed to take in hand the raising of a sum of not less than five millions of dollars for the General Clergy Relief Fund and to promote the merging of existing Diocesan Relief Funds into the same.

Resolved, That the present Committee be discharged.

J. J. WILKINS, Chairman.
 GEORGE HODGES,
 D. W. RHODES,
 RICHARD P. WILLIAMS,
 GEORGE W. DARROW,
 A. DUPONT PARKER.

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 357.]

The consideration of the Order of the Day having been resumed, the question was first put upon the amendment proposed by the Rev. Mr. Niver, and it was not adopted. The question then being "Shall the House concur in Message No. 31," the Clerical deputation from the Diocese of Maryland called for a vote by Dioceses and Orders. The House non-concurred by the following vote:

The Committee on Elections reports respectfully that Mr. W. E. The Rev. Dr. Huntington, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution requested permission to substitute the following amended form of the resolution appended to their Report No. 4 presented on the tenth day of the session, which request was granted:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert as Article X, renumbering subsequent articles as follows:

The translation of the Holy Scriptures commonly known as the King James or Authorized Version is hereby declared to be the Standard Bible of this Church. The Marginal Readings which have been authorized, or which may be hereafter authorized by Canon, may be used by the Ministers of the Church in the lessons read at Morning and Evening Prayer.

The Rev. Dr. Eccleston, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following reports, the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

REPORT No. 37.

The Committee have had under consideration the resolution by Mr. Saunders of Massachusetts proposing an amendment to Canon 10, Section I. In their opinion the amendment is desirable and they are also of the opinion that a similar amendment is needed to Canon 13, Section I. and they therefore recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 10, Section I. be amended by inserting after the word "thereof" the words "or in territory belonging to the United States," so that the section shall read as follows:

"The House of Bishops may establish Missionary Districts in States or Territories, or parts thereof, or in territory belonging to the United States, not organized into Dioceses, or in territory beyond the United States, not under the charge of Bishops in communion with this Church. It may also, from time to time, change, increase, or diminish the territory included in such Missionary Districts."

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 13, Section I. be amended by inserting after the word "thereof" in the second line the words "in territory belonging to the United States," so that the section shall read as follows:

"Missionary Bishops shall exercise jurisdiction in States or Territories, or parts thereof, or in territory belonging to the United States, not organized into Dioceses, or in any Missionary District of this Church, beyond the limits of the United States, in conformity with the Constitution and Canons of this Church and under such regulations and instructions not inconsistent therewith as the House of Bishops may prescribe."

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 353.]

REPORT No. 38.

The Committee have had under consideration the resolution by Mr. Stotsenburg of Indianapolis proposing changes in Canon 21 to provide for lay evangelists. The subject seems to be commanding attention in several quarters and might well interest this Convention, but in the judgment of the Committee the session is too far advanced, and the time of the House already too much taxed to allow the attempt now to provide a Canon for the purpose. The Committee therefore report that it is inexpedient at this time to attempt the proposed legislation, and recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON.

The Rev. Dr. Fiske, from the same Committee, presented the following Report No. 39:

The Committee on Canons respectfully report:

That they have considered the amendment offered by the Rev. Dr. Brady of Ohio, adding to Canon 19, after the words "Lay Readers" the following, viz.:

" or prevent the preaching of sermons or the delivery of addresses by Christian ministers or men, who may be invited thereto by any priest in charge of any congregation, or, in his absence, by the Bishop of the Diocese, who may license them for the purpose."

The amendment thus submitted embodies what is popularly known as the "Open Pulpit." So radical a measure the Committee on Canons cannot recommend. We recognize, however, the fact that this proposal springs from and voices a desire deep down in the hearts of all earnest people, that the Church should avail herself of the piety and spiritual gifts of all her children. In a spirit of readiness to meet this desire so fully as it can be met under lawful authority and without sacrifice of principle, your Committee have unanimously agreed upon a substitute, which, they hope, may receive the approval of this House.

Hitherto, in regard to the exercise of the preaching function by those not in the Orders of our Church, some have taken it upon themselves to do that which seemed right in their own eyes, and in several instances preachers directly opposed to the Christian Faith have been admitted into our pulpits.

Even when our godly and faithful laymen have stood up to speak in our Churches, there have often been, on the part of the scrupulously conscientious and law-abiding, great searchings of heart as to the lawfulness and propriety of such action.

Yet there are constantly occurring occasions when it is felt that it would be edifying and profitable for our people to hear the message and the counsel of men of exceptional learning, ability, and orthodox Christian faith, who are not in the Orders of our Church.

The substitute amendment which we propose, will, we believe, correct disorder, prevent irregularities, and, at the same time, enable the Church to utilize and have the benefit of prophesyings which do not violate or disturb the proportion of the Faith. This substitute is framed in the interests both of restraint and of liberty. If enacted, we think that it will effectually forbid the unseemly spectacle of those alien to the Christian religion, preaching in the Churches of Evangelic Faith and Apostolic Order, and that it will reinforce the Church with fresh voices of truth and love.

By the terms of the substitute herewith offered by your Committee, the entire regulation of and responsibility for special preachers, who are not in the Orders of our Church, rest with the Bishop. We can safely trust our clergy under the control of our Bishops. And leaving the determination of these extraordinary cases in their hands, we believe the substitute, which we now present, to be a wise provision for our Church to adopt. We therefore beg leave to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 19, entitled "Of persons not ministers of this Church officiating in any congregation thereof," be, and hereby the same is, amended so as to read as follows:

"No minister in charge of any congregation of this Church, or in case of vacancy or absence no Church Wardens, Vestrymen or Trustees of the congregation, shall permit any person to officiate therein without sufficient evidence of his being duly licensed or ordained to minister in this Church; Provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to forbid communicants of the Church to act as lay readers, or to prevent the minister in charge of any congregation of this Church, when authorized by his Bishop, from permitting a sermon or address therein by any Christian person approved by the Bishop."

Mr. Stetson of New York moved that this report be made the Order of the Day for tomorrow at 11 A. M.

The Committee on the Prayer Book, to which was referred a memorial from the Diocese of Minnesota, asking for a revision of the Lectionary for the Lenten and week-day services recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the memorial be referred to the Joint Committee on the subject of the Tables of Lessons proposed in Message No. 28 A. from the House of Bishops, said Committee to consist of five Bishops, five Presbyters, and five Laymen, and to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Hopkins, from the Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops, presented the following reports, which were referred to the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution:

The Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops beg leave to report the following recommendation:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Article II. of the Constitution be amended by adding the following as Section 5 of said Article; and that this proposed alteration be accordingly made known to the several Dioceses:

SECTION 5. A Bishop, or Bishop Coadjutor, of any Diocese of this Church may not accept election and jurisdiction in another Diocese than that for which he was consecrated, without great and reasonable cause and a strong and general demand for the translation, nor without the consent of a majority of the Bishops of this Church having jurisdiction within the United States and the consent of a majority of the Standing Committees of all the Dioceses of this Church. But if his election to such other Diocese shall have taken place within three months next before the meeting of the General Convntion, then the consent of the House of Deputies shall be required in place of that of the Standing Committees.

JOHN HENRY HOPKINS, Secretary of the Joint Committee.

MINORITY REPORT.

As a member of the Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops, I am not able to agree to the decision reached by the majority of the Committee. While convinced that the Translation of Diocesan Bishops would be wrong in principle and harmful in practice, I feel also that so great a change should not be made without very full study and most careful consideration; and that it is not possible to secure such full consideration at this stage of the Convention, when every hour is required for matters of far greater and more immediate importance, I therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That since the subject of the Translation of Bishops is not at present among those immediately pressing for action by the General Convention, the consideration of the subject be postponed; and (the House of Deputies concurring), that the Joint Committee be continued, with instruction to report as early as possible at the next regular meeting of the General Convention.

WILLIAM PARET, Bishop of Maryland.

[For the report of the Committee see p. 377.]

Mr. Carpenter of New Jersey presented the following, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 46, Clause V. be amended by the addition of the following words, namely: A new Diocese not recorded in the last Journal must furnish the Treasurer prior to the first Monday in September as above stated, a list of Bishops, Priests and Deacons canonically resident, and said list must be the same as furnished in their report to the House of Deputies.

[For the report of the Committee see p. 364.]

The Rev. Dr. Huntington of New York presented the following, which was referred to the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

We rejoice in all efforts to bring about this grand consummation, especially those to create and perfect Courts for the judicial decision of international disputes.

We rejoice to see that these efforts spring from a growing conviction that relations between nations must rest on the solid foundation of justice.

We reverently thank God for the guidance of His Holy Spirit in bringing all nations into relations of amity. Only when convinced that they are friends, and no longer enemies, will they be ready to lessen preparations for war and to devote the productive energies of men towards wise measures for their uplift. Even now the great Hague Conference is studying to abate the brutalities of war and to strengthen the bonds of peace.

We pray the God of Nations to make the nations of the world to be no longer enemies, but sincere friends; to love justice; to create Courts for its enforcement; and so to establish peace on the firm foundation which our Lord Jesus Christ has revealed to us as His will for all His children here on earth.

REPORT No. 11.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution to whom was referred the following proposed change in Article I., Section 3, of the Constitution providing for the election of the Presiding Bishop, namely:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution as follows:

Strike out Section 3, Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

SECTION 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, the General Convention shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be such Presiding Bishop, by the vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies by vote of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by Orders.

The Presiding Bishop shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Canons of the General Convention.

Upon his acceptance of the office of Presiding Bishop, the Diocese of which he is the Bishop, may elect a Bishop Coadjutor.

The Presiding Bishop so elected shall hold office until the close of the next General Convention after he is seventy years of age, unless, meanwhile, he shall have resigned his Episcopal jurisdiction, or, with the consent of the General Convention, his office as Presiding Bishop, or, unless, for infirmity or other sufficient cause, he may have been relieved of such office by the General Convention by the concurrent vote, first of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and then of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by Orders.

The salary of the Presiding Bishop shall be fixed and paid by the General Convention, as may be provided by Canon of such Convention.

When, for any reason, a vacancy in the office shall occur, the senior Bishop by consecration having jurisdiction within the United States shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop, until the election and acceptance of the Presiding Bishop in the manner hereinbefore provided;

Report that in the judgment of the Committee the change proposed is inexpedient, and therefore present the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

WM. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

[For the action of the House see p. 351.]

On motion of Mr. Henry of Iowa, the following resolution was adopted:

The Rev. Dr. Hodges, from the Committee on the Prayer Book, presented the following report, which was placed on the Calendar:

REPORT NO. 8.

The Committee on the Prayer Book to which was referred a resolution to appoint a Joint Committee of three Bishops, three Presbyters and three Laymen to report to the next Convention whether it be practicable to insert in the Prayer Book additional prayers for special occasions, without disturbing the established pagination of said book, and if practicable "to report forms of prayer suitable for the filling of such spaces," begs to report that it recommends the adoption of the said resolution, as follows:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That a Joint Committee, to consist of three Bishops, three Presbyters, and three Laymen be appointed to report to the next General Convention, whether there be not room in the Standard Prayer Book, for additional prayers for special occasions without disturbing the established pagination of said book; and further to report forms of prayer suitable for the filling of such vacant spaces.

J. S. B. HODGES, Chairman.

[For the action of the House see p. 383.]

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT NO. 9.

The Committee on the Prayer Book, to which was referred a resolution proposing an alteration in the Prayer Book to the following effect, viz.: "Add to the first paragraph in the order 'concerning the service of the Church' the following words:

Provided, also, That in the use of The Order for Morning Prayer, the second lesson and the hymn or psalm following may be omitted in any case when at the same service, that which is commonly called 'The Ante-Communion' is used," begs to report that the resolution proposes such a radical alteration in the Order for Morning Prayer, by the permissive omission of the lesson from the Gospel and the Gospel Hymn following that the Committee deem it inexpedient and offers the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

J. S. B. HODGES, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Peabody, from the Joint Committee on Christian Education, presented the report, the resolution appended to which giving permission to the Committees of both Houses to sit during the recess in Joint Session, was adopted:

[For the report see Appendix X.]

The Rev. Dr. McIlvaine presented the report of the Joint Committee to nominate Trustees for the General Clergy Relief Fund, the resolution appended to which electing the seven Trustees, was adopted.

The Joint Committee to nominate Trustees for the General Clergy Relief Fund respectfully report the following nominations:

The Bishop of Pennsylvania, the Bishop of Connecticut, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., the Rev. Reese F. Alsop, D.D., Mr. Elihu Chauncey, Mr. Geo. C. Thomas, Mr. George Wharton Pepper.

The resolution creating your Committee provides that they shall also make such other recommendations as in their judgment may be expedient, and they desire:

First: To commend to the attention and earnest consideration of the Convention and the Church the report of the Trustees, especially their message on page 9, which shows at a glance the remarkable progress made during the last three years, the large increase in available funds, and the pressing needs for the further growth and expansion of the work.

After studying the situation carefully your Committee are of the opinion that a more general observance of the recommendations of the General Convention is what is most needed today. Nothing more definite or more likely to produce the desired results could be devised than the recommendations of the General Convention that this subject should be presented to every congregation once a year; that an annual offering be taken for this purpose; and a percentage of the communion alms be also included. If our seven thousand churches and five thousand clergy would comply with this recommendation, even in a small way, it would not only fill the treasury, but call attention annually to the great duty and need of pension and relief.

The fund for Automatic Pensions at 64 years of age in our judgment should enlist the aid and co-operation of every Churchman. There is no one measure before the Church which can do more for her progress and development. It would greatly increase the efficiency of the ministry if many worthy men, unfitted by age or infirmity for active service, could be retired on a pension; it would be an act of Christian justice on the part of the Church; it would enlist many men for hard places and small salaries, because these things they would willingly endure if they knew for a surety that in disability and old age they would be cared for, or that their widows and orphans would not be left penniless.

A letter just received by the assistant Treasurer is so much to the point that we are permitted to quote a part of it: It is from the orphan daughters of a clergyman enclosing a contribution to the General Clergy Relief Fund.

"I have to inform you of the death of my mother, who since my father's death, which left us penniless, has been receiving — dollars from the fund. This little sum, small as it was, was a great comfort to her. I hope from the bottom of my heart that the time will come when the clergy will not have to wear out heart and brain in trying to maintain a home of the most ordinary comfort on the pay of a day laborer, and that they will be relieved from the terrible certainty that they will leave wife and children at their death with no means of support. To one who knows, as I do, the inside story of such a struggle, the whole question is heart rending, and what we ourselves have gone through is beyond the power of words to express. We seem to be established now, and possibly the future may be less bitter, but already my sister and I have arranged that whatever we may die possessed of will go to the General Clergy Relief Fund."

The Committee desires to express its appreciation of the nobly conceived plan of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the augmentation of the General Clergy Relief Fund by the sum of not less than five millions of dollars, and to ask for the earnest and enthusiastic support of all the clergy and laity of this American Church.

In view of the fact that it is proposed to raise this large sum of money for the General Clergy Relief Fund, and that generous bequests and large diocesan funds may be placed in the hands of the trustees, we deem it advisable to state as a result of our investigation the methods used by the trustees for safe guarding and administering the funds passing through their hands. We find that all securities and trust funds are deposited with one of the largest and strongest trust companies in New York City; that these cannot be touched except upon a resolution passed by the board, and that at least two trustees must go to the trust company in person; that all investments are made by a finance committee of three persons, of which Mr. Geo. C. Thomas is chairman. That all expenditures and appropriations of every sort are made upon requisition in detail, which requisition goes through the hands of five officials; that the assistant treasurer is bounded for a sufficient amount to secure all contributions passing through his hands, and that all accounts are audited two or three times a year by an auditing committee and an official examiner. The expenses of administration we find are a fraction over 8%. We are of the opinion that all has been done that can be done to safeguard the interest of the Church in this important matter, and that the fund can be safely commended to all those who contemplate blessing themselves and the Church by placing in the hands of the trustees large sums of money.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend that each diocese and missionary district appoint a definite day of each year when offerings shall be devoted to the General Clergy Relief Fund, and the matter brought before the parishes and congregations by a special sermon on the subject.

Your Committee also recommend, that inasmuch as sixty-one dioceses and missionary districts have merged their funds with the general fund, the rest be urged as far as possible to follow their example.

In conclusion, the Committee desire to record their appreciation of the zeal and activity of the officers and trustees, the effective methods which they have used in pressing this matter upon the attention of the Church, and especially the untiring energy and faithfulness of the Financial Agent and Assistant Treasurer.

The Committee offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the persons named above be elected Trustees for the ensuing three years.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CAMERON MANN,
FREDERICK BURGESS,
J. J. WILKINS,
ROGERS ISRAEL,
JAMES H. McILVAINE,
ROWLAND EVANS,

NATHANIEL W. SALADE.

The Rev. Dr. Battershall presented the following report:

The Joint Committee appointed to recommend a place for the meeting of the General Convention to be held in 1910 respectfully report that they met on October 15th. The following members were present: The Bishop of Pennsylvania, the Bishop of Southern Ohio, the Bishop of Rhode Island, the Bishop of Chicago, Dr. Battershall of Albany, Dr. Bennett of Newark, Dr. Brady of Ohio, Mr. Wiggins of Tennessee, Mr. J. Pierrepont Morgan of New York.

The Bishop of Pennsylvania was elected Chairman and Dr. Battershall Secretary. Letters of invitation were submitted from Kansas City, Denver, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Asbury Park, Atlantic City, and Philadelphia. The Lay Deputy from New York also gave a cordial invitation to that city. The Clerical Deputy from Ohio moved that the next Convention meet in Cincinnati. This motion was amended by the Lay Deputy from New York designating that city as the place of the next Convention. The amendment was lost, and the original motion was carried.

The Committee therefore recommend that the General Convention of 1910 meet in Cincinnati, and submit the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the next Triennial meeting of the General Convention be held in the city of Cincinnati in the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

The resolution referred to the Committee regarding the use of an auditorium instead of a Church for the sessions of the Convention was declared inexpedient.

O. W. WHITAKER, Chairman,
WALTON W. BATTERSHALL, Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington of New York moved to amend the resolution incorporated in the report by substituting the word New York for Cincinnati, which amendment was not adopted. The question recurring upon recommendation of the Committee, it was adopted.

Message No. 94 was placed on the Calendar.

[For the action of the House thereon see p. 392.]

The Rev. Dr. Huntington, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report, which was placed on the Calendar:

REPORT No. 12.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution to whom was referred a resolution offered by a Clerical Deputy from New York, proposing to amend Article X. of the Constitution by inserting after the word "Chapel" in the sixth line the word "and" and omitting in the following line the words "and Articles of Religion," report in favor of the measure.

Your Committee are fully alive to the grave character of the change proposed. It means nothing less than the formal disestablishment of Articles of Religion established by this Church more than a hundred years ago, and from that time to this continuously bound up within the covers of the Book of Common Prayer. For a change of so serious a character satisfactory reasons must be given before it is permitted to take place.

Your Committee believe that such reasons exist and that they are urgent.

It is unnecessary to review in this presence the history of the Book of Articles.

First set forth (in the form, in which they now stand in the Prayer Book of the Church of England) in the year 1562, they have continued in use in that Church, though with an ever lessening coercive power to this day. During the reign of her late Majesty Queen Victoria the form of subscription originally required of all Clergymen at their Ordination was so far relaxed as to involve only a general assent to the formulary taken as a whole.

Precisely what standing the Articles enjoyed in the American Church during the first years of its post-revolutionary revival it is difficult if not impossible to say. What is certainly known is that by the General Convention of 1801 the English Articles, reduced from 39 to 38 by the omission of Article XXI "Of the Authority of General Councils," and otherwise altered, here and there, to meet the change of ecclesiastical status effected by the Revolution, were formally "established."

The reasons for the proposed disestablishment are as follows:

1. The whole ecclesiastical sky has changed since the Articles were originally imposed upon the Church of England. They were set forth to meet the controversial needs of the Tudor period of English History. They were largely, though by no means exclusively, directed against the alleged errors of Rome. But Rome in the year 1870, effected a change of front which alters the whole aspect of our controversy with her. Two new dogmas of which the Tudor divines never dreamed are now in the fore front of the battle. If this Church intends an anti-Roman polemic it is idle to embark upon it with weapons so completely out of date as those stored in the armoury of the Articles. In a word, the Articles are antiquated without being ancient. For primitive truth no Church has a more profound reverence than our own, but it cannot afford to hold itself much longer responsible for a sixteenth century manifesto, plainly unsuited to twentieth century needs.

Secondly. The Articles by the very multiplicity of their details serve to obscure what ought to be the clear structural lines of the Christian Faith as set forth in the Catholic Creeds. So much of their contents as is of enduring value is already contained in those Creeds, and does not need duplication, while as to the rest, such is the variety of interpretation now allowed, that it is more than doubtful whether any Clergyman brought to trial for contravention of what is there contained could possibly be found guilty. This state of things tends to demoralization of both the Clergy and the Laity, of the Clergy since it leaves them helpless to answer with any definiteness the question, What is the Doctrine of the Episcopal Church? of the Laity because they are thoroughly perplexed by the sight of what looks to be a Creed supplementary to the other Creeds, while at the same time they are assured by their spiritual guides that it is something about which they need not at all concern themselves. Why should it be here in the Prayer Book, they ask, if it be unimportant? Why, if it be important, should we be told that as Laymen we need not care?

Thirdly. The Articles are a bar to Church Unity both at home and abroad; at home because they constitute a wall over which we have to talk with our neighbors at a great disadvantage, abroad because in the great Church of the East which holds passionately to the Nicene Faith, their very existence is unknown.

For these reasons your Committee recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert after the word "Chapel" in the sixth line of Article X. the word "and"; and omit in the following line the words "and Articles of Religion."

By order of the Committee.

F. A. LEWIS, for Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Carey, from the Committee on the General Theological Seminary, presented the following report, and the gentlemen nominated therein were elected Trustees to serve for the term of three years.

The members of your Committee on the General Theological Seminary, in presenting this report, beg leave, first of all, to set forth the financial condition of the work of the Institution.

The assessors of New York County place a valuation of $1,864,183.54 on the ground upon which the Seminary buildings are located in Chelsea Square. Thirty-two lots in block No. 692, New York City, part of it being occupied by apartment houses, are valued by the assessors at $381,000.00.

The total value of the real estate is $2,245,183.54.

The personal property consists of securities held by the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees. It is proper to say that all the stocks and bonds not secured by mortgage on real estate are held under direction of the donors.

The total mortgages, at par value, amount to $1,541,000.00, while the total bonds and stocks amount to $163,983.50.

The sum total of Personal Property is $1,796,318.32, while the real property is valued at a total of $2,245,183.54.

The total of all resources reaches the high mark of $4,179,614.69.

The total endowed funds are $1,771,492.28, and it may be noted that of this sum $148,784.60 are endowments for scholarships in the seminary.

In considering further the financial state of the General Theological Seminary, we find that the alumni and undergraduates and fifty Dioceses and Missionary Districts have contributed altogether to the Institution $2,563,870.61.

Since the year 1904 only four Dioceses have made contributions to the Seminary, namely Long Island, Newark, New York, and Rhode Island, the sums given amounting to $26,946.22, and it is worthy of mention that New York gave of the foregoing $19,767.27.

During the triennial period covered by this Report of your Committee there have been some changes in the working staff of the Professors. The Rev. Dr. Body, Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the Old Testament, has been retired owing to severe and continued illness. This is a real loss, for he is one of the great Biblical scholars of this generation.

The work of this chair has been carried on satisfactorily by the Rev. Dr. L. W. Batten, as locum tenens.

The Rev. Dr. I. T. Beckwith, Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the New Testament, having resigned, the Rev. Charles C. Edwards has been chosen in his place and has taken up the work with enthusiasm and ability.

The Rev. Dr. Philander K. Cady, for many years a force in the work of the Seminary, having found it necessary to resign the office of Sub-Dean, the Rev. Dr. Roper has been elected to fill the vacancy.

We note with satisfaction that the Rev. F. B. Blodgett has been appointed Instructor in the Department of Dogmatic Theology and of the Interpretation of the New Testament, and the Rev. Arthur P. Hunt Instructor in Ethics.

The Trustees recognizing the eminent ability of the Rev. Charles Norman Shepard have appointed him Professor of Hebrew and Cognate Languages, he having been Instructor in this Department for several years.

They have also appointed the Rev. Harold F. Hamilton Instructor in Greek, this action having been made necessary by the increasing number of students who come to the Seminary from the Universities without a knowledge of the Greek language.

In this connection we may truly say that the Seminary is thus admirably equipped in the Departments of Instruction.

The Paddock Lectures, during the triennial period have been delivered by Bishop Brent of the Philippines, on "The Incarnation and National Life"; by the Rev. James H. Woods of Harvard University, on "Comparative Religion"; and by the Rev. Dr. Inge, Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity in Cambridge University, on "Personal Idealism and Mysticism."

Your Committee also note that numerous lectures, addresses and instructions have been given by laymen and clergymen on a great variety of topics, thus bringing the students in touch with various aspects of the life of the Church and the State.

It is gratifying, moreover, to observe that while the standards of admission to the Seminary have been elevated both in regard to scholarship and personality, yet there has been a steady increase in the members seeking to enter this great School of the Prophets.

This is all the more a matter of thankfulness when we take into account the reduction in the number of students of Theology for several years, noticed by all Seminaries.

For the scholastic year of 1904-5 the number of students was 113. In 1905-6 the number was 124; and in 1906-7 we have 129.

The Library of the General Seminary, noted for its splendid collections of Latin Bibles and Greek Testaments, has during the past three years received additions to the number of 5,494 volumes. The total number of volumes in the Library, many of them being on fireproof shelves, is 41,779. This Library, thoroughly modern in equipment and organization, is so regulated that the students can not only make use of its treasures, but also do avail themselves of its valuable help in a commendable way for instruction and increase of knowledge.

The great interest manifested in the Missionary work of the Church in this and previous General Conventions finds an earnest and glad response in the Missionary Society of the General Theological Seminary.

This Society is a Chapter of the larger organization known as the Church Students' Missionary Association; and all its agencies are employed to help forward the General Missionary Board of the Church. By daily intercessory prayer, by a weekly missionary Litany, by a special Eucharist, and by addresses on the Missionary vocation, a great interest has been kindled, and as the fruit of all this thought and teaching and prayer and service some of the best men in the graduating classes have offered themselves willingly to do Missionary work either at home or in the foreign field.

It also becomes your Committee to speak of the devotional life of the students. Through the agencies afforded by the environment of the Seminary, a deep spirituality has been developed and cherished; and by sermons, addresses and instructions from the lips of the ablest men of every school of thought in the Church serving to deepen and broaden the life of the Seminarian, the yearning of the hearts and minds of the young men who are to be teachers and prophets of God's people, are ministered to in a wholesome and rich manner.

The development of the Elective system, the scientific grading of the students, the growth in active work, closer contact with the best modern and classical thought in Theology the broad catholicity of the teaching and life of the Seminary, the spirit shown by the Dean and Faculty in their endeavor to meet present-day problems, and the honest work in all departments of the Seminary pervaded with the spirit of religious earnestness, are causes for greatest thankfulness.

Your Committee, desirous of having the General Theological Seminary exercise its fullest teaching power, would suggest to the Trustees and the Faculty the consideration of the possibility of the adoption of some plan by which the learning and ability of the Professors may be made more generally useful. As there is great need of wise and definite and systematic instruction in the fundamentals of the Faith for the students in many of the leading Universities, and in the advance in the preparation and training of Sunday School teachers, the Faculty of the Seminary may well take the lead.

The Committee urge them also to take into account in the training of the students, Field Work, Settlement Work, and other work along the lines of actual contact with men in their every day life with the aim of winning them to Christ.

Your Committee herewith nominate for election by this House of Deputies as Trustees of the General Theological Seminary the following:

The Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L.; the Rev. G. Williamson Smith, D.D., LL.D.; the Rev. J. S. B. Hodges, D. D.; the Rev. T. Gardiner Littell, D.D.; the Rev. William Montague Geer, the Rev. A. St. John Chambré, D.D.; the Rev. William H. Vibbert, D.D.; the Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, Ph.D.; the Rev. George R. Van De Water, D.D.; the Rev. Thomas W. Nickerson, Jr.; the Rev. W. W. Howard Van Amringe, Mr. Francis L. Stetson, Mr. Spencer Trask, Mr. Ambrose Spencer Murray, Jr.; Mr. George M. Weaver, Mr. Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, Mr. Robt. H. Gardiner.

By order of the Committee,

JOSEPH CAREY, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Eccleston, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report, which was ordered printed and laid over for consideration, together with Resolution 1 appended to Report No. 4 of the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution:

REPORT No. 45.

The Committee have had under consideration the resolution from the Committee on Constitutional Amendments amending Canon 40. Your Committee see no objection to offering a Canon to provide at once for the King James' Version to be declared the Standard Bible of the Church and also for the use of renderings found in the Revised English and American Versions. Nor in their judgment need such a Canon prevent the House from considering and passing, if they so wish, the Constitutional Amendment proposed in the report of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

This Committee report the following for consideration:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 40 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Canon 40. Of the Standard Bible.

The Translation of the Holy Scriptures commonly known as the King James' Version is hereby declared to be the Standard Bible of this Church, and said Translation, with or without the Marginal Readings authorized by this Church, shall be the Bible for use in the services of the Church, provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the ministers of this Church to read the Lessons from Holy Scriptures in the Morning and Evening Prayer from the Translation of the Holy Scriptures known as the Canterbury or Westminster Revision, or that known as the American Revised Version, in such editions as shall be approved by the Ordinary.

By order of the Committee.

[For the action of the House of Bishops see p. 401.]

Mr. Carpenter, from the Committee on Expenses, presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

The Committee on Expenses, to whom was referred the Memorial from the "Convocation of the Missionary District of Cuba," asking that the Constitution and Canons be printed in Spanish, beg leave to report that they have considered the same, and deem it inexpedient at the present time to do so.

They therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the matter.

For the Committee,

JOHN N. CARPENDER, Chairman.

Mr. Clement, from the Committee on the Prayer Book, presented the following report, the first resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 10.

The Committee on the Prayer Book, to whom was referred the resolution offered by the Clerical Deputy from the Missionary Jurisdiction of Mexico, proposing that permission be given to adapt the title page of the Book of Common Prayer to conditions existing in Foreign Jurisdictions, would respectfully report that they have given the matter referred to them careful consideration. It seems to your Committee that before such action could be taken, some change must be made, constitutionally, in the wording of the title page itself. This matter is fully covered by Number 17 upon the Calendar, being Message No. 75 of the House of Bishops. Your Committee are of the opinion that such change in the title page does not involve, nor attempt to make, any change in the corporate name of the Church, but that it paves the way for a larger use of the Book of Common Prayer, particularly among people not within the jurisdiction of the United States. The Committee would recommend that Message No. 75 be taken from the Calendar and put upon its passage, and that therefore, the appended resolution be considered. They, therefore, offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Message No. 75 be taken from the Calendar and put upon its passage.

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That in editions of the Book of Common Prayer for use in any Jurisdiction, not within the United States, such alterations may be made to the title page, indicative of local conditions, as may be adopted by the Bishop of the Jurisdiction, subject to the approval of the Presiding Bishop of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. B. HODGES, Chairman.

Mr. Packard moved that all after the words "House of Deputies concurring" in Message No. 75 be stricken out, and that the second resolution of the Committee's report be substituted therefor.

On motion of Mr. Evans of Pennsylvania the whole matter was recommitted with instructions to report after recess.

The President announced the following appointments on the Board of the Seamen's Church Institute of America; The Rev. Philo Sprague of Massachusetts, the Rev. E. B. Niver of Maryland, the Rev. J. A. Emery of California, the Rev. H. H. Sneed of Mississippi, the Rev. A. R. Mansfield of New York, Mr. W. W. Frazier of Pennsylvania, Mr. Henry Lewis Morris of New York, Mr. A. B. Williamson of California, Mr. Eckley B. Coxe, Jr., of Pennsylvania, Capt. Alfred T. Mahan of New York.

Mr. Saunders, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report:

REPORT No. 52.

The Committee have had under consideration the resolution by Mr. Pepper of Pennsylvania, amending Canon 52, Article II. §12, by adding several sections to provide for the organization of the Missionary Departments and recommend the following:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That Canon 52, Article II., be amended by repealing Section 12 and inserting in place thereof six new sections, to be numbered Sections 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17, to read as follows:

SECTION 12. The Dioceses and Missionary Districts, specified in this section are grouped for Missionary purposes into eight departments, as follows:

The second department shall consist of the Dioceses within the States of New York and New Jersey, and of the Missionary District of Porto Rico.

The third department shall consist of the Dioceses within the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and of the Diocese of Washington.

The fourth department shall consist of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

The fifth department shall consist of the Dioceses within the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin.

The seventh department shall consist of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the States of Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Kansas, and the Territory of New Mexico, and of the Missionary District of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory.

The eighth department shall consist of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the States of Idaho, Utah, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, California, and the Territories of Arizona and Alaska, and of the Missionary Districts of Honolulu and the Philippine Islands.

Provided, however, that the composition of any department shall be altered in accordance with the provisions of Section II of Canon 29, whenever a new Diocese or Missionary District shall be formed.

Sec. 13. Any department may organize a missionary council auxiliary to the Board of Missions. Said council shall be composed of all the Bishops officially resident within the department and of four clerical and four lay representatives from each of the several Dioceses and Missionary Districts within said department, to be elected by the Convention or Councils of such Dioceses and by the Convocations of said Districts, respectively. Provided that the Council may at any time increase or diminish the number of representatives from the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the department.

Sec. 14. The Missionary Council in any department, when duly constituted, shall have the following powers:

First: To provide for its own organization and to select a descriptive name for the department.

Second: To elect, subject to the approval of the Board of Missions, a Department Secretary, whose compensation shall be fixed and paid by said Board. He shall hold office during the pleasure of the said Board and he shall work under its direction.

Third. To select a representative other than the Department Secretary who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the Board of Missions with the privileges of the floor, but without the right to vote.

Fourth. To promote the holding of Missionary Meetings and to take all such measures to foster Missionary interest within the department as are not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention or of the Diocese, or Missionary District affected within the Missionary Department.

SEC. 15. The Board of Missions, in making an annual apportionment, shall make such apportionment to a department in gross for sub-division by the Missionary Council thereof as the said Council may determine.

SEC. 16. Within one year after this Canon takes effect, the Senior Bishop in each department shall, upon the request of a majority of all the Bishops in the Department summon the Missionary Council to meet for the purpose of organization, at some convenient place within the Department. For every such Primary Council the Clerical and Lay Deputies of the Diocese or the District to the General Convention shall represent their respective Dioceses or Districts, unless and until the Diocese or District shall have elected representatives in the manner provided by Section 13.

SEC. 17. In any department in which no Missionary Council shall have been organized or no Department Secretary elected, prior to January 1, 1909, the Board of Missions shall have power to appoint agents to represent the Society in such department, and to promote the formation of Auxiliary Missionary Associations, whose contributions, as well as those specially designed by individuals, shall be received and paid in accordance with the wish of the donors when expressed in writing.

By order of the Committee.

Action being taken seriatim on the sections, No. 12 was adopted.

Section 13 being under consideration, it was, on motion of the Rev. Mr. Sanderson of Central Pennsylvania,

Mr. Clement, from the Committee on the Prayer Book, presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 11.

The Committee on the Prayer Book to whom was referred Message No. 75 from the House of Bishops, Report No. 10 of this Committee, and the substitute offered by Mr. Packard of Maryland, respectfully reports:

The Committee is of the opinion that no change can be made in the title page of the Prayer Book, although limited to Prayer Books printed in foreign languages, unless done in a constitutional way. The Committee therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That the House of Deputies concur with the House of Bishops in resolution C of Message No. 75 with the following amendment: Strike out all of Resolution C after the words "Of the Constitution, viz.," and insert the following, "that in editions of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages for use in any jurisdiction, not within the United States, the title page of the Book of Common Prayer be amended by striking out the words, 'according to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America,' and by making such additions and alterations in the title page, indicative of local conditions, as may be adopted by the Bishop of the Jurisdiction, subject to the approval of the Presiding Bishop" and that the same shall read:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the following alteration in the Book of Common Prayer be proposed and that notice thereof be sent to the Secretaries of the Diocesan Convention in accordance with Article 10 of the Constitution, viz.: That in editions of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages, for use in any jurisdiction, not within the United States, the title page of the Book of Common Prayer be amended, by striking out the words "according to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," and by making such additions and alterations in the title page indicative of local conditions, as may be adopted by the Bishop of the Jurisdiction, subject to the approval of the Presiding Bishop.

REPORT No. 11.

The Committee on Elections respectfully reports that Mr. John Henry Pearman is entitled to a seat as Deputy from the Diocese of Los Angeles, in place of Mr. Thomas L. Winder, who has been obliged to leave the Convention.

A. G. L. TREW, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Williams, from the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, presented the following report, the resolutions appended to which were adopted:

REPORT No. 12.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, to whom was referred the Report of the Joint Committee on the Translation of Bishops, together with the Minority Report, signed by the Bishop of Maryland, beg leave to respectfully report, that they have carefully considered the same, and have arrived at the following conclusion, to-wit.: In the judgment of the Committee there is no urgent present need of an amendment to the Constitution which shall permit the translation of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor to a Diocese other than that for which he has been consecrated. Should the Provincial System be adopted in this Church, in the near, or remote future, your Committee would be ready to admit that it would be expedient to permit the translation of the Bishop of a Diocese, in order that the Bishops of the Province might elect for their Primate, or Presiding Bishop, a man of ripe experience in the exercise of the Episcopal office. But inasmuch as the General Convention does not yet seem willing to sanction the Provincial System, your Committee cannot see any sound reason for giving sanction to the translation of a Bishop, or Bishop Coadjutor, of a Diocese. But on the other hand, they can see several reasons why the Church should refuse consent to such an arrangement.

The Episcopal ring worn by our Bishops is the symbol of their life-long union with their Dioceses. Your Committee would deem it a misfortune to weaken that conception of the Episcopal office, by giving the sanction of the Church to the divorce, occasional or frequent, of a Bishop from the Diocese for which he was consecrated. It would, in their judgment, give occasion for restlessness, ambitions, and intrigues, in the Episcopal office, from which our Bishops ought to be sternly debarred. This restlessness, these ambitions and intrigues, are too often seen now in the pastoral relations between priests and their parishes, to allow your Committee to hope that they would not arise among Bishops, were the opportunity given them to obtain more profitable, or less difficult fields of ecclesiastical administrations. Your Committee is therefore constrained to agree, in large measure, with the Minority Report of the Bishop of Maryland; and submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the proposed change is inexpedient, and

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

WM. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington, from the same Committee, presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 13.

The Committee on Amendments to the Constitution to whom was referred a proposed change in the Title of the Constitution (see p. . . .), respectfully report that inasmuch as the title recommended is substantially identical in words, as it is absolutely identical in purport, with the language of the title page of the Constitution and Canons, as that already reads, they recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the proposed change is inexpedient and that the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

W. R. HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Eccleston, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 53.

The Committee have had under consideration the resolution contained in Message No. 82 from the House of Bishops, amending Canon 15, Section V. (iii.), and recommend the following:

Resolved, That this House concur in Message No. 82.

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON.

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 54.

The Committee have had under consideration the Message No. 85 of the House of Bishops amending Canon 10, Section III., by dropping clauses (ii.) and (iii.) and the Committee recommend non concurrence. No other election can take place under the terms of clause (iii.), but as long as the Bishops elected under these clauses still hold jurisdiction it is thought best not to repeal them and the Committee recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the matter.

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON.

The same gentleman from the same Committee presented the following report, the resolution appended to which was adopted:

REPORT No. 55.

The Committee have had under consideration Message No. 81 of the House of Bishops amending Canon 17, Section I. (i.), by striking out in lines 6 and 7 the words "or by a Missionary Bishop elected to exercise jurisdiction beyond the limits of the United States" and by substituting in line 1 for "who alleges that he has been" the words "claiming to have been" so that the clause shall read "a minister claiming to have been ordained," etc., and recommend the following:

Resolved, That this House concurs with the House of Bishops in Message No. 81, with the following amendment.

In the first line strike out "claiming" and substitute "declaring himself" so that the clause will read:

§ I. [i.] A Minister declaring himself to have been ordained beyond the limits of the United States by a foreign Bishop in communion with this Church, or by a Bishop consecrated for a foreign country by Bishops of this Church under Article III. of the Constitution, shall before he be permitted to officiate in any Parish or Congregation of this Church, exhibit to the Minister, or, if there be no Minister, to the Vestry thereof, a certificate of recent date, signed by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese or Missionary District, that his letters of Holy Orders and other credentials are valid and authentic, and given by a Bishop in communion with this Church, and whose authority is acknowledged by this Church, and also that he has exhibited to the said Ecclesiastical Authority satisfactory evidence of his moral and godly character, and of his theological acquirements.

By order of the Committee.

J. HOUSTON ECCLESTON.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington of New York presented the following resolution, which was placed on the Calendar:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following be substituted for the present Canon, entitled, Of The Standard Bible, to be numbered Canon 40. Of Authorized Version of the Holy Scriptures.

The translation of the Holy Scriptures commonly known as the King James' or Authorized Version is the Standard Bible of this Church. But the various readings of the translation commonly known as the Revised Version, whether in its English or its American form, are to be regarded as marginal to the Standard text; and may be used by the Minister at his discretion, in the reading of the Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer.

[For the action of the House see p. 392.]

SERMON

BISHOP OF LONDON

AT THE OPENING SERVICE.

It is quite impossible to describe the feelings of love and gratitude and even pride, with which an English Churchman must look round upon the great assembly which fills this Church to-day.

Here, bone of his bone, flesh of his flesh, is a great sister Church now grown to be as great and important as his own, a great sister church of which he has heard for years, many leading members of which he has seen, but which he now sees in all her representative strength for the first time to-day.

When he thinks over her wonderful origin, her growth, and the part she is bound to play in fashioning the future of this mighty nation, his heart is bound to go out in love to her, in gratitude to God for His goodness to her, and in an honorable pride that he had some share in her being here at all.

And if that would be bound to be the feeling of any English Churchman, how specially keenly must this be the feeling of any Bishop of London?

During the last few months, in the rare intervals of a rather exceptionally busy life, I have endeavored to go into the history of the connection of the Church of America with the See of London.

We have some three thousand documents bearing on the subject in the muniment room at Fulham. I have had these examined afresh, and I have with me some interesting specimens of that continuous correspondence which went on for 170 years. Here with the great seal of Great Britain and Ireland is one of the original letters patent with which the Kings of England handed over to the Bishops of London, except on certain points, the spiritual jurisdiction over what was then called his "American Colonies;" here is a touching letter from an Indian Chief in 1713, in what is now the State of Massachusetts, asking for a missionary; here is a list of all the clergy of Maryland, sent by the Bishop of London's Commissary to him, with their parishes and their characters; here is a letter describing the State of Virginia in 1679; besides these we have at Fulham a very long letter from one of my predecessors urging and urging again upon the State authorities the absolute necessity of allowing Bishops to be granted to the American Church, and, as a small commemoration of this great occasion, I have printed and published in America before it is published in England, a short account of the history of Fulham Palace and its special connection with the Church of America.

And what comes out of these ancient documents, and that long correspondence? Why, that nothing was too great or too small in those early days of the American Church to be referred across the Ocean to one who was usually "the kindly old gentleman" who lived at Fulham; that, while he raised and was expected to raise £1,000 for William and Mary College, and to inaugurate such great undertakings, no petty trouble was too small for him to be consulted on it, and that, while owing to political reasons, we lost to Scotland the priceless honor of granting Episcopacy to America, yet that it was from no lack of interest and care on behalf of those who in difficult days ever sought to cherish and protect the young sister across the seas. And, I know, dear brothers, that it was largely because of this, and because you wished on your 300th anniversary to recognize this sacred link with the See of London, that you desired my presence with you to-day, and that, in answer to that affectionate desire, I am here.

But we should do ill this morning, if we rested either in brotherly sentiments or in historical reminiscences; the real wonder of this morning, and the real ground of thanksgiving for every Christian in both countries and especially for every Churchman, is that the whole creation of the great Church whose Convention we inaugurate to-day is the direct act of God, that once again the Lord's prophecy is fulfilled: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed," and that what we see this morning amounts to nothing less than this,—while Christian men and missionaries and Bishops have done their part the Lord Himself has been working on these American shores, and confirming the word with signs following.

It is not too much to say that 300 years ago the mustard seed was "blown ashore" and might, humanly speaking, have been lost altogether. I know few things more touching than the accounts of the first settlement of Jamestown, and the way in which, in spite of cruel and terrible disasters and privations, those early settlers stood by their religion. It is true that one man burnt his Bible and said there was no God; (poor man! one can hardly wonder that the faith of some failed), but the Rev. Robert Hunt, who preached a sermon and marvellously comforted those who heard him; was much more typical of the kind of spirit which animated the first settlers in this land.

Yes! amid storms of adversity, and waves of persecution, and blasts of disappointment, God saw that the grain of mustard seed should fall upon the strand of America, and not only fall but grow into a great tree in whose branches the birds of the air—the 800,000 immigrants which annually without ceasing pour into America—may come and lodge.

By what process, I ask you, was it possible that so tiny a seed should become so mighty a growth? How is it that the Rev. Robert Hunt and his little band of Churchmen have become a great Church with 104 bishops and nearly 5,300 priests and a large body of laymen, whose representatives are with us to-day, except by the fructifying grace of God, by the work of Christ Himself, by the divine energy of the Holy Spirit?

I have often said, that, if I had never believed in Christianity before, I should be bound to believe in it when I see the 215 churches built in the last forty years in London, all living growths and transforming what would be deserts into gardens of the Lord. So, if I had never believed in Christianity before, I should believe in it, as I stand in this pulpit at the 300th anniversary of the American Church to-day.

And I say this, with the most generous recognition of all that other Christian denominations are doing, both in this country and in London to proclaim the witness and to spread the Kingdom of our one Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

And that brings me to the main point which I would put before my brothers in America on this notable anniversary to-day,—What are the characteristics of the Church which would possess the future? What are the conditions under which alone the mustard seed which has grown so high already shall fill the world?

In some ways the most inspiring sermon which I ever heard was the last sermon preached by Bishop Lightfoot before a Church Congress. It was on the text: "I will give Thee for an ensign to the Nation;" it was a message to the whole Anglican Communion throughout the World, and the burden of it was this—that the conquest of the World belonged to the Church, which kept its unbroken orders in one hand and an open Bible in the other. Such a saying from one whom from his wonderful knowledge of history, and his great balance of mind, we in England looked upon as a prophet indeed, may set us on the track of what I believe to be the true answer to the question I have propounded this morning.

(1) And first undoubtedly, the future can only belong to a Church which believes and preaches the forthreaching, energizing and active Love of God.

God forbid that I should deny the difficulties which surround a belief in the love of God or ignore the stern side of the New Testament; every great light casts a shadow, and he is no true ambassador who belittles the shadow cast by the great Sun of the Love of God. To be out of the warmth of the Love of God is to be in the darkness, and how great is that darkness no one painted more clearly than Jesus Christ Himself. But I have found in East London, and I am sure you have found in every quarter of this Continent, that it is the warmth of the Sun which makes the soul cast off the cloak of its reserve, and not the terror of the darkness.

After all, Why did God make anything except in love? Why are we here at all except as part of the millions whom he created to sun themselves in the sunshine of His own happiness? Why did He redeem the World, except to His Fatherly Heart it was impossible to leave one in the darkness? And no Church will save the World, and especially those thousand millions who have not yet had a chance of making up their minds as to the truth of Christianity, except a Church that believes and proclaims and lives out the love of God to every child that He has made.

(2) And with the gospel of the Love of God must go what we call in England, the message of a free salvation.

It may be that in the past, we may have allowed a legalizing spirit to creep over the Church, and therefore lost such earnest communities as the Wesleyans, because they thought the old bottles would not hold the new wine. But to-day, High Church and Low Church vie in England to preach a gospel of a free salvation; one school of thought after another, and often from the same stand on the same evening, preach the same tidings—tidings so great that they dwarf into insignificance every dividing line that keeps them apart—that the Eternal Son of God came into this very World in which we live, and gave Himself for His brothers, that the Christian religion does not consist in a belief in a good man named Jesus Christ dying on the Cross, but consists in a belief in the Sacrifice of God Himself.

I have no means of knowing, dear brothers, the trend of religious thought in the United States, but from my experience of East, North, and West London, the future lies with no Church which sinks to what is called the New Theology.

God forbid we should say a word against any individual man who believes as much as he can of the Christian Creed, but, what we must beware of on both sides of the Atlantic is losing the power of our message by trying to make it easier to be believed.

It is easier, no doubt, to believe that Jesus Christ was only a good man, however difficult to reconcile with the New Testament; it is more comfortable to believe that evil is an undeveloped form of good,—that 'the devil is a vacuum'; it is more intelligible to the human intellect to look upon the Atonement as the appeal of self-sacrifice to the selfishness of mankind; but, while the human heart craves to know what God has done, while this so-called 'undeveloped form of good' is making havoc of our hearths and our homes, while there are sinners who long to know if they can be forgiven, the New Theology is no gospel which will win the World.

When you have once seen a young man spring into the vestry after a mission service with a look of agony on his face, and then seen the look of peace at last when he believed he could be forgiven, nay! was forgiven; when you have once heard a heart-broken girl sob out: "O! God, it is Thee I have sinned against; against Thee!"—as I heard the other day—then you know that the key fits the lock, that the Gospel of salvation is what wins the heart of the world, that a Christian life is not to win salvation, but is, as a Cowley Father calls it in the title of one of his books, "a response," and that there is as a matter of fact no other name given any man by which we can be saved, except the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

(3) But it may be said: "Every orthodox Christian community in the world preaches the Gospel of the Love of God and of a free salvation"—in what sense are we justified to-day in the Anglican Communion in keeping our own organization separate from the great non-episcopal bodies on the one hand, and the Roman Church on the other.

And here let me acknowledge the help that I with many others received on our side of the Atlantic from two books that were written on this side more than twenty years ago by Bishop Cleveland Coxe on "Apollon, or the Way of God," and Bishop Ingraham Kip on "The Double Witness of the Church."

We do not keep aloof from either in any spirit of unbrotherliness or pharisaical pride. We long to be one; we pray to be one; we honor and admire all that they have done for the cause of Christ. There is no difficulty in London, and there ought to be no difficulty anywhere in working side by side with them in every cause which makes for the well-being of our common city or nation. The Public Morality Council for London, of which I am chairman, contains representatives of every religious community in London, but in spite of this, we are bound to maintain in opposition to the great non-episcopal bodies, that the historical ministry cannot lightly be set aside in the Christian Church, that, just as every plant has lines of its own on which it develops, so the divine grain of mustard seed carries within itself the organization by which it was meant to spread throughout the world. Again and again, has this, as well as the Gospel of free salvation, been shown effective in the history of the Church. It was the ordered ministry and strong organization of the Church which saved the Christian religion for Europe, when the Goths burst upon Rome and swept it away; and it was the Church which, as a matter of fact, converted the conquerors. And again, leaping over the ages, to come to your own Virginia, when other political causes into which I need not enter, had almost swept away the Church from this part of America altogether, yet, once given the chance, just as a plant, trampled under foot but not dead, will lift its head, and the bent stalk will straighten itself again, when the weight is lifted off, so in the marvelous revival of the Church of Virginia, we see once again the justification in history of Church order, Church ministry, and Church worship.

The Church of the future must undoubtedly possess the unbroken ministry and the historic Sacraments which you possess in the Church of America to-day; "Hold fast that thou hast, that no man take thy crown."

(4) But, when I turn to the far more delicate question, as to why we do not seek reunion under present conditions with that great historic Church which numbers, I know, so many adherents in America, and which undoubtedly shares with us the gifts of an unbroken tradition and Sacraments consecrated by duly ordained ministers, I gladly avail myself of some words written at my request for my use to-day by one of the most honored bishops of the Anglican Communion, honored, I hope, on both sides of the Atlantic—I mean Bishop King, of Lincoln. I asked him to write down for me what he considered the special characteristics and special function of the Anglican Communion, and those who remember what was called the Lincoln trial in England, will know how little he can be considered prejudiced towards what is sometimes called a Protestant view of the Christian faith. And this is what he writes:

"The special function of the Anglican Communion is to preserve the exact truth. She must protest against any additions to or subtractions from the teaching of Holy Scripture, and the early and undivided Church.

"The Church of Rome appears to us to err in the use of authority in relation to the Truth. The universal supremacy of a single see, and the infallibility of an individual bishop are extreme instances of this. The ecclesiastical use of authority in relation to individual conduct, such as compulsory confession and attendance at Mass, seem to endanger the freedom of individual action, and therefore to weaken the moral life—obedience must not be put in the place of Truth. We give authority chiefly an educational place with regard to Truth. Authority introduces us to the Truth, and then trusts to the faculties of the individual (the mind, heart, conscience, will,) under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to apprehend that Truth: We wish people to say: 'Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard Him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the World.'"

I believe it would be difficult to state in clearer words the difference between the "fatherly" authority as given to the Church by the Anglican Communion, and the authority as taught and practiced in the Church of Rome. We believe, moreover, in a Catholic Church which is not afraid in any land of the idea of a national Church. And already in far Japan, England and America are working together in the common work of fostering "the Holy Catholic Church of Japan," to be the soul of that great and growing nation.

But, it may be asked: "Why is the 'exactness' of Truth of so much account?" No one can really ask that question who realizes that two-thirds of the human race has yet given no opinion on the truth of Christianity, and that the whole question as to whether the Truth of God will commend itself to their consciences and win their hearts may depend upon the purity and accuracy, and therefore upon the power, with which that Truth reaches them through the human medium which God has seen fit to employ.

(5) But, after all is said and done, the most Evangelistic, the most Catholic, the most Orthodox Church on earth will produce no effect upon the world if it has not still one further characteristic. It must clearly and unmistakably and before all the world be unworldly itself.

The mustard seed is planted in the earth, but it will never grow and expand and flourish without the light and air of Heaven.

Bear with me, then, when I say as my last word, that the greatest danger of the Church on both sides of the Atlantic is worldliness.

In one sense it is impossible for the Church to mix too freely with the world. Into the slums of East London, into the business of Wall Street, among the wild tribes of the mountains, into the midst of the mining camps at Klondyke, the Church must go, and no human interest in the world is outside the interest of the Church.

But, on the other hand, to catch the spirit of "push," to run a church as a man runs a successful business, to depend upon cleverness and management, rather than the grace of God, to neglect prayer and intercession in favor of influence with the Press, to lower the teaching of the Church or its moral standard in order to suit an easy and self-indulgent age, is to spell ruin and failure and shame for the most orthodox Church in the world. In a voice which still rings down the centuries, Jesus Christ Himself proclaimed: "My Kingdom is not of this world."

Only a Church whose weapons still are faith and hope and love and prayer can hope to win the world.

And so, I have brought for you from the old world to the new, this message, the simplicity of which I should be ashamed if it did not come from my heart. The mustard seed blown ashore three hundred years ago, has taken root, it has grown into a great tree, it will send forth seeds of its own for the health and purity of the nations. See to it that the great American Church, so Apostolic in its origin, so Catholic in its Creed, so heroic in its history, is also so devoted and unworldly in its life and work that it shall take a worthy part in molding the future of the world, and have for its blessing and reward the gratitude and love of hundreds of millions of souls.

As a result of a careful examination of the above figures we respectfully offer the following comments:

1st. We regretfully record our conviction that, for want of a uniform system of registration and tabulation, in Parochial and Diocesan reports there is want of accuracy in many of the items. It is known that estimates are sometimes given instead of exact reports. The communicants are enumerated according to various interpretations given the word "Communicant," that similar varieties of usage invalidate the figures regarding parochial, and industrial schools. Thirty-two Dioceses and Missionary districts have failed to report the whole number of baptized persons; so that the item of 759,017 given above is very far short of the fact.

We note further the lack of information respecting the number of ministers who have died, and of persons suspended, or deposed, from the sacred ministry, which under the Canon, is made a part of the summary required.

We respectfully submit that the order of Deaconesses, being by Canon recognized and regulated, the number of women holding this office ought to be the subject of enumeration and report, as are the order of the Sacred Ministry.

We invite your grateful recognition of these facts, more priests were ordained the last three years than in the preceding triennium, there are nearly 300 more clergy than three years ago, including 11 Bishops, 21 more postulants for orders, and 148 more lay readers, over six hundred more Parishes and Mission Stations. There are 793 more Churches, there are 231 more Rectories, 14,585 more baptisms, there are 15,460 more confirmations, and 67,487 more communicants.

The financial reports show over a quarter million dollars more in parochial offerings, for religion, charities and education. We rejoice to note an increase of nearly $300,000 for extra Diocesan objects, an increase of over $134,000 for clerical education.

There are nearly three and a half million dollars invested for the endowment of the Episcopate; this exceeds the sum last reported by nearly $600,000. There is $7,680,750.00 invested for the support of parishes, an increase of more than 25%, while the invested fund for the relief of clergy and their widows and orphans shows an increase of $375,000, being now over two and a quarter million dollars, or $2,291,826.09.

The endowment of hospitals, orphanages and other institutions of the Church are greater by five and a quarter million dollars. The invested wealth of the Church is over nine million dollars more than it was three years ago.

We regret to report that the number of deacons ordained during the past three years was less by 22, and that the number of candidates for Holy Orders is less by 41 than it was three years ago. This presents to the Church a most serious condition, and one which calls at once for action upon the part of both laymen and clergy. We believe it should be made the subject of prayer upon the part of all members of the Church, that the Lord of the Harvest may send forth more laborers into His harvest, and that the Church should be "gathered together" in bringing the claims of the Sacred Ministry, or the call of God to the work among men, to the attention of our young men.

The clergy are to keep before the mind of the Church the call to the sacred ministry by the proper observance of the Ember Days at the four seasons, and also upon the third Sunday in Advent when the Church has arranged for the ministry to be brought to the attention of the people. Not only is this to be a matter of sermons and Church season, but each clergyman is to feel the necessity of bringing this to the mind and conscience of those young men to whom God has given him the blessed opportunity of ministering.

We feel that too much emphasis cannot be placed upon this matter. With the increased demand for men at home and abroad, we cannot too soon realize that God is offering to all the Church a great opportunity for prayer and work, both at home and abroad, at home in order that it may be abroad. In this connection your Committee regrets that the reports of the Sunday School teachers and scholars have remained almost stationary. Upon this work of the education of the children depends the future of the Church, and we should be glad if the workers in this part of the field could be awakened to the realization of their great opportunity to gather in, and instruct the young, in order that they may grow into strong and useful members of the Master's Church.

We are again called upon to place before the Church the fact that the salaries of the Clergy are not what they should be. That with the increase in values has come an increase of the cost of living, so that, upon the greater part of the Clergy has come a serious question of support, bringing additional care and anxieties which they have borne with patience, but, of which they should be relieved at once by the systematic gifts of all the members of the Parishes. Again the subject of "Clergy Relief" or the care for the aged or disabled Clergymen and widows and orphans of Clergymen is brought to the attention of your Committee, and we rejoice at the increase interest in this fund, shown by the larger gifts of the people for this purpose. The fund now being over two and a quarter million dollars, which is about one-fifth of the amount asked by the Commission.

We can but repeat the commendation of the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society to the support of Clergy and Laity of the Church.

Your Committee would call attention with thankfulness to the increased interest of the laymen of the Church, which has expressed itself in such organizations as the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, now numbering 10,000 men and 4,000 boys, men engaged in daily prayer and the service of spreading Christ's Kingdom on earth, thus bringing to themselves greater Spiritual life, and ever bringing men nearer to Christ, and his Church; and again, in such works as the Men's Thank-offering and the Laymen's Forward Movement; for the missions, which with the Woman's Auxiliary has resulted in the great offering for Missions just placed in the hands of the Church for the advance of the Kingdom.

The subject of capital and labor is brought to the attention of your Committee. The teachings of the Master are the true solution of all questions which may arise between capital and labor. In the great fact of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, the Church points to the interdependence of the one upon the other, and thus she stands the friend and helper of both, in all the chances and changes of this life. And this brings to mind the child labor question, an evil which has sprung up in factories, mills, etc., and is to be condemned for it is destruction of the life of the future citizen, as children who are put to hard labor are retarded in their development.

The condition of all factory people and especially those in the newly developing cotton industry of the South call for an earnest effort upon the part of the Church to help in their uplift.

The subject of Sunday desecration has been placed before your Committee and it can not too strongly insist upon the observance of the Lord's day. Churchmen are called upon to stand for the full measure of time devoted to the service of Him, whose day it is, and to abstain from all that would mark the day as one of worldly pleasure and amusement. We should witness to our faith and love for Christ by attendance upon the services of the Church, both morning and evening. It is not a sufficient keeping of the day to attend upon one service, but the mind and heart should dwell upon the new life given to us through Christ our Lord upon the day set apart for these sacred truths. Six days shalt thou labor and do all that thou hast to do.

In this connection a word as to the observance of Friday as a day on which the Church requires such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion.

The subject of temperance has also come before your Committee and the terrible consequences of the abuse of spirituous liquors. It cannot be too strongly insisted upon that no man who calls himself a servant of the Lord Christ should by the use of anything put a stumbling block in the way of his brother. That most powerful factor in human destiny, personal influence, should make us careful that we be not the occasion of the fall of others, making our acts the justification of their weakness.

We rejoice that God, our Father, has abundantly blessed us in all things and out of sorrows and joys has opened new ways for us to walk in, that we may through Him be able to advance the Kingdom of His Church among men.

Your Committee, to conform to the Canon, submits the following resolution, and asks its adoption:

Resolved, That a copy of this report be sent to the House of Bishops with the request that they issue a Pastoral Letter to the members of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW BREWSTER, Chairman.

APPENDIX II.—1.

THE TRIENNIAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The Board of Missions herewith submits its triennial report to the General Convention, and surrenders the responsibility intrusted to it as the Church's executive for the administration of its missionary work during the last three years. As provided by canon, the Board has published a report of its proceedings for the years ending August 31st, 1905, and August 31st, 1906. These reports, taken in connection with the report that follows, will comprise a complete report for the triennium.

First of all, the Board would make acknowledgment of the gracious loving-kindness of our Heavenly Father in that He has put it into the hearts of many of His people to do what they might toward making known that Revelation which will bring to pass the establishment of God's Kingdom in the earth, and of gratitude for the blessing that has come to the Church in return for its efforts on behalf of our brethren scattered abroad who have never known that they are redeemed. The men and women who have represented the Church in its missionary districts, whether at home or abroad, have, by their fidelity and devotion, set worthy example to the whole Church, and have given the Church just cause for congratulation that it has such representatives at the front. From every point of view the work they have done has abundantly justified the offering of the lives and treasure devoted to it, giving full assurance that whatever the Church finds in its heart to do for the extension of the work will be abundantly blessed by Him who ordained and sent it as His messenger and witness.

Another cause for genuine thankfulness on the part of all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity is that during the past three years there has been a distinct advance in the development of such public sentiment as will finally make it impossible for a man or a parish or a diocese to enjoy God's gifts without a sense of obligation to hold them in trust for the blessing of others. Not only have the offerings from the Church been greater in bulk, but they have been generally distributed, and there are many indications that they are being made with more and more intelligence; as if by those who realize that the Revelation of the Father in our Lord and Master is essential to the development as well as the eternal salvation of God's family.

In the last three years the offerings of the Church entrusted to the Board of Missions to meet the expenses of its Mission have amounted to $2,386,877.43. In addition, many generous gifts have been supplied to those doing work for which the Board was unable to provide the means. In every diocese and missionary district offerings have also been made for diocesan missions. If these could be added, the total sum would be much augmented. The Church may well be grateful that it has been permitted to do these things for its brethren, while it rejoices in the blessings that have come into its own life as the result of its fidelity.

Within the United States during the three years just closed the Board has made appropriation for the entire or partial support of nineteen bishops and 1,160 missionaries, clerical and lay, working in forty dioceses and nineteen missionary districts. The total amount of these appropriations is $1,277,329.23.

In countries outside the United States the Board has made appropriations for the support of ten bishops, sixty-six foreign clergy, twenty-two foreign lay-workers, 657 native workers, clergy, teachers, catechists, Bible-women and other helpers. The figures given do not include the wives of missionaries, though the Church will know that no members of any mission staff render more devoted service than these. Appropriations for the foreign work for three years amounted to $1,314,023.10.

Since the last meeting of the General Convention ninety-seven new missionaries have been added to the staff of the bishops in foreign lands and in our outlying dependencies. They were distributed as follows: Africa, one; China, thirty-one; Japan, six; Haiti, four; Cuba, six; Mexico, six; Porto Rico, seven; Honolulu, ten; the Philippine Islands, six; Alaska, nineteen; Panama, one.

No definite statement can be made with regard to the missionaries within the United States for obvious reasons.

Both within the United States and in all nations where the American Church is working urgent demand is being made upon the Board for recruits, except in Brazil, where the native Church has progressed so far as to provide practically all the helpers needed by the bishop for carrying on purely parochial work. In all the dependencies the need for men is emphasized by the fact of the singular obligation resting upon the Church to assist the Government in making the peoples competent for the administration of their own affairs. The American Church has more than it realizes to do with deciding when methods characteristic of the old civilizations shall give place to Christian institutions.

The Board has been fortunate during these three years in not having been obliged to decline to send abroad, on account of financial inability, anyone qualified for foreign service, and it would seem that the Church has a right to take for granted that as proper men and women apply to increase the staff of the foreign bishops means will be forthcoming to maintain them. Individuals have now and again made it possible for one to be sent by assuming responsibility for the first year. No doubt others will be ready to emulate their example.

It may be well in this connection to call the Church's attention to the fact that, on account of the small means put at the Board's disposal to meet the Church's obligations in its various missions, the expedient of renting property must often be resorted to. This is not only to be deplored on account of the very considerable amounts expended each year without any return, but because the establishment of the Church in any city enhances the value of the property there, so that when at last the Church is obliged to purchase, it often happens that more money has to be paid for less desirable property than might have been secured if the land had been purchased in the first place. It would be well if the Church could see from this that both economy and efficiency would be conserved if more generous means were put at the Board's disposal.

In every place where the Church is doing work the disposition to self-help is increasing, so that there is good hope that when the churches become established the righteousness of self-support will be a recognized principle with them. This is illustrated by many instances which might be cited. It might also tempt the Church to be more generous in providing for the first expenses of entering upon new work, not only in order that the opportunity for growth might be greater, but in order that the men and women who have devoted themselves might have the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts would not be hindered by lack of that which a little money might provide.

It might be well to call the Church's attention to the large opportunity now presented to those who may desire to invest money in considerable amounts for the benefit of other people. The growth of the colleges in Tokyo and Shanghai and Wuchang has been so rapid as to make the present equipment altogether inadequate, while their very growth indicates the increasing consciousness on the part of the people of the value these institutions are to the nations. Additional land for proper buildings requires large amounts, each one of these colleges needing at least $150,000, and it is to be questioned whether the same amount of money spent in any part of the work would be more certain to be of lasting blessing to the people on whose behalf the offering was made. Nor in speaking of these should it be supposed that the Board would ignore demands for lesser amounts to establish the Church in centres from which may radiate the influences that make for Christian civilization and for the spiritual blessing of the people.

The only change in the elected membership of the Board since the last General Convention has been the election of the Rev. Herman Page, D.D., in place of the Rev. Charles D. Williams, D.D., who was consecrated Bishop of Michigan.

Among the ex-officio members there have been the following changes: The Right Rev. William E. McLaren, D.D., Bishop of Chicago, died February 19, 1905; the Right Rev. Alfred A. Watson, D.D., Bishop of East Carolina, died April 21st, 1905; the Right Rev. Thomas Frederick Davies, D.D., Bishop of Michigan, died November 9th, 1905; the Right Rev. Benjamin Wistar Morris, D.D., Bishop of Oregon, died April 8th, 1906; the Right Rev. Samuel Isaac J. Schereschewsky, D.D., retired Bishop of China, died October 15th, 1906; the Right Rev. Isaac Lea Nicholson, D.D., Bishop of Milwaukee, died October 29th, 1906; the Right Rev. George Franklin Seymour, D.D., Bishop of Springfield, died December 8th, 1906.

There were added by consecration: The Right Rev. Edward W. Osborne, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Springfield, consecrated October 23d, 1904; the Right Rev. Robert Strange, D.D., Bishop of East Carolina, consecrated November 1st, 1904; the Right Rev. Logan H. Roots, D.D., Bishop of Hankow, consecrated November 14th, 1904; the Right Rev. Franklin S. Spalding, D.D., Bishop of Salt Lake, consecrated December 14th, 1904; the Right Rev. Henry D. Aves, D.D., Bishop of Mexico, consecrated December 14th, 1904; the Right Rev. Albion W. Knight, D.D., Bishop of Cuba, consecrated December 21st, 1904; the Right Rev. Charles E. Woodcock, D.D., Bishop of Kentucky, consecrated January 25th, 1905; the Right Rev. James H. Darlington, D.D., Bishop of Harrisburg, consecrated April 26th, 1905; the Right Rev. Frederick Foote Johnson, D.D., Assistant Bishop of South Dakota, consecrated November 2d, 1905; the Right Rev. Charles D. Williams, D.D., Bishop of Michigan, consecrated February 7th, 1906; the Right Rev. Edward Melville Parker, D.D., Coadjutor Bishop of New Hampshire, consecrated February 9th, 1906; the Right Rev. John Newton McCormick, D.D., Bishop of Western Michigan, consecrated February 14th, 1906; the Right Rev. William Walter Webb, D.D., Bishop of Milwaukee, consecrated February 24th, 1906; the Right Rev. Charles Scadding, Bishop of Oregon, consecrated September 29th, 1906; the Right Rev. Beverly Dandridge Tucker, D.D., Coadjutor Bishop of Southern Virginia, consecrated October 3d, 1906.

In the death of Bishop Schereschewsky the Church has lost perhaps its most singular example of fortitude and fidelity. No one knowing of the patient earnestness with which he persisted in the work to which he felt himself called, and remembering the suffering from which he was never free and the physical disability against which he constantly contended, could fail to be inspired to a higher purpose and more unselfish devotion to duty. When he was released from his suffering he had received the reward that was his due in knowing that he had completed the task to which he had devoted himself, of providing the Scriptures in its own tongue for the Chinese Empire. In years to come, Bishop Schereschewsky will be to the Church in China what Wycliffe is to the English-speaking people.

The creation of the Missionary District of Mexico by the last General Convention has issued in large benefit to the Church and to the people there. For the first time in its long struggle for life the Church in Mexico seems to give promise of vigorous growth, and, indeed, today the Church in America has it within its power to determine how quickly all of Mexico shall receive the Revelation intrusted to the Church, since the appeals for teachers that come to Bishop Aves are far and away beyond any possibility of response, unless the Church is willing to give liberally of its sons to help him.

What has been said of Mexico can be said with equal accuracy of the Church in Cuba, where Bishop Knight has found many people in many places waiting to welcome the Church's simplicity. There, also, it remains for the Church in America to decide how long it will be before the Church in Cuba may share the liberty and blessing in which itself rejoices. Bishop Knight has been much helped by the generous gifts of individuals who have made possible the erection of a central church building in Havana.

At the last General Convention that strip of territory acquired by the United States from the Republic of Panama by treaty, and known as the Canal Zone, was placed under the Presiding Bishop with a suggestion that arrangements be made to send a missionary into that territory. The Bishop of Washington was appointed commissary to the Presiding Bishop in the Canal Zone, and at its meeting in March, 1905, the Board made appropriation for the necessary expenses of a missionary to be sent there. This appropriation was renewed in 1906 and 1907, but it was not until the summer of 1907, when the Venerable Henry B. Bryan, of the Diocese of Long Island, offered himself to the Board, that active steps could be taken to carry out the will of the Church.

At the time of the disaster that befell the city of San Francisco the Board of Missions was enabled to be of material assistance to the Diocese of California in lending its aid in securing funds necessary to support it in its time of sore need. The response of the Church at that time to the appeal that went out from the Board on behalf of that diocese is one of the great causes that the Church has for gratitude to the Giver of all good. A statement concerning the amounts received for the relief of the Church in San Francisco will be found in the treasurer's report.

In connection with the work of the Church among the black people in the South, the Board has seen fit, under authority given it at the General Convention, to incorporate under the laws of Virginia the American Church Institute for Negroes, with a view to strengthening the institutions maintained by the Church for the advancement of that portion of our population. This Institute has already been able to strengthen the work under its special care considerably, and it is believed that it will prove effective for the purpose of its incorporation.

In pursuance to the action of the General Convention the Missionary Districts of Montana and Western Texas have become dioceses, and thus again the Church has token of the profit accruing from its care for the brethren who are weak.

A matter of no less interest to the Church was the deliberate relinquishment in June, 1905, by the Diocese of West Virginia and the Diocese of Marquette of any further assistance from the Board of Missions in carrying forward its missionary operations among white people.

A like incident in the history of the Church in South Dakota ought to be noted, when, in December, 1904, it voluntarily relinquished $500 per annum toward the support of its bishop.

Perhaps the most important single event during the last three years was the final arrangement by which the American Church Missionary Society transferred its work in Cuba and Brazil to the Board of Missions, so that hereafter there will be no divided front, but the whole Church will work together to extend the knowledge of the truth committed to it. The American Church Missionary Society, of course, continues as a corporation, and an earnest of its long and faithful service remains in the missionaries who are maintained by the income from its invested funds and by the offerings which still come to it.

Naturally, the matter that has been most in the thought of the Church since the last General Convention has been the decision to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the Church in America by an offering to express its gratitude to Almighty God for the mercies and benefits vouchsafed to it. Wisely it was agreed that the men in the Church were to have the privilege of themselves presenting this offering, and so make declaration before the world that those upon whom the nation depends for its material prosperity are the same company to whom the Christ looks for the establishment of His Kingdom in the earth. The campaign of education that has been necessary in order that the mind of the Church might be brought to the attention of every individual male communicant within its borders has in a unique way emphasized the obligation of baptized people to the trust the Incarnate One laid upon us, and while there is no question that the work of the Church will receive a strong impetus from the material offerings that will be made at this Convention, greater benefit and blessing will accrue from the new apprehension by the men of the Church of the obligation resting upon their manhood.

The committee having this matter in charge, and to whom the Church is indebted for the very great benefit accruing, is composed of the Bishop Coadjutor of New York, George W. Pepper, Esq., of Philadelphia, and the treasurer of the Board. Their General Secretary has been the Rev. H. R. Hulse, to whose untiring devotion is due much of the good that has resulted from the labor of the committee.

An interesting incident was marked by the presence of William G. Low, Esq., as the representative of your Board of Missions at the laying of the corner-stone of the new building of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, on April 27, 1907. This was of particular interest to the American Church in view of the very great debt it owes to that Society in preserving the Church in America in the days of its weakness.

At the conference of the Anglican bishops at Shanghai in March, 1907, a happy conclusion was brought to the long correspondence between the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Presiding Bishop of this Church with regard to Episcopal jurisdiction in the Diocese of Shanghai. At the conference above mentioned this question was finally and happily settled by the recognition of the prior claim of the American bishop to jurisdiction within this diocese, and agreement was entered into by which the peace of the Church is finally guarded against confusion. At the same conference steps were taken looking to a conference whose purpose shall be the organization of the Church of China, so that the conference at Shanghai will forever be a notable day in the annals of that empire.

In September, 1905, the Board of Missions took action to have St. John's College at Shanghai incorporated as St. John's University, and the Bishop of Washington, with the Rev. Drs. McKim and Eccleston and Messrs. George C. Thomas and George W. Pepper, were designated to sign the certificate and to attend the first meeting of the trustees in the city of Washington.

In the spring of 1906 members of the Board of Missions graciously made it possible for the General Secretary to visit the missions in foreign lands maintained by this Church, and the Board appointed the Rev. R. F. Alsop, D.D., to go with him. Together they visited the missions in the Philippines, China, Japan, and Honolulu, bringing back the report that not half had been told of all the good work that has been accomplished by the devoted men and women who have given themselves to the Church that it might fulfil its Mission to the peoples. Through the courtesy of the bishop and the Cathedral Chapter, the Rev. Hugh L. Burluson, dean of the cathedral at Fargo, N. D., rendered the officers of the Board efficient assistance in New York during the absence of the General Secretary.

At its meeting in November, 1905, the Board, acting under the canon adopted by the General Convention of 1904, appointed three department secretaries who might give their whole time to the work of the Board within their departments. While sufficient time has not elapsed to test this policy perfectly, the results already attained seem to justify the Board's act and to indicate that the appointment in the near future of other like secretaries will be required.

In the Third, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Departments missionary conferences have been regularly held which have been well attended and where the work intrusted to the Board of Missions has been carefully canvassed and discussed, with the result of a constantly increasing interest and growing sense of responsibility to the same on the part of the dioceses represented.

In the other departments it has seemed more expedient to hold local conferences to the same end, but less general in character, which have seemed to be of great practical service.

An interesting development in the Church during the past three years has been the Laymen's Forward Movement, which had its beginning in 1904 on the initiative of the Rev. Dr. Clark, then secretary of the Fifth Department. Within this department several conferences of this Movement have been held. It would be well for the Church if this Movement were extended throughout its borders, thus helping the men of the Church to realize more fully that the obligation for the Church's extension rests with themselves, and not with their wives and children.

The new departure in the work which was intrusted to the Educational Secretary has grown, as it was expected to do, but more rapidly, until now, together with the Publication Department, the present force is inadequate to do all that might be done for the Church. Under the direction of the Rev. Everett P. Smith, the Educational Secretary, study classes have been organized in forty-one dioceses to the number of 210. Diocesan secretaries have been appointed in two dioceses, and it is to be hoped that before the Convention meets again every diocese will have its secretary whose obligation it will be to see to it that in every parish the progress of God's Kingdom is systematically studied. It is expected that the department secretaries will be largely efficient in accomplishing this most desirable end, and it is commended to the bishops and the parish clergy as perhaps the most efficient service they can render in helping the Church to attain a right view of the work committed to it.

The Board has steadily endeavored to keep the Church informed of the progress of its Mission. The Spirit of Missions has maintained its high standard as a magazine, and appreciation of it has been shown by an increasing subscription list, though this might be multiplied many times once the parish clergy feel their responsibility for the conduct of the Church's Mission. According to the uniform practice of the Board, this magazine goes free of charge to all the clergy of the Church, so that they, without exception, know how much more it is worth than the small subscription price it is necessary to charge.

has been a little less than eight and one-half per cent. ($8\frac{1}{2}\%$) of the

The Young Christian Soldier is distributed in many Sunday-schools, and many thousand pages of literature have been distributed for the Church's information.

The progress which the American Church is making everywhere brings into glaring prominence the lack of men for the ministry, due primarily no doubt to the fact that parents and pastors are unable to withstand the tremendous pressure brought to bear upon young men by the ever-increasing calls for service in other departments of the world's work. That it is a passing phase must be true, since the need of God's Church is but prophecy that it will be supplied. At the same time it has been found necessary to resort to special measures to bring the needs of the Church for men to do her work before the colleges, and to impress upon those in the seminaries the urgent call for men where the foundations are being laid. This work has been done with zeal and efficiency by the Church Students' Missionary Association. The Church is to be congratulated upon having so devoted a body of young men engaged on her behalf.

That the Church should solemnly bring a thank-offering to this Convention is most fit, and the Board, with profound gratitude, declares to the Church that in so far as the progress of its Mission is the test of the Church's fidelity, there is every reason to render thanksgiving to God in that He has put it into the hearts of His people to show their appreciation of the blessings with which He has enriched His Church and our Nation, by an increasingly earnest and intelligent purpose, not only to bring those blessings to the multitude that are filling up our own land, but to carry them on to the peoples who have not heard of the Redemption. It is impossible to believe that the offering will stop with the presentation of gold upon His altar. Men will be moved more and more to give themselves to accomplish that which now they have given of their plenty to maintain.

Besides the officers of the Board, all the returned missionaries have been unremitting in their effort to make known the condition of the various missions of the Church. That their efforts have been efficient seems to be shown in the increasing intelligence with which parishes meet their apportionment of the common expense. While in some places this seems to be still regarded as a tax laid upon them for operations in which they are not concerned, there is increasing recognition in the Church that the Board of Missions is really the Church's agent appointed to enable them to meet their obligation. From this point of view alone the wisdom of the Church seems to be demonstrated in adopting the policy of apportioning to the various dioceses and missionary districts the amount necessary to carry on the Church's missionary operations, and it is believed that once it is fairly understood that the Church's Mission was committed to the Church and not to the Board of Missions, there will be no further trouble in meeting its financial obligations, at least on the small scale on which that work is carried forward at present.

The appropriations for current work during the fiscal year amounted to $950,732. In addition, deficits from previous years, amounting in gross to $74,399.71, covered for the time being by the Reserve Deposits, made the full amount required for the year $1,025,131.71.

The income, especially with reference to the Apportionment Plan, can best be shown by the following table:

INCOME	MINIMUM AMOUNT ASKED FOR	EXCESS OF INCOME OVER MINIMUM ASKED FOR		FAILURE OF INCOME TO REACH MINIMUM ASKED FOR
Offerings from Congregations... $369,417 68
Offerings from Individuals..... 97,559 07
	$466,976 75	$656,675 00		$189,698 25
Offerings from Sunday-schools..... 136,266 70	140,000 00			3,733 30
Offerings from Woman's Auxiliary..... 137,904 73	100,000 00	$37,904 73
Interest from invested funds..... 63,073 97	50,000 00	13,073 97
From miscellaneous items..... 4,338 45	No estimate	4,338 45
Total.....	$808,565 60	$946,675 00	$55,322 15	$193,431 55
Net failure of income to reach minimum asked for.....				$138,109 40

To the income from living donors, as shown in the foregoing table, should be added $78,105.54 in legacies, so that the total income at the discretion of the Board to meet its appropriations was $886,671.14. This amount was $64,060.86 less than the appropriations for current work, which, added to the deficiency of September 1st a year ago, places the deficiency at $138,460.57 for September 1st, 1907.

The legacies for the last fiscal year for use at the discretion of the Board were unusually large, and it is evident that their help was most timely. Experience has shown that it is unwise for the Board to place dependence upon legacies for the purpose of meeting its appropriations. They inevitably vary greatly from year to year. The Board looks forward confidently to the time when the offerings from living donors will meet all current charges, so that legacies may be used for advance work and for the better equipment of the mission plant.

The Board has been greatly gratified by the loyal response of the Church to the growing needs of the missions. Since the adoption of the Apportionment Plan each year, even that just closed, has shown a decided gain in the offerings from congregations and individuals. To indicate how great this gain has been, it is only necessary to point out that for the fiscal year ending August 31st, 1901, immediately before the adoption of the Apportionment Plan, the offerings from individuals and congregations applicable upon the appropriations were $235,993.81. For the fiscal year ending August 31st, 1906, the income from the same sources and for the same purpose was $487,255.02. This year it was $466,976.75. The gain in the number of congregations now giving for Church extension through the Board of Missions is equally notable.

With the rapid growth in the Church's work at home and abroad, the necessity for an increase in the working capital provided by these Reserve Deposits becomes more urgent. It is highly desirable that the amount now drawn from these deposits to meet the present deficit should be restored, and that the total of the deposits should be increased to at least $500,000. The reason for this will be obvious when it is remembered that in the first six months of this past year the appropriations were $475,000, while the contributions were only $275,000. The Reserve Deposits were provided to help tide over just such a period. The order was, in establishing these deposits, that all amounts temporarily withdrawn from them during the year should be returned thereto before the close of the fiscal year, if possible. It is a matter of the most vital importance that the Reserve Deposits should be fully restored at the earliest practicable moment.

The total amount passing through the Board's treasury during the fiscal year was $1,301,228.88.

The cost of administering the world-wide enterprises of the Church has been a little less than eight and one-half per cent. (8½%) of the total amount passing through the treasury.

The Woman's Auxiliary has maintained its record of many years of helpful service. The offerings of its members to aid the Board in meeting the appropriations totalled $77,554.15, or about the same as the previous year.

During the last three years the offerings of its members in meeting the appropriations of the Board have amounted to $214,359.11. To this has been added $148,862.07, income and sums withdrawn from United Offerings, making a total of $363,221.18, of the Board's appropriations, given by the Woman's Auxiliary since September, 1904. It has thus been greatly aided in maintaining and extending the work by women on behalf of women all over the world.

Once again the Sunday-school Auxiliary has responded heartily to the Board's request for aid. Its offerings for the year amounted to $137,914.43 from 3,807 schools. For the three years its offerings have amounted to $396,911.99. It is impossible for the Board to express its full appreciation of these offerings from the children of the Church. The Rev. Herman L. Duhring, D.D., has continued his effective work as the special agent of the Sunday-school Auxiliary.

Confident that God will continue to bless His Church and to make more and more efficient the means it uses for the advancement of His Kingdom, the Board herewith submits to the General Convention the record of its stewardship.

By order, and in behalf of, the Board of Missions.

APPENDIX III.

TWELFTH TRIENNIAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE FUND FOR THE RELIEF OF WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED CLERGYMEN, AND OF AGED, INFIRM AND DISABLED CLERGYMEN.

Under the blessing of God the Trustees have been able to exceed even the goodly accomplishments reported at the last Convention.

Then they reported about 45 Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions as having either merged with the General Fund or as having appointed Committees to that end.

Now they report 61 divisions of the Church as depending entirely upon the General Clergy Relief Fund for pensions and relief.

To the last Convention they reported 447 beneficiaries as having received pension and relief; this Convention they report 538.

Last Convention the highest annuity paid was $300; this Convention, $500.

Last Convention the total receipts amounted to $220,692.50; this Convention, $325,325.47.

This does not include pledges for between sixty and seventy thousand dollars nor forty-six thousand dollars in legacies soon to be paid.

Last Convention about $100,000 was reported as appropriated to annuitants; this Convention, $144,000.

Last Convention they reported $100,000 added to the Permanent Fund; this Convention they report $138,000.

Last Convention the clause of the Canon making all clergymen upon reaching the age of 64 eligible "to share in the benefits of the Fund," without regard to disability or locality or payments or any other limitations save age and years of honorable service, had been urged, but not acted upon.

This Convention the Trustees report over $60,000 as received or pledged specifically for pensions at 64; while as a matter of fact one-third of the clergy on the list of pensioners today are over the age of 64 and receiving more than $60,000 as old age pension.

Last Convention they reported the Permanent Funds as amounting to about $200,000; this year they are over $350,000.

The work is of large proportions; there must therefore be no uncertainty or failure of income, for this will mean great suffering and distress.

This year only about one-fourth of the clergy and one-fifth of the churches complied with the recommendations of the General Convention as to an annual offering and a percentage of the Communion alms.

Fortunately, under the providence of God, loyal Churchmen and women had given legacies and bequests to the General Clergy Relief Fund, but there is danger in such lack of participation on the part of the clergy and the churches, because legacies and bequests are irregular and uncertain.

The Trustees plead for more systematic participation, not more legislation, nor more machinery, nor intermediary societies, nor auxiliaries; but contributors participating in the simple, excellent plan of annual appeals and offerings in the churches, which also serve to make the cause known and to bring bequests.

The obligations of the Trustees have become so large and serious that they must claim the cordial support of all the clergy and laity in doing this most vital and necessary work. Any falling off and neglect means decrease and uncertainty in the pension, upon which so many devoted Christian men and women now depend entirely for support.

A diversion of funds to special cases or to special dioceses by reason of some unusual sentiment or sudden interest ought not to be possible.

It is therefore necessary for the administrative body to be in control of offerings and resources without middle agencies and to possess complete records of all clergy relief in the Church, so that the work may be done with intelligence and in the best and most efficient way.

Divided and indefinite responsibility is contrary to modern business methods and the forward movement.

Scattered offerings are wasteful and inefficient. Additional organizations and auxiliaries for the same purpose are inexpedient and confusing. Let us avoid conditions from which we have with difficulty been extricating ourselves. Simplicity and large inclusiveness are characteristics of the General Clergy Relief Fund which should be earnestly maintained.

We repeat what we have said before:

"The General Clergy Relief Fund applies no tests, attaches no conditions, requires no payments or membership dues, admits of no forfeiture, but offers its benefits to all clergymen of the Church who may be disabled whether by age or infirmity and to the families of all clergymen who die in the Communion of the Church." So far as the Church has permitted the Trustees to be generous, this ideal has been followed.

The duty and responsibility and future growth of clergy relief and pension we believe therefore has been admirably covered in Canon 53. It plans for an united effort on the part of the whole Church to solve the problem of pension and relief as broadly and inclusively as possible.

No plan should include requirements which would render benefits forfeitable.

No plan should be limited to a portion of the clergy, nor be non-applicable to the whole body of the clergy of the Church and their widows and orphans. The requirement of dues or fees would make ineligible a large number of the most faithful, laborious and patient men of the Church. Physical examination as a requirement is out of the question.

Any plan should observe the equities. All officers of the Church should be absolutely upon the same basis of eligibility.

In the matter of pensions at the age of 64, the ideal of both equity and grace is realized in the Canon. All clergymen at this age, simply by right of years of honorable service, are to receive a pension or annuity viewed as compensation for work already done.

No plan of pension and relief should conflict with the call of a faithful soldier of the Cross to go wherever need and duty require in the Church. In other words, locality should not imperil a man's right to pension and relief; neither should a premium be placed upon sojourn in opulent dioceses.

Finally, any plan should be free from undue ecclesiastical influence in making grants, in order that prejudice and localism and small estimate of worth and work may not hinder justice and equity. There should be large liberty of action and large generosity in act on the part of the Church in this matter.

It is the conviction of the Trustees that the national and official society of the Church fulfils these requirements in the freest and most generous manner.

The desire of the Trustees is that without revolution or cessation of interest the Church may be educated to new ideals and new views of her duty and opportunity under God in this matter of pension and relief, and that, thus still working on the basis of the old and liberal plan, a new interest and generosity may be inspired, which shall be better than the old and yet possess all its splendid virtues.

If we live up to our ideals of what should be done in the matter of pension, and constantly remind ourselves of the duty and the need, the work will soon and easily be accomplished. If we shrink from the responsibility and the duty, as too many times we have, and count the cost, and worse still allow selfishness and localism to hold the first place in our work; by just so much will this great work, and the Church, be retarded. All too frequently the Church has failed to follow the altruistic impulse, sometimes even when that would have cost so little and would have attained to so much.

To use the phrase of St. Paul: "We have not yet attained" to the highest in our thought of the whole Church as a whole accomplishing results and putting an end to injustice and suffering.

The Church in this matter can be one in loving active service. The spirit of Christ is the spirit that binds human beings together, and its essence is love. The Church as a whole can show forth this spirit of love by united, unselfish effort in doing this practical service for her servants, sick and old. Selfish considerations as to local accumulations or interests ought not to hold a place in the hearts of Churchmen for one moment in face of this opportunity of showing forth the spirit of Christ. But the altruistic and brotherly method as over against the commercial and local and selfish method of providing for the disability and old age of the clergy is growing. In unity and co-operation not only do men see strength, but wisdom and success and the Christlike spirit.

There is, for generous Churchmen and Churchwomen, opportunity for good without parallel in the purposes of the National Fund.

A large gift, at interest, would lift the ordinary work of the society up to a basis of adequacy and dignity, and make not only the widow's heart sing for joy, and bring relief and freedom from corroding anxiety to the sick and infirm among the clergy, but it would react upon the Church and fill the hearts of the workers with courage and hope in all hard places.

"And the King shall answer and say unto them, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me."

No man or woman making such a gift can possibly foresee the other splendid beneficial results that would follow.

In this period of great material prosperity when God is blessing the people abundantly a most active effort ought to be made to solve this problem of pension and relief by a generous endowment.

In making wills remember this sacred cause. Contributions will be held as "Memorial Funds" if so desired. Such gifts will continue to do good through all time to come.

Death has removed from loving association and dependence upon the fund many venerable saints and mothers in Israel. The mortality is large and as respects those that remain it furnishes the solemn warning: "What we do for these must be done quickly." Those indeed have gone to their reward, but still there remain to be cared for many of God's best beloved who have carried the burdens of others and brought light to many a darkened home. Some are traveling through strangely painful experiences. Would that we had sufficient to minister to our Lord, in the persons of His servants, who are wrapped in night and anxiety, waiting in some cases only to be released.

The Church as a whole might well assume the whole maintenance of at least every one of its Missionaries with the right to send them wherever their work can be best applied. It does this to a great extent and therefore as in the army and navy a man's support ought to be assured in sickness and in health, for better or for worse as to age and efficiency, until death breaks the bond.

A blessing or a curse will surely follow dutiful obedience or penurious disregard of the Lord's ordinance that "they who preach the Gospel shall live of the Gospel."

This is one of the most specific ways in which the members of the Church can testify their personal love for Christ and the Church. "He that receiveth you, receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth Him sent me."

The Church insists, as is right, upon obedience and loyalty on the part of clergy, and for the securing of this she provides by certain fundamental laws. The inducement of loving reward and generous support might well be tried more largely.

Corporations, railroads, manufacturing establishments, governments are reaching out the hand of reward in pension and relief on a larger and still larger scale. The whole matter is looked upon, as it should be, as an inducement toward loyalty and a reward of loyal service, and not a piece of pauperism.

Men who do not need the money are glad of the official testimony to their faithfulness and rectitude.

The Trustees believe that not only have they served the Church in collecting and distributing funds, but that they have awakened a larger interest in the question of adequate salaries and the duty of pension and relief.

Sitting at the center of things in these matters, much information has come to them.

To their personal knowledge some of the bishops go sore-hearted every day of their lives because of the undeserved privations to which their old clergy are subjected. Some of them, as the Trustees happen to know, likewise of their own knowledge, are straining every nerve to help their poorer brethren.

The average salary paid throughout the Church is undoubtedly so small as to be a matter of humiliation, and the cost of living is one-third greater today than it was six years ago. It is difficult for a large number of the clergy of the Church to live decently and provide for the necessities of life.

And yet a competent supply of competent workmen competently paid and competently pensioned is necessary to the existence and progress of the Church.

We cannot create funds by passing resolutions. The only way to get dollars out of the treasury is to put dollars in. The General Convention has provided wise and liberal machinery; it has asked for an annual offering and a portion of the Communion Alms, and yet only about one-fourth of the clergy and one-fifth of the churches have complied this year with the recommendations of the General Convention.

Constantly we are asked to do larger and better things and sometimes the grants of two and three hundred dollars per year are spoken of slightly, and yet there are not a half dozen churches that give two or three hundred dollars a year, and two or three hundred dollars a year for ten years means two or three thousand dollars to one person, and to a list of only four hundred beneficiaries means eight hundred thousand or one million two hundred thousand dollars respectively.

That an urgent necessity exists for prompt and efficient action on the part of the Church to make suitable provision for those who have become worn out in her service and for their dependent families as a matter of right and justice cannot for a moment be questioned. Facts of the most painfully interesting nature, which are constantly coming under the notice of those who are immediately concerned with this matter; facts which speak in simple but eloquent language, telling the sad story of disease, privation, poverty and helplessness, might be collected in volumes. Could some of these sad pictures from real life be spread before this Convention, no eye could look upon them without a tear; no heart could contemplate them without deep emotion.

It has been said that "the minister of Christ who offers himself to the Church as her servant for Jesus' sake has no right to expect in that service worldly distinction or large emoluments." But he has a right to expect that while he ministers to God's people in spiritual things they will not forget to minister to him in temporal things. The Church is not always aware of the extent of the capital which the ministry invests in her service and which produces to them personally such a meagre and insufficient return. The minister not only gives himself, his body, mind, soul, time, talents and labors, but he actually invests no inconsiderable amount of capital of another sort in the service of the Church. To qualify himself for the sacred office he needs to devote at least ten years of life to the academical, collegiate and theological departments of education, and that at no inconsiderable pecuniary expenditure.

What has he received in return for his labors, his tears, his anxieties, his mental toils, his lifelong devotion of himself to the interests of the Church?

Who can estimate the worth of his life to the Church and to the world? What have the contributions been worth which he has made to the most enduring part of the literature of the world? What have the sympathies been worth which have been drawn from his heart's deep stores by the hundreds of tried and endangered souls?

What are the ten thousand varied and diversified labors of the ministry in behalf of every interest of this life and that which is to come worth to the world?

The Church then should consider it her solemn duty at once to take energetic action on two points: the more adequate support of her living and laboring ministry and a liberal and just provision for those who are disabled and for their dependent families. If the average salaries of her ministers were doubled at once she would not surpass the measure of their necessities and her obligations. Why should the minister of God be the only man in the community who shall not be allowed to lay by something from his hard-earned means for the future wants of those who are dear to him? Why should he in addition to the other trials necessarily incident to his calling be compelled to walk through life's journey with the dark shadow of a dependent old age or a helpless family always brooding over his path?

The Trustees sometimes feel that there are dioceses and individuals who accept and demand all the comforts and advantages of the General Fund without assuming any of the responsibilities and duties. There are others again who take issue with us as to their own limitations and are not aware of it in their complaints.

The boundary line between pension and relief in case of disability, through sickness or old age, and the supplementing of salaries, in places where the people of the Parish or Mission are neglecting their duty, is not always recognized. To divert the Fund to sustentation would encourage all parties concerned in the neglect of their duty and responsibility. The General Clergy Relief Fund is not a Sustentation Fund.

Explanations and statements and reports are published constantly for the information of the Church, but it is only necessary to look over old journals to see how easily the Church forgets both her duty, her purpose and the needs.

We again call attention to the fact that all Trust Funds and Securities are carefully deposited in one of the strongest Trust Companies in New York City and that the Assistant Treasurer is bonded, and that every measure has been taken to secure and insure thorough financial solidity.

The details of office and clerical work which were considered large three years ago have almost doubled in quantity and volume today, while the expenses of administration have been less than nine per cent. The payment of additional pension, annuity and relief, together with the mailing, bookkeeping, records, royalties, acknowledgment of contributions, circularizing, advertising, financial statements and reports to each of the merged dioceses, correspondence, are an indication of some of the details. The letters alone have amounted to over fifteen thousand during the past year.

In their last report to the General Convention the Trustees said:

"While the Trustees do not desire to even seem to obstruct the devotional exercises of any of the organizations of Church workers yet they feel they ought to safeguard the interests of the whole Church in the matter of the use and abuse of the Hymnal. Increasingly the book as authorized by the General Convention is being broken up into portions and reprints without critical supervision and careful proof-reading.

"The Trustees believe that the General Convention will not be inclined to relieve them of their responsibility inasmuch as the licensing and safe-guarding of the book has been placed in their hands; at the same time they realize that the matter is a delicate one and that it is desirable to avoid misunderstanding.

"The General Convention of 1880 denied the petition of certain Churchwomen asking permission to print selections of hymns for the following reasons:

"First.—That, if granted, any other body of Church people might make a similar request with regard to certain other of the hymns, and that thereby confusion might be created throughout our Churches, and uniformity be destroyed, and

"Secondly.—Because it would seriously interfere with the present arrangement between the "Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen," etc., and the publishers of the Hymnal, by which a royalty is secured for the purposes of said Fund."

"It seems to the Trustees that the case is a precedent, and analogous, but that certain other bodies of Church people, without making request, with regard to 'certain other of the Hymns,' are now violating the principle there laid down.

"The Trustees suggest that the cheap edition of the Hymnal itself be loyally used at all services, with a service leaf inserted, if desired, which would be more economical, or else that a license be obtained as is required from all other publishers of the Hymnal. Such requirement is in the interest of the order, justice and uniformity the Hymnal Committee and the General Convention have tried to safeguard, and would not endanger the value of the copyright."

A new emphasis needs to be laid upon what was said at that time. It was evidently the purpose of the Church, through the Hymnal Commission and the Board of Trustees, to protect the Hymnal and to supervise the publication of hymns used by the Church. It is not a question of copyright or royalties alone, but of authorized and acceptable and trustworthy publication.

To permit any one and every one to publish as many hymns as they please, less the regular number in the Hymnal, and without the license and authority of the General Convention, is not just to the regular publishers of the Hymnal who pay a royalty, and it is not fair to the General Clergy Relief Fund Trustees in doing a work which touches deeply the heart of the Church and which depends upon the royalty to pay expenses.

We again urge upon merged dioceses the necessity for diocesan committees or boards or secretaries in order to stimulate local interest and render reports of offerings and appropriations and needs, these to be published in each diocesan journal.

We believe that a General Clergy Relief Fund Board or Committee or Secretary should have a place in all diocesan reports and among the records of boards and committees in journals precisely as other committees are there noticed and reported.

This would help your Trustees to systematize the practical administration of the work and at the same time would emphasize the duty and responsibility of the clergy and laity in forming, educating and making the administration of affairs thoroughly business-like and effective.

During the last three years itemized and detailed reports were sent out to all merged dioceses for their information and help.

This Message would be incomplete if reference were not made to the untiring energy and faithfulness of the Financial Agent and Assistant Treasurer.

The increased interest throughout the Church, and the encouraging report which the Trustees are enabled to make, are very largely due to his intelligence and devotion.

INSTRUCTION.

The changes in the teaching staff during the past three years are, briefly, as follows:

The Rev. F. B. Blodgett was appointed Instructor in the Departments of Dogmatic Theology and of the Interpretation of the New Testament, and the Rev. Arthur P. Hunt, Instructor in Ethics, for the year 1904-5, and they have continued to give instruction with marked success ever since, and have been reappointed for the year 1907-8.

In September, 1904, the serious illness of the Rev. Dr. Body made it necessary for the Board to grant him leave of absence for a year in the hope that at the end of that time he might be able to resume his duties as Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the Old Testament. This hope, however, proved futile, and in March, 1906, they were obliged, with real regret, to retire him on a pension. Dr. Body's work was provided for in September, 1904, by the appointment of the Rev. Dr. L. W. Batten as locum tenens in that Department, and this arrangement has continued up to the present time, and has been renewed for the coming year. Dr. Batten's work has proved most helpful and inspiring, and his influence in the Seminary has been extremely beneficial.

In October, 1904, the Rev. Dr. Cady resigned his work as Sub-Dean, and the Rev. Dr. Roper was elected to fill the vacancy.

At a special meeting, held March 26, 1906, the Rev. Dr. I. T. Beckwith resigned the "Glorvina Rossell Hoffman" Professorship of the Literature and Interpretation of the New Testament, to which chair the Rev. Charles C. Edmunds was elected, in his place, May 29, 1906. Professor Edmunds has taken up his work during the last academic year with enthusiasm and ability, and the influence of his personality has been felt for good throughout the Seminary.

On May 29, 1906, the Rev. Charles Norman Shepard was elected Professor of Hebrew and Cognate Languages. Professor Shepard has done peculiarly effective work as Instructor in this department for a number of years, and his election as Professor insures the efficiency of the work in Semitic languages.

The Rev. Harold F. Hamilton has served as Instructor in Greek during the past year, a function made necessary by the constantly increasing number of students who come to the Seminary from the Universities without a knowledge of Greek.

The friends of the Seminary must seriously regret the retirement of those members of the Faculty who have left, but it may safely be said that never has the institution been so fortunate in its teaching staff as it is at the present time.

LECTURES.

The Paddock Lectures have been duly delivered, as follows:

1904-5. The Rt. Rev. Charles H. Brent, D.D., Bishop of the Philippines, on "The Incarnation and National Life."

1905-6. The Rev. James H. Woods, of Harvard University, on "Comparative Religion."

1906-7. The Rev. Dr. Inge, Lady Margaret Professor in Divinity in Cambridge University, on "Personal Idealism and Mysticism."

Besides these formal courses, a glance at the printed Proceedings of the Trustees, appended to this report, will show long lists of other lectures, addresses and instructions, given before the students by laymen and clergymen on many different timely topics. This side of the Seminary life, which places the student in touch with many various aspects of the life of the Church and the State, has been greatly emphasized during the past three years.

NUMBER OF STUDENTS.

1904-5	113
1906-7	129

These figures show a considerable improvement over conditions at the time of the last report, when the general reduction in the number of students of theology, noticed by all seminaries, added to certain specific local influences—beneficial, we believe, in the long run—reduced the number of students to 106.

This increase is more striking than a mere comparison of figures would indicate when one considers that there has been a constantly increasing standard of admission in regard to both scholarship and personality, and that the requirements for promotion and even membership in the various classes have been steadily raised.

THE LIBRARY.

The additions to the Library are:

1905-6,	1531	"

The total number of volumes reported three years ago was 30,281; the number in the Library in May, 1907, was 41,779.

Aside from this material growth in well-selected books, a very radical and efficient re-organization of the Library and its methods has been effected by the Librarian, Mr. E. H. Virgin, whose exhaustive reports in the records of the Proceedings of the Board of Trustees give a revelation of vigorous and painstaking administration in this important department of the Seminary. The Library is now thoroughly modern in equipment and organization, and never before has it been so well prepared to assist the students in their work; but, more than this, the statistics compiled by the Librarian in his report show a really wonderful growth in the actual use of the Library by the students. The development of the Seminar system, and the constant stimulus provided by an intelligent and enthusiastic Faculty has encouraged among the students an increasing use of the sources of knowledge which must be most beneficial.

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To quote from one of the Dean's reports:

"The Missionary Society has come to play so large a part in Seminary life that the record of its work naturally finds place in this report. The Missionary Society is a chapter of the larger organization known as the Church Students' Missionary Association. The object of the Society is to stir up a Missionary spirit among the Seminarians, and to help forward practically the general missionary work of the Church. To this end various agencies are employed. Certain of the students pledge themselves to a short period of intercessory prayer in the Chapel daily. A weekly missionary litany is said. And on the first Wednesday of every month the Eucharist is celebrated with special intention for missions, and the alms are devoted to this object. Once a month there is a short devotional address in the Chapel, on missionary vocation. And on Tuesday nights, at seven o'clock missionary addresses are given in one of the lecture rooms. . . . Certainly there has been a great awakening of interest in the Seminary on the subject of missions."

One of the results of this work has been that a number of the best men in the graduating classes have volunteered for missionary work either at home or in the foreign field.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE OF THE SEMINARY.

Marked improvement is noticeable in the tone of the devotional life of the student body. Without any appeal to the strictly emotional or sentimental religious motives, a deep and general devotional life has been developed by use of the many agencies afforded by the environment of the Seminary. Apart from the daily services and opportunities for and incentives to personal devotion, many sermons, addresses, meditations, instructions and conferences, by the ablest men of every school of thought in the Church, serve to deepen and broaden the religious life of the seminarian.

REVISION OF THE STATUTES.

In May, 1906, a complete revision of the Statutes was effected, based on the exhaustive report of a Committee of the Board of Trustees which had had the subject under consideration for some time. This revision cleared the Statutes of a number of contradictions, inaccuracies, and ambiguous and anachronistic passages, which had crept in with the various particular amendments and additions that had been made from time to time, and furnished the Board with a concise and homogeneous set of rules by which to direct their proceedings. A copy of the revised Statutes is appended to this report.

One who looks at the Seminary from the outside, yet with an accurate knowledge of and a keen interest in its affairs, has reason to feel deep thankfulness for what has been accomplished during the past three years, and great confidence for the future. The development of the elective system, by which a greater flexibility and adaptiveness meets more effectively the various needs of the students of different capacities and preparation; the more accurate and scientific grading of the students, by which each has the chance to develop along the line of least resistance; the increase in active, interested Seminar work, which offers mature methods of study to those seminarians who are fitted to pursue such work to advantage; the extension and better arrangement of the work of various departments, which brings the student more closely in touch with the best modern as well as classical theological thought; the broad catholicity of the general tone of the Seminary; the earnestness and unanimity shown by the Faculty in their endeavor to meet present-day problems and practical difficulties; and the spirit of honest work which pervades the whole Seminary, coupled with a reverent and devout religious earnestness, everywhere apparent, lends confidence to the Board of Trustees as they present their report to the General Convention of the Church.

APPENDIX V.—1.

REPORT OF THE ACTING REGISTRAR.

To the General Convention to be holden on the first Wednesday of October, in the year of our Lord 1907:

The Acting Registrar of the General Convention begs leave to present his report.

No election of a Registrar having been made at the last General Convention, in the manner required by Canon, the undersigned has continued to discharge the necessary duties of the office as Acting Registrar.

Since the presentation of my last report sixteen Bishops have been consecrated. In each case Letters of Consecration have been prepared and signed in duplicate as required by Canon; one copy on parchment has been given to the newly consecrated Bishop, and one on parchment-paper has been filed in the Registrar's office. Copies of the Letters of Consecration accompany this report.

Records of all the Consecrations have been made in the Registry book, and are ready for the signatures of the Bishops who laid on hands. An error having been made in the report of the Deputy Registrar at the Consecration of the Bishop of Quincy, as to the Bishops signing the duplicate original of the Letters of Consecration, the Letters are now presented with the error corrected in the appended note.

I have appointed Deputy Registrars for the several consecrations, on nomination by the Bishops elect, as follows:

The Rev. Carroll Melvin Davis to be Deputy Registrar at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of Springfield; the Rev. Frederick Nash Skinner, at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of East Carolina; the Rev. John James McCook, D.D., at the consecration of the Bishop of Hankow; the Rev. Augustus R. Kieffer, D.D., at the consecration of the Bishop of Salt Lake; the Rev. George L. Crocket, at the consecration of the Bishop of Mexico; the Rev. John Newton McCormick, D.D., at the consecration of the Bishop of Cuba; the Rev. John McCarroll, M.D., at the consecration of the Bishop of Kentucky; the Rev. Henry Christian Swentzel, D.D., at the consecration of the Bishop of Harrisburg; the Rev. George Thomas Linsley, at the consecration of the Bishop Assistant of South Dakota; the Rev. Edward William Worthington, at the consecration of the Bishop of Michigan; the Rev. Daniel Crane Roberts, D.D., at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire; the Rev. Jacob Asbury Register, D.D., at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of Western Michigan; the Rev. Joseph Gayle Hurde Barry, at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of Milwaukee; the Rev. William Bowling Hamilton, at the consecration of the Bishop of Oregon; the Rev. Charles Edward Woodson, at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia; and the Rev. Albert Sidney Thomas, at the consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of South Carolina.

Journals for the current years, and in some cases for earlier years, have been received from the Secretaries of the Dioceses and Districts, either directly or through the Secretary of the House of Deputies, who has kindly given his assistance in the matter; and the catalogue of Journals has been continued and corrected to date. The Bishop of Springfield has very kindly sent every number but one of the seventeen needed to complete the set of Journals of his diocese. Twelve years having passed since any Journals have been bound for the Archives, and the appropriation made at the last Convention warranting the expense, I have had fifty-eight volumes put into plain but sufficiently substantial binding; and more volumes can soon be made ready for the binder, though there is a considerable number of Journals even of later years which have not been sent to the Secretary of the House of Deputies as required by Canon 47.

The Bishop of Vermont has presented to the Archives thirty-three Journals of General Conventions of various dates, the Journals of the Eastern Diocese for 1835, 1836 (two copies), and 1842, and the Journal of Arkansas for 1877. The Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Packard has presented Bishop White's sermon at the consecration of Bishop Parker, Bishop Griswold's address at the tenth Convention of the Eastern Diocese, and the second edition of the Plan of the (General) Theological Seminary, 1820. The Rev. Aaron B. Hunter has presented eight Journals of North Carolina, lacking in the Archives. I have also received Dr. Parker's Massachusetts Election Sermon in 1793, Bishop White's Ordination Sermon in 1825, Bishop Griswold's Convention Address in 1818, Bishop Whittingham's Quarter-centennial Sermon before the General Sunday School Union in 1851, and Dr. Tyng's Pennsylvania Convention Sermon in 1844.

It was noted in the last report that there were in the Archives copies of all the sermons preached at the consecrations of Bishops which had been published in pamphlet form, except three of date before 1887 and four of later date. Mr. Frederick Paine of Minneapolis has presented a copy of Bishop George Burgess's sermon at the consecration of Bishop Whipple; and Bishop A. R. Graves has presented a copy of the sermon preached at his consecration by Bishop Gilbert; so that all now lacking for consecrations before the last General Convention are those for Bishops Jarvis, Tuttle, Gilbert, Barker, and Newton.

I have purchased for the Archives a copy of the reprint of the early Journals of Ohio 1818-1827, bound, and the Journals of Texas for 1850 (first) 1854 and 1857-1859; I have also secured a copy of Bishop Cheshire's edition of the early Conventions of North Carolina 1790-1794, and a copy of the reprint of New Jersey Journals 1785-1815.

A List of Journals needed to complete sets accompany this report.

The expenses of this office in connection with the consecrations of Bishops have been: For engrossing sixteen Letters of Consecrations in duplicate, $99.00, and for expenses in forwarding the documents, $5.53; total, $104.53. Other expenses have been: For binding Journals, $58.00; for book and pamphlets purchased, $4.22; for express, postage, and stationery, $8.18; total, $70.40.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Acting Registrar.

REPORT OF THE CUSTODIAN OF THE STANDARD BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER.

To the General Convention to be holden on the first Wednesday of October, in the year of our Lord 1907:

The Custodian of the Standard Book of Common Prayer begs leave to present his report.

The last General Convention having by Joint Resolution ordered that a typographical inaccuracy in the Standard Book of Common Prayer be corrected by the transposition of the words "shall" and "be" in the twenty-seventh line of page 224, I noted the correction in the Standard Book itself; and, in accordance with Canon 41, § III., under date of February 20, 1905, I gave notice of said correction to the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese of the Church and to actual publishers of the Book of Common Prayer.

Under date of March 9, 1907, I issued a certificate for a new edition of the Book of Common Prayer to be published by the Cambridge University Press.

A copy of the Book of Common Prayer from the type of the Standard, duly authenticated, has been sent, as the Canon directs, to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the new Diocese of Harrisburg.

Among the volumes acquired for the Custodian's collection during the past three years are a duplicate of the Standard Book of 1793 in good condition, and a duplicate of the octavo book published in Philadelphia with the date 1818 on the title page, but a certificate for the Standard of 1822; also, copies of five editions of the Prayer Book not already in the collection, as follows:

- 1810, 8vo. New York, F. A. Mesier;
- 1836, 12mo. Phila., George W. Donohue;
- 1846, 12mo. Phila., Henry F. Anners;
- [1862], 12mo. Phila., Wm. Rutter & Co. (with red lines);
- 1881, 16mo. Boston, Margaret Coffin Prayer Book Society.

The following named books, all of real interest and value, have also been added to the collection: Hymns, "third edition," Newburyport, 1811; Hymns, standard with certificate, Philadelphia, 1827; Lessons, with exposition by Andrew Fowler, New Brunswick, N. J., 1798; Mr. Hinman's Dakota Prayer Book, 1865; English and Dakota Service Book, with Bishop Hare's certificate, 1875; Spanish version of American Prayer Book with Psalms, New York, 1865; Confederate States Prayer Book, 16mo., "Richmond," 1863; North American (Rupert's Land) Indian Prayer Book, S. P. C. K., 1877; Latin version of English Prayer Book, 1848; English Prayer Book, rubricated, handsomely printed and bound, Oxford, Collingwood, 1842; Directory in the Use of the Book of Common Prayer, St. John-Land, 1871; Bishop Hobart's Clergyman's Companion, second edition, two volumes, 1829; Book of Prayer for the Church and the Home (apparently from the King's Chapel Liturgy), Boston, 1865; Manual for the Chapel of Girard College; Liturgy and other Divine Offices of the Church ("Catholic Apostolic"), 1851; Methodist Ritual, proposed revision, 1864; Christian Liturgy for the Use of the Church (Unitarian), Boston, 1853.

I have received as a gift from Miss Jennette Loomis, of Windsor, Conn., a copy of the edition of the Prayer Book printed at Boston for Isaiah Thomas and Ebenezer T. Andrews in 1794 with the Psalms and Hymns of date 1793.

The expenses of this office for the past three years have been: For books purchased, $35.53; for postage, express, and stationery, $12.50; total, $47.83.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Custodian.

OCTOBER 1, 1907.

APPENDIX VIII.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION TO CONFER AS TO UNIFORMITY IN REGARD TO MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

"The Commission to confer as to uniformity in regard to marriage and divorce" presents its second report. Organized under the title of the Inter-Church Conference on marriage and divorce, with Bishop Doane as chairman and the Rev. Dr. Roberts as Secretary, it has held several meetings during the three years last past, and has increased its membership and enlarged its representative character. It now includes fourteen different Christian bodies. The Conference has issued three appeals, the last of which is appended as part of this report.* Your Commission adopts as its own the language of the report made by the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Dickey to the last meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, as expressing its own convictions, and showing the advance which has been made in the direction of comity and agreement among the various religious organizations, and also in the direction of an improved public opinion and more careful legislative enactments in reference to divorce.

"The Inter-Church Conference has recognized as its chief object the attainment of a Church unity that would decree such Scriptural standards and require such practices, both upon the part of ministers in performing the marriage ceremony, and upon the part of Church members in forming or dissolving marriage relations, as would conserve the purity both of the Church and of the family.

"The Conference has not discussed differences of opinion regarding Scriptural cause of divorce, nor attempted to bring about uniform legislation in the several Churches comprising the Conference.

"The General Assembly of 1905 adopted the following resolution:

"We approve the recommendation of the Inter-Church Conference that ministers should refuse to marry divorced persons, except the innocent party in a case where the divorce has been granted on Scriptural grounds, nor then until assured that a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the decision allowing the divorce."

"But such resolutions will fail to accomplish their purpose, or deliver our Church from reproach, unless the vigilance and discipline necessary to protect the Church from scandal are exercised. Those who want to seem respectable greatly desire to have the cloak of ecclesiastical sanction thrown over their marriages. They are not satisfied with the sanction of the civil law, nor with the ceremony of its official representative.

"The Church cannot hope to influence those who make and execute civil laws, to give protection to the family, to make the sundering of marriage ties and the forming of new alliances more difficult, unless by a strict adherence to its own teachings the Church holds those who minister by its authority responsible for the violation of its teachings.

"The Church has it in its power to put such opprobrium upon divorcees or re-marriages that have not the sanction of God's word, that those who dread its condemnation and desire its recognition will hesitate to ostracize themselves.

"But if the Church permits its seal to be put upon such sinful alliances, if it allows its silence to seem its approval, if it withholds its power to condemn, in deference to a power to contribute, it need not think it strange that its influence for reform is so little regarded.

"The advance is slow, but much has been accomplished, and much more is promised that gives encouragement and hope. The stir among the Churches has extended to the States. Your Committee reported to the last General Assembly the convening of the representatives of forty-four States and Territories in a Divorce Congress for the purpose of securing, as far as possible, uniform divorce statutes.

"This Divorce Congress is an expression of the influence of the Inter-Church Conference. The resolute action taken by the Churches has encouraged this movement among the civil authorities. A second session of this Divorce Congress was held in Philadelphia, November, 1906, to hear and consider the report of the Committee appointed to formulate the action of the previous session.

Representatives of the Inter-Church Conference were invited to be present, and to take part in the deliberations of the Congress.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Congress that divorce reform should be sought by an endeavor to secure unity and co-operation among the several States, rather than by attempting to obtain the consent of the States to adopt such an amendment to the Federal Constitution as would be necessary to control marriage and divorce by Federal legislation. This opinion prevails. The States are very jealous of their rights, and it is very generally believed that the reform sought will be more surely and more satisfactorily accomplished if it be found possible to bring about an agreement among the Legislatures of the several States.

There are favorable indications that the State Legislatures are disposed to accept the conclusions and suggestions of the Divorce Congress.

The Inter-Church Conference at its last meeting adopted the following resolution:

"This Conference places on record its gratification at the progress shown in the matter of influencing public opinion as to the evils of divorce, as indicated by the meetings of the National Congress on Uniform Divorce Laws, held at Washington, D. C., February 19, 1906, and at Philadelphia, November 13, 1906, and also by the action taken by many Ecclesiastical bodies, and by several State Legislatures."

If it had seemed possible still further to reduce the number of causes for divorce and secure uniform action among the States, a very decided majority of the Congress would have been disposed to recommend such a reduction. In agreeing to name six causes for granting divorce, the Congress did not express an approval of so many causes for the annulment of the marriage contract, but recognizing the fact that the six causes agreed upon were included in the divorce legislation of a large number of the States, the hope was expressed that all the States might be induced to limit the causes of divorce to these six, viz.: adultery, bigamy, conviction of crime, intolerable cruelty, wilful desertion for two years, habitual drunkenness. These were not recommendations of causes for divorce but recitations of existing causes. "The Congress, desiring to see the number of causes reduced rather than increased, recommends that no additional cause should be recognized in any State, and in those States where causes are restricted no change is called for."

The Congress further advised that all suits of divorce should be brought and prosecuted only in the State where the plaintiff or the defendant had a bona fide residence, and that such residence should not be less than two years.

The Congress also advised that all hearings and trials should be before the court, and not before any delegated representative of the court, and that a decree dissolving the marriage tie and permitting the re-marriage of either party should not become operative for at least one year.

Finally, each and every State was urged to adopt a statute recently adopted by the State of Massachusetts, viz.:

"If an inhabitant of this Commonwealth goes into another State or country to obtain a divorce for a cause which occurred here, while the parties resided here, or for a cause which would not authorize a divorce by the laws of this Commonwealth, a divorce so obtained shall be of no force or effect in this Commonwealth."

Rejoicing in the awakening that seems to assure less laxity in the laws of the State and the better protection of the family, the Church should advocate and with all its power press divorce reform, until the Scriptural standards that the Church embodies in its creed should determine both Church fellowship and good citizenship.

Your Committee would further report that it was the unanimous judgment of the Inter-Church Conference that the various Churches which have shown an interest and appointed representatives should continue such representation, that the Conference might continue its work.

We respectfully recommend the adoption, by the General Convention, of the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That this General Convention rejoices in the favorable results already reported and expresses the hope of more radical reform.

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the Commission on uniformity in regard to Marriage and Divorce be continued, and instructed to confer with other Committees as occasion may require and report at the next session of the General Convention.

WM. CROSWELL DOANE, Chairman.

The Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce at its recent meeting in New York City ordered the preparation and publication of a third appeal to the people of the United States on the subject with which the Conference has to deal.

There is no new argument to present. The Conference is committed to enforce by repetition, and to emphasize by reiteration, the great truth of the sacredness of marriage as not a contract lightly formed and easily broken, but an estate of life, first among the institutions of God for man, and foremost among the sanctities of human life. It needs guarding against the profanation of thoughtlessness, of mere passion, of worldly advantage or social advancement, of mercenary or any other low motives. It needs the protection of wise laws, of sound public opinion, and of religious sanction. The scandal of frequent and facile divorce, with the re-marriage that follows, often as the accomplishment and with the accomplice of the separation, is really a by-word and reproach to our country; and the radical cure can only be reached by going to the root of the cause, namely, the non-realization of the religious element in matrimony.

First of all, then, the Conference urges the recognition of the true intent and meaning of the marriage bond, "the union of one man with one woman for life." This the Clergy ought to teach, "in season and out of season;" and this Christian men and women ought to impress deeply upon their own consciences, and to teach their children and their children's children, until the truth shall pervade society and prevail over the loose and low sentiments so common today. To this end a resolution was adopted by the Conference at its last meeting declaring that it was "the sense of the Conference that the Scriptural and most effectual way to meet and overcome the divorce evil is by education, with a view to elevating the moral sentiments of the people."

Meanwhile the Conference is encouraged by its own growth in membership; duly elected representatives from the Presbyterian Church in the United States (South), and the Church of the New Jerusalem, having been present at its last meeting. Still more, both by its influence and by the increasing public conviction of the evil of divorce, the atmosphere seems to be clearing. This is noticeable in the public press, in the outspokenness of many clergymen, in the utterances of influential laymen, and in the serious consideration which the question is now receiving from members of the Bar. The action of the American Bar Association has been already acknowledged and in part adopted by the Conference. At the January meeting of the New York State Bar Association two papers were read dealing with the whole question in very strong language and along very sound lines. And the drift in the better popular literature of the day marks an advance in thinking, and assures an advantage in the impression made upon that large number of people whose reading is confined to books that deal, in less serious ways, with life.

The assembling in Washington this month (February) of representatives from many States, to consider the question of uniform laws of divorce, at once indicates the growth of feeling in the right direction and promises great results. So that while not abating in the least degree the purpose of continued effort the Conference takes new heart for the future, and appeals with the courage and earnestness of strong convictions and better hopes to the Christian people of America to push on the campaign with unabated vigor. Its appeal is to the sober, second thought of men and women. Once aroused to the horrible consequences of broken homes and blighted lives, the collusion between the parties to divorce, and the confusion among their children, there will be an uprising of righteous indignation which will lift society up to the higher standards and holier ideals of marriage. Important as legislation is, and needful as is the earnest and incessant preaching of the truth, the power to purify the atmosphere lies in the correction and uplift of public opinion. To mould this, to give it sound convictions and the courage of their holding and their expression, should be the aim and object of intelligent and incessant effort.

APPENDIX IX.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL FROM CONFERENCE OF WORKERS AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE.

The Joint Committee, consisting of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen, appointed in 1904 to consider and report upon "A Memorial to the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America" from the Conference of Church Workers among the Colored People, have endeavored to fulfil the letter and spirit of the duty with which they were charged, and with the aid of the information which they have sought, have addressed themselves to the subject with labor and earnest deliberation.

They have likewise had before them the memorial from the Twenty-third Conference of Church Workers among the Colored People, assembled at Asbury Park, N. J., September 17-20, 1907, and the presentations made in person by the Committee from the last named Conference, together with a Memorial from the Diocese of Arkansas.

From our consideration of these memorials from the workers among the Colored People, and from the personal conference which we have had with their representatives, we would first recognize and bear testimony to the solicitude and anxiety manifested by them for the evangelization of their race, and we would further testify to the earnestness with which they have declared their loyalty and devotion to the Church's faith and order, and to the insistence with which they have urged their belief that the proposed plan will not lead to schism, but to "mutual good-will and hearty co-operation."

We regard it as important to recall attention to the fact that, while the adoption of the proposed Canon on Special Missionary Bishops would enable Dioceses to seek the establishment of Special Missionary Districts and the appointment of Negro Bishops for the Negro race, and while the petitioners would necessarily expect the provisions of the Canon to be applicable to their race, still the Canon itself as proposed does not specifically name the Negro race,—and the view of the petitioners is to be interpreted as seeking to include other races in the benefits which they believe to be connected with the plan presented.

Approaching the memorial with this realization of the loyal spirit and the Missionary enthusiasm of the memorialists, and fully conscious both of the essential duty of the Church to press forward the work of evangelization and of the special conditions and problems which exist in connection with the Negro race, the Committee find themselves unable to recommend the adoption of the proposed Canon. Amongst the objections to be urged against its adoption is the fact that it traverses the prevailing usage and tradition of the Church which have associated jurisdiction with territory, and have held to an undivided Diocesan administration in the territorial jurisdiction over all the races which constitute the population.

Again, in relation to the Council of Advice to the Missionary Bishop which it is suggested shall be constituted of the Diocesan Bishops within the bounds of the contemplated Missionary District, it appears to our judgment that such a Council would be superfluous if it possessed no authoritative control, or that, if it did possess such authority, the Missionary Bishop so appointed would lack the independence which pertains to other Missionary Bishops. A dependent administration of this kind could only be a tentative plan, and bring segregation and racial cleavage without the satisfaction of thorough liberty and initiative.

Again, if the rights of a Missionary Bishop so appointed were actually to be identical with those of a Domestic Missionary Bishop, he would necessarily become eligible to election as a Diocesan Bishop; and there would arise the further complicating prospect of not only a Missionary District but a Diocese on lines of racial instead of territorial jurisdiction.

In view of the possibility that changing needs and conditions, or unsatisfactory results from the tentative plan itself, might justify and require the termination of such a Missionary District, it does not appear that the provisions of the proposed Canon touching a termination adequately protect the free action of the Church in the case of so radical a departure from its prevailing usage and tradition.

But beyond this consideration, in part, of the context of the measure presented, the Committee must emphasize other and most fundamental matters. The action which the petitioners earnestly request includes not only the subject of special Episcopal ministrations for a particular race, but also the subject of race segregation and race representation in ecclesiastical legislative assemblies separate from the Diocesan Convention and race representation in the General Convention, and they seek this action because they are dissatisfied with the representation now accorded their race in the Diocesan Conventions and because they believe that their proposed measure will meet their needs for representation, make for concord between the White and the Negro, supply incentive to the Negro to membership in the Episcopal Church, and promote the evangelization of their race. Over against this subdivision on race lines we place the ancient ideal of the Church for an ecclesiastical order in which men as Christians, and not as members of particular races, may co-operate for their moral and spiritual welfare, and for the advancement of the Kingdom of God amongst all mankind, and without sacrificing their essential political or social convictions; and whatever may be the present strain and problem in connection with the franchise in the legislative assemblies of the Church, we cannot counsel the abandonment of that ideal.

Legislation to establish race Missionary Districts would be a step farther in asserting that the races cannot co-operate in moral and spiritual matters, and race representation in the General Convention would tend to increase the demand for special race legislation and the concentration upon racial instead of general interests.

In view of the fact that changes of population may modify Diocesan conditions, and conduce towards the solution of the problem of representation, it is wiser to leave to Dioceses the provision for special needs rather than for the General Convention to attempt to meet them by general laws in the direction of a new type of Missionary Districts.

Besides the foregoing considerations, the grave question arises as to whether, when the momentum towards ecclesiastical segregation is started, the impulse to separate self-government will not accumulate, and without any aim or desire of schism on the part of the originators of the plan work on to that result through racial pressure, or through new leaders whose realization of Churchly unity may be weakened in the school of partial autonomy.

The Committee having thus expressed their inability to recommend the adoption of the Canon, and without entering into the history of the successive demands and plans which have been presented in relation to the extension of the Church's work amongst the negroes—and which are matters of public knowledge—would ask whether, after all, the results of the Church's work amongst this race truly deserve to be called a failure, and whether these results in reality demonstrate the need of such radical experiments in organization. In raising this question we are thoroughly conscious of the obligation upon the Church to preach the Gospel to every creature; we realize that, when sufficient time has been allowed to the work, numerical results must enter into the judgment by which success or failure is to be estimated; and we know, as all Churchmen know, that the Church has activities and resources which must be consecrated in far vaster measure to this cause and the general missionary cause before its duty shall have been fulfilled.

But when the disparity between the total of the Negro population and the statistics of their membership in the Episcopal Church is pressed as a ground of discouragement, it is to be remembered that the Episcopal Church has consistently striven to fulfil a task of tremendous difficulty—the task of maintaining an undivided Church, the task of holding in an ecclesiastical unity two races in a time when social problems and political strife and change have made antagonism between the races, and when the Negroes have developed autonomous religious organizations in entire separation from the White race. The measure of its success in that task is to be weighed as a great achievement, whatever be the numerical results; and if the Christian men of both races can keep that Church bond unbroken, whatever be the problems of ecclesiastical franchise, the Christianity of the future, and probably also the country, will be the better for the allegiance and wisdom, the patience and self-control with which they have maintained a great truth. Without tabulating statistics and without seeking to minimize short-comings in this department of the Church's work, yet seeking that it be not underestimated, we submit that actual results indicate that further organization is not necessary save in the form of auxiliary Episcopal ministrations in those Dioceses which may need and wish to secure them.

If the expenditure of money is to be considered in the judgment as to whether results signify success or failure, attention is called to the fact that the appropriation for work amongst the colored people, which was originally $55,000, was increased to $75,000, and that for Cape Palmas, with 250,000 people, the appropriation is $52,000. In view of this disparity between the money expended and the magnitude of the Negro population in this country, the results do not point to inadequacy in our present organization, but to inadequacy of expenditure.

Returning to the hopeful outlook which the memorialists believe to exist in the establishment of a race Missionary District, it appears to us that there is peril lest the immediate need and benefit of ecclesiastical franchise be unduly magnified, lest emphasis grow upon it till the election by the race of their race Bishop be logically the final desire, and the problem of race jurisdiction instead of territorial jurisdiction be still further accentuated.

To seek a race Missionary District in order to escape from Diocesan disfranchisement would be to surrender, as far as the Diocese is concerned, the effort toward the ideal of an ecclesiastical unity and co-operation in which Church members stand on another basis than that of race; and surely the time has not come to abandon hope that the Church will be guided to some consummation in which these problems of franchise will be settled without division, and yet in which this legislative coordination will not signify that the Church is seeking to estabfish social equality or embroil itself in partisan politics. We point to the fact that representation in some Diocesan Conventions now stands on the basis of missions and parishes, and in others on a convocational basis; and remembering that Anglo-Saxon Churchmen have earned by centuries of toil and suffering the right to leadership in teaching and guarding the faith and order of the Church, we cannot but think that our Negro brethren will accept that leadership in the working out of the problem of Diocesan representation, which is beset with so many perplexing conditions. Cherishing true sympathy with their aspirations for the best development of their racial capacities, sharing with them the profound desire for the extension of the Church amongst their people, we yet press the need of making essential religion and education paramount to the possession of numerical equality in the ecclesiastical franchise.

Patience and wisdom and service are demanded alike of white and black in the process of solving this problem, and with minds and hearts fixed on preserving the unity of the Church, and in the spirit of service and even at the cost of sacrifice, let the Churchmen of both races steadfastly endeavor to avoid experiments in organization which may wreck that ideal, but go forward with a new fidelity to that ideal and a new obedience to the call of Him who is the Saviour of the world, and genuinely make trial of our present organization, together with such auxiliary Episcopal ministrations as can be provided without separation into race jurisdictions.

To the Memorial from the Diocese of Arkansas, which has been referred to this Committee, we have given respectful attention. While we recognize the zeal which animates the memorialists for the welfare of the Negro race, and the careful study which they have given to the subject of ecclesiastical organization for the benefit of that race, we are unable to recommend the adoption of the resolution proposed. The grounds of objection to the plan there presented are stated in the general principles set forth in the body of this report. We believe that it would be contrary to the genius and tradition of the Church to segregate the African race in this country into a distinct and self-governing ecclesiastical system, and that such action would be the abandonment of our missionary responsibility and relation to that race, and would create division which would tend to schism.

We appeal for a more earnest, active and practical sympathy and support for the Church's work amongst the Colored People on the part of those who have heretofore expended their beneficence upon institutions not connected with the Church. We call upon the Church at large to sustain the Bishops and others responsible for this work, and we urge Churchmen to adopt such Diocesan methods, and if possible with some measure of uniformity, as may be found needful to preserve a proper oversight and yet adjust the problem of Diocesan representation on a just, peaceful and safe basis. We recommend in the direction of organization an auxiliary Episcopate in the Dioceses which may need this help for special racial conditions, and which may apply this agency, when secured on their initiative and request, to the service of any race which may require particular provision. In making this recommendation we beg to record our conviction and counsel that, in case this auxiliary Episcopate is instituted, both the Diocesan Bishop and the auxiliary Bishop should be protected with all due safeguards, and we further record our conviction of the fundamental importance of securing to the auxiliary Bishops seats in the House of Bishops. We present the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert in Article II. as Section 4 the following, and renumber the present Section 4:

It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and with seat and without vote in the House of Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. He shall be eligible as Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of a Diocese, or as a Suffragan in another Diocese, or he may be elected by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop.

*Consent to the general principles of the report, but would prefer another title than Suffragan, with vote in the House of Bishops.

The Rt. Rev. J. B. Cheshire and the Rev. W. M. Clark do not sign the report, and will present separate statements.

The undersigned, dissenting from the report submitted to both houses of the General Convention by the Joint Committee appointed by the General Convention of 1904, beg leave to submit the following minority Report:

The condition of the Negroes in the South presents difficulties unprecedented, both in its civil and its ecclesiastical aspects. There is a separation between the two races inhabiting our common country unlike anything known in the past. So far as we can forecast the future there is no prospect of change in this situation. There is likely to be in our Southern Dioceses an accentuation of this race distinction, rather than otherwise in the near future. The colored people have no sufficient representation, or contact with, the organic life and affairs of the Church, and are not likely to have.

Since it is a fact that our present arrangements give no adequate place for the Negro in our scheme of Diocesan legislation and administration, and since this separation seems to be unavoidable under the actual conditions under which the two races must live in the South, the subscribers feel that the Church should meet this emergency in our Church life by providing some method whereby our colored Churchmen may have, and may see and feel that they have some place and voice in the corporate legislative life of the Church. As this is not given in the Diocese, it may, as it seems to the subscribers, be given by such representation in the General Convention as is now enjoyed by the Missionary Districts. This limited representation and participation in the General Council of our National Church would seem to be sufficient, and would, it is believed, satisfy the natural and reasonable aspirations of our colored brethren.

We therefore most respectfully, but most earnestly recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, that Art. VI of the Constitution be amended by adding the following Section to be numbered 4:

The House of Bishops may establish missionary districts upon racial lines, i. e., for a specified race or races within the bounds of dioceses and missionary districts, established as authorized in Section 1, either severally or in such groupings as it may determine; provided, that in the case of a diocese such racial jurisdiction within the diocesan borders shall be first ceded by the Bishop and the Convention of the Diocese.

In the interpretation of the Constitution and Canons the people and churches of such racial missionary districts shall occupy the same relation to the General Convention as any other domestic missionary district.

No such cession by a diocese, or division of a missionary district, however, shall carry with it the members of the ceded race, who may be or become members of congregations not included in such missionary district.

The House of Bishops may from time to time change, increase or diminish the territory included in such racial missionary districts in such manner as may be prescribed by canon.

Such racial jurisdiction within the borders of any diocese may be retroceded to the diocese by the House of Bishops, if the Bishop and Convention of such diocese shall consent to receive it.

APPENDIX X.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The religious situation in the Public Schools is practically unchanged since the last report on this subject. The present condition of elementary public education in England is evidence today that State, School and Church are wisely separated in this country, and that the Church must look in other directions than towards the Public School for the religious training of her children.

The Secondary Schools of our Church, especially the Boarding Schools, continue to multiply in the East. The fact that most of these schools have an abundant supply of pupils, and that many of them are over-flowing, indicates that there is a wide-spread desire on the part of parents, whether belonging to our own Church or to other churches, that their children should be educated in a positively Christian atmosphere. This is, indeed, the strength of the Church School, that it is thoroughly imbued with the religious idea, and that it feels primarily responsible for the spiritual development of the pupils committed to its charge. The problem of religious teaching which is now engaging the attention of teachers throughout the country has not, we confess, been adequately solved by our Church Schools. Not yet have they learned to adapt the newer methods of pedagogy to the teaching of Religion. In some institutions, instruction in the catechism and church doctrine is so dull that the pupils get little, if anything, that is valuable from it, and lose interest in the subject; while in others, the teaching is vague and unsystematic. The work of the various Sunday School Commissions is a valuable aid to those who are striving to make this study both instructive and interesting.

Your Committee refer with especial satisfaction to the work of the Joint Commission on Sunday School Instruction, as their report so fully covers the ground upon this most important subject, and as the Commission has been continued, they ask that careful attention be given to this matter, especially as an encouragement to the many faithful men and women, who are carrying on the Church's work in this sphere of Christian education.

It must be acknowledged that we have not succeeded, in our Church Schools, in arousing the enthusiasm in Bible study that characterizes the various organizations which exist in connection with the Young Men's Christian Associations in many Colleges and Schools.

But the total effect of Church Schools is doubtless of a spiritual character; and there is an abundance of vital energy to be found among their teachers.

The recently organized Church School Conference gives evidence of this. To an annual conference, the masters in Church Schools in New England and the Middle States are invited; and there educational problems—especially those which are distinctively characteristic of Church Schools—are discussed. Meetings of the conference have been held at Groton, St. Mark's, and St. Paul's, Garden City. This year the invitation is issued by St. Paul's School at Concord. Besides the advantages of considering together questions which are difficult for individual schools to decide, the masters have an opportunity to meet one another in an intimate way, and to exchange personal views upon their work.

It is believed that, by means of these meetings, there will grow up a general Church School idea and system which will be more persistent and more truly educational than anything which would be produced by incorporating the schools into closer connection with the Dioceses in which they are situated, or with the General Convention of the Church. It is felt that education is a process which should be carried on by professional teachers, and that the aim and purpose of the Church in establishing these institutions could best be carried out by them if they remain untrammelled. The schools are doing important service to the Church and to the nation; and the greater part of the pupils of these schools become communicants of the Church. Even those who do not—who may continue members of other religious bodies—are influenced by the teaching of their early days. But Institutions which have passed beyond the stage of purely Diocesan character and support should be free from ecclesiastical domination or undue interference with the internal administration. This is the characteristic of the great English Boarding Schools. They form one of the chief bulwarks of the Church of England, indeed; but each school is free and independent in shaping its curriculum and its policy.

The conference will tend to bring about a sufficient co-ordination of studies and of principles between the schools which take part in it, and it is hoped that, as its methods and results become known, organizations of a similar character will be effected in the Southern and Western States. Already there is a fair number of Church Schools in these localities. They have proved to be of great value as a Missionary Agency in making intelligent and earnest Churchmen; and there is a conviction in the minds of many Churchmen that no better or more stable work could be done for the Church than the building of additional Schools in the Middle West and on the Pacific Slope. The time seems to us ripe for this movement, and, in our judgment, any school of the Church, wisely organized, equipped with a body of competent teachers, and sufficiently endowed, would be abundantly successful.

Replies of seventy-one Bishops to letters sent in the name of this Committee reveal an encouraging amount of successful and suggestive Christian educational work in addition to that which is maintained in our own Church Schools and Colleges.

Thus we find excellent Church Houses which receive students, some to lodge them under friendly influences, some to meet for religious instruction and for better acquaintance.

At Columbia, at Stanford, at the University of Virginia, and for half of each year at the University of Colorado, a Church Clergyman is the chaplain.

At the University of Vermont, the Bishop has a course in the New Testament which is counted towards the degree of bachelor of arts. Special Bible Classes for students are carried on in a number of Colleges, sometimes by the local Clergy, sometimes by members of the faculty who are communicants of the Church.

In New York, in Boston and in Louisville, there are special services for students, held regularly or occasionally, with appropriate addresses and great congregations.

At Harvard the Pi Beta Society, at Yale the Berkeley Association, at the University of California the Guilds of St. John, and of St. Anne are among many similar organizations of Church students for better living and for social service. At Princeton, the St. Paul's Society maintains three mission chapels where students serve as lay readers and teachers. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is every year increasing its good influence in the Colleges. The Seabury Society, by its Summer Schools, appeals to students in behalf of missions and of a better knowledge of the Bible.

Notable and exemplary have been the labors of the Bishop of New Hampshire in strengthening the parishes which minister to educational institutions in his Diocese.

The Coadjutor Bishop of Nebraska has confirmed fifty university students during the past three years as a result of the work of the local Clergy. This is but a more notable and detailed instance of many reports of quiet work of this kind.

Your Committee would commend these examples to the general attention of the Church. The young men and women of our Colleges and Normal Schools are going out to be formative and prevailing influences in thousands of towns and villages. A weak or unfavorable presentation of the Church will send them out prejudiced against us. They may be made Missionaries of all the true and high things in which we believe. By endowments of local parishes, by erection of Church Houses, by support of chaplains to minister to students, especially by general recognition of the importance of this phase of Christian education, the hands of the Church shall be strengthened for this great work.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, the House of Bishops concurring, That the Committees on Christian Education of both Houses have permission to sit in Joint Session during the recess.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. WOODRUFF NILES,

Chairman of Committee of House of Bishops,

GEORGE HODGES,

Chairman of the Committee of House of Deputies.

APPENDIX XI.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON THE RELATIONS OF CAPITAL AND LABOR.

The Joint Commission on the Relations of Capital and Labor begs to present the following report:

Since the report presented to the General Convention of 1904 the Commission has lost from its membership the Rev. Dr. Williams, now Bishop of Michigan, and Mr. George Pinckard. Their places have been taken by the Rev. E. L. Parsons and Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.

Under the general scope of the responsibilities laid upon it at its creation, the Commission reiterates the principles laid down in its report of 1904.

We believe, as we said then, that the cause of most labor troubles lies not so much in economic as in moral conditions. We are ready to make our own the statement of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in organizing its Department of Church and Labor, that "the labor question is fundamentally a moral and a religious question, and that it will never be settled upon any other basis."

We believe that the chief mission of the Church at large in dealing with the economic questions of the present is to determine, to proclaim, and to insist upon this moral and religious basis. From very few pulpits of the Church can it be expected that any expert treatment of special issues can be given. Perhaps it is well that that is the case; but the underlying moral principles of society can be presented and their general application be made clearly, forcibly, and fearlessly. Capital should be taught its duty of treating labor fairly, listening to its complaints patiently, and redressing its grievances wherever possible. Welfare work should be urged upon it, and its trusteeship for the right use of its power insisted upon. Labor, on the other hand, should be taught respect for the rights of capital, reliance upon reason and persuasion, and a knowledge that violence and lawlessness are unworthy of a cause which claims to be the cause of humanity. Both should be urged to submit to arbitration such differences, involving no vital principle, as they are unable to settle by friendly conference. Both should be led to study the teaching of Christ as it bears upon the spirit and form of the social organism.

In further illustration of this application of Christianity to present issues, we call attention again to the importance of the question of child-labor, repeating and emphasizing what was said in our report of 1904. We perceive, indeed, that there are differences of opinion as to some of the facts which are involved. The actual amount of child-labor in the various industries of this country, and the actual amount of harm done to children by such labor, are variously estimated by good men. The need of impartial and thorough investigation is evident. But this we maintain to be indisputable, that the protection of the health and character of youth is essential to the progress of the nation, and that the labor of young children under factory conditions is a plain menace to the general welfare, and is hostile to the spirit of the Christian religion. It is doubly deplorable where parents are responsible for forcing their children into wage-earning at an all too early age, often evading child-labor laws by false statements. We call upon our brethren who are brought into relation with this matter to see to it that so far as they are concerned no harm, physical or moral, shall come to even the least of those little ones whom to serve is to serve Christ himself.

In the instructions given it at its creation, the Commission was directed to the study of the aim and spirit of labor organizations. In this respect we deplore again the ignorance of clergy and laity alike. We note with regret, as bearing on this point, our former recommendation of certain books upon these questions seems to have borne little fruit. Upon careful inquiry, it would appear that with some local exceptions there has been no greater demand for them than usual. It is clear that on the side of both Church and Labor the mutual ignorance is great. The labor unionist praises the Carpenter of Nazareth. He distrusts the Church which officially represents that master Workman, while the Church through ignorance fails to understand the laborer's aims and motives.

It is equally clear that where that ignorance is dispelled fraternal relations may be readily established. In the Dioceses of Long Island and Los Angeles, and possibly others, fraternal delegates to Labor Councils have been welcomed. The C. A. I. L. and similar organizations have the respect and sympathy of the labor movement, while the great work accomplished by the Rev. Mr. Stelzle of a great sister communion is a matter of common knowledge.

These general considerations are brought to a definite point and made the basis of certain recommendations which we desire to present, by communications which we have received from various bodies interested in these industrial and social problems.

We have received communications from the Church Association for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor, the Christian Social Union, the Companions of the Holy Cross, and the Eight Hour League, and have heard a representative of the Christian Socialist Fellowship. Without entering into the special terms of each communication, three important matters are thus brought to our attention:

1. The coördination of various organizations in the Church interested in the labor problem;
2. The promotion of sympathetic relations with labor organizations; and
3. The use of the press for the increase of knowledge and interest on the part of church people.

Touching these in turn we note the following facts:

1. Such work as is being done in the Church is sporadic and local. It is well known that the C. A. I. L. and the Christian Social Union express a dividing rather than a uniting of Church interest in these questions. In various dioceses where neither of these organizations is represented, local Committees or individual bishops and clergy have, we believe, done good work. But there is no head. There is no united action. The influence of the Church is not brought to bear with power. It is our judgment that this condition should cease; that Diocesan Committees of Social Service and the like should be formed, and that they, with the local branches of existing organizations, be brought into mutual co-operation.

That can be done only through a body commissioned by General Convention with power adequate to the purpose.

2. In regard to the establishment of sympathetic relations with labor organizations we have already spoken. We believe it is of essential importance. We believe further that it will be accomplished throughout the country on a wide scale only through the agency of some central body which will initiate and stimulate.

3. It is clear likewise that only such a body will have scope enough to make proper and effective use of the press. Under this head would fall the publication and circulation of brief tracts on special subjects, lists of books recommended for use, and tables of statistics and reports of progress, and also the use of the public press in presenting all industrial questions in the light of Christian thought.

In considering then the whole field, we are agreed in the belief that the first step to the realization of these and kindred objects is the establishment of this Commission upon a permanent basis.

We therefore present the following resolutions:

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the Joint Commission on the Relation of Capital and Labor be made a permanent Commission.

Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That its powers be extended to enable it to promote the co-ordination of the various organizations existing in the Church in the interests of social questions and to extend or add to them, to encourage sympathetic relations between Capital and Labor, and to deal according to their discretion with these kindred matters.

APPENDIX XII.

AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED AT THE CONVENTION OF 1907, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1910.

Resolved, That the following amendment of the Constitution, proposed in the last General Convention and made known to the Diocesan Conventions by a resolve thereof, be adopted in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, to wit:

Strike out Section 3 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

SECTION 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, the General Convention shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be such Presiding Bishop, by the vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies by vote of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders.

The Presiding Bishop shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention.

The Presiding Bishop so elected shall hold office for six years, unless meanwhile he shall have reached the seventieth year of his age, when his tenure of office shall end in any case; or shall have resigned his Episcopal jurisdiction, or, with the consent of the General Convention, his office as Presiding Bishop or unless, for infirmity or other sufficient cause, he may have been relieved of such office by the General Convention by the concurrent vote, first of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and then of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders.

The salary of the Presiding Bishop as such shall be fixed and paid by the General Convention, as may be provided by Canon of such Convention.

When, for any reason, a vacancy in the office shall occur, or if by reason of infirmity the Presiding Bishop shall become disabled, the House of Bishops shall elect one of its number to act as Presiding Bishop until the next meeting of the General Convention.

Resolved, That the following amendment of the Constitution, proposed in the last General Convention and made known to the Diocesan Conventions by a resolve thereof, be adopted in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, to wit:

Add to Article X. at the end thereof the following proviso:

And provided further, that in editions of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages such verbal alterations as may be necessary to adapt the same to local conditions may be made by the authority of the Bishop of the Diocese or Missionary District in which it is used, subject to the approval of the Presiding Bishop.

Resolved, That the following amendment of the Constitution, proposed in the last General Convention and made known to the Diocesan Conventions by a resolve thereof, be adopted in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, to wit:

Insert in Article II as Section 4 the following and renumber the present Section 4:

It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and with seat and without vote in the House of Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. He shall be eligible as Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of a Diocese, or as a Suffragan in another Diocese, or he may be elected by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop.

Resolved, That the following amendment of the Constitution, proposed in the last General Convention and made known to the Diocesan Conventions by a resolve thereof, be adopted in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, to wit:

PREAMBLE.

This American Church first planted in Virginia, in the year of our Lord 1607, by representatives of the ancient Church of England; acknowledging the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the record of God's Revelation of Himself in his Son, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; holding the Catholic Creeds, to wit, the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed, to be a sufficient statement of the Christian Faith; maintaining the Orders of the Sacred Ministry in such form as from the Apostles' time they have been continued; reverently conserving the Sacraments ordained by Christ Himself; and accounting to be members of the flock of Christ all who have been duly baptized in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, has set forth and established, for the furtherance of the work to which it has been called of God, the following

CONSTITUTION.

Resolved, That the following amendment of the Constitution, proposed in the last General Convention and made known to the Diocesan Conventions by a resolve thereof, be adopted in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, to wit:

Add to the second paragraph of Article IX. of the Constitution the following sentence, namely:

The General Convention may also provide by Canon for the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon in the Diocese or Missionary District in which an offence is alleged to have been committed by him.

APPENDIX XIII.

The Committee on Memorials of Deceased Members respectfully reports that in accordance with Rule of Order No. 33, it embodies in its report only the items therein presented, namely—the names and dioceses of the deceased Deputies, dates of birth and death and time of service in General Convention.

In accordance, also, with the usual custom, it has wherever necessary, left blanks to be filled by the Secretary of the House of Deputies, prior to the printing of the Journal.

Were it within the bounds of possibility, the Committee would be glad to make individual record of the life and service and to pay individual tribute to the memory of each deceased member.

When one looks around upon the large congregation gathered from all parts of our communion, at the great opening service of the General Convention, to celebrate and make the Memorial our Heavenly Father's Son has commanded us to make; having in remembrance His Blessed Passion and precious Death, then one's heart is thrilled with the thought that he is united in Christ with the representatives of all those on earth whom He loves best, and is in

"Mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won."

We show forth the Lord's death and in so doing we show forth also the eternal and perfect consummation of all His servants departed this life in His faith and fear.

We are enrolled in the ever active campaign of the army to fight under His banner, against sin, the world and the devil. Death has brought them the rest that remaineth for the people of God. In Him alone there is power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world and the flesh. We remember and bless God's Holy Name for all the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all His saints, who have been choice vessels and lights of the world. Their deeds inspire us, their steadfastness encourages us, and all the reflections of Christ that shone in them lighten us on our way.

Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are reverend, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report or gracious; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, take account of these things. Then will their life and labors not have been in vain, and their works will still follow them, and the communion of the living saints and dead in Christ, will be all the purer, holier, sweeter, truer, and God's Kingdom will speedily come. The faces of those we commemorate are still pictured in our minds when we look around upon those who still fight the good fight with us. The touch of their vanished hands is still remembered when we greet our brethren today; and the sound of their voices raised in defence and truth, or in the earnest prayers and sweet praises of God in His Holy Temple, or heard in joyous salutation, brings tears that we shall hear them no more on earth, and we go on our way strengthening ourselves to follow in their steps.

For the Committee.

FIRST DAY OF THE SESSION.

1. The House shall meet for business at such time and place as shall have been duly notified by the Presiding Bishop or the Chairman of the House to the members of this House, and shall be called to order by the Presiding Bishop or the Chairman, or, in their absence, by the Senior Bishop present.

2. Any Bishop appearing in the House of Bishops for the first time after his consecration shall then be presented to the President by one or more Bishops, and, if such be present, by one or more Bishops who took part in his consecration.

3. The roll of members shall be called by the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary of the session of the House last preceding, or, in their absence, by a Secretary appointed pro tempore.

4. If any member or members of the House shall have died since its last meeting, the Presiding Bishop shall then announce, without word or comment, the fact and the date of such death, after which he shall say the Lord's Prayer, together with the following Prayer and Collects:

We bless thy holy Name for all thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors. And we yield unto thee most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy saints who have been the choice vessels of thy grace, and the lights of the world in their several generations; most humbly beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow the example of their stedfastness in thy faith, and obedience to thy holy commandments, that at the day of the general Resurrection, we, with all those who are of the mystical body of thy Son, may be set on his right hand, and hear that his most joyful voice: Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

The Collect for All Saints' Day.

The Collect in the Visitation Office: "O God, whose days," etc.

"The grace of our Lord," etc.

5. The House shall then proceed to elect a Secretary. If but one candidate be nominated, the election shall be viva voce; if more than one, by ballot.

6. With the approbation of the Presiding Officer, the Secretary may, at any period of the session, appoint an Assistant Secretary.

7. The House shall then proceed to elect, in all cases by ballot, a Chairman of the House, who shall be Assessor to the Presiding Bishop, and, in his absence or at his request, shall be the Presiding Officer of the House, and to whom the Presiding Bishop may assign any duties connected with his office from which, from time to time, he may desire to be relieved. He shall continue in office until the triennial General Convention following that in which he was elected.

A Bishop who has served as Chairman for three years may be elected for a second time; but such Bishop shall not be eligible for subsequent re-election, except after an interval of at least three years. Officers of the House of Bishops, when addressing the House in debate, shall in all cases do so from the floor of the House.

8. As soon as the House of Bishops shall have been organized by the election of its Secretary and Chairman, it shall be the duty of the Chairman to instruct the Secretary to communicate to the House of Deputies the fact of its organization, and that it is ready to proceed to business.

After that shall follow consideration of Messages from the House of Deputies not disposed of, and a call for reports from Standing Committees; then may follow any other business for which time shall remain. If the Board of Missions shall adjourn before the customary hour for adjournment of the House of Bishops, the House shall resume its sitting. Any part of this rule may be suspended by a majority vote.

- a. Communications from the President.

VII. The Order of the Day shall be taken up at the hour appointed, unless postponed by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

VIII. Bishops invited to honorary seats may be introduced by the President whenever no other business occupies the House.

VI. All resolutions shall be reduced to writing, and no motion shall be considered as before the House until seconded.

VII. Members in discussion shall address the Chair, and shall confine themselves to the point in debate. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate without leave of the House.

VIII. Every member present shall, on a division, be counted, unless personally interested in the question to be decided. When, in taking a question, the President's vote produces a tie, the motion shall be considered as lost.

IX. When it is proposed to give consent to the consecration of a Bishop elect or of a Bishop Coadjutor elect, it shall be competent for any three members of the House to call for a vote by ballot.

X. The ayes and nays may be required by any three members, and shall in such cases be entered on the Journal.

XI. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received unless to lay it upon the table, to postpone it to a certain time, to postpone it indefinitely, to commit it, to amend it, or to divide it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. Motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

XII. On motion duly put and carried, the House may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, when a Chairman of the same shall be elected. The junior Bishop present shall act as Clerk of the Committee, and make a record of its action.

XIII. Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommended by a vote of the House. Reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House shall be accompanied by specific resolutions.

XVI. Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made. No after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order, but a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject differing from the one under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XVII. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not be again drawn into debate during the same session of the Convention except with the consent of two-thirds of the House. A motion to reconsider can only be made by one who voted with the majority on the previous determination of the question.

XVIII. All resolutions which are to be communicated to the House of Deputies, unless they contain information of action incomplete in this House, or be temporarily withheld by order of this House at the time of their passage, shall be transmitted to the House of Deputies as soon as conveniently may be, under the direction of the Chairman of the House.

XIX. Messages from the House of Deputies shall be handed by the Secretary of this House to the President, to be laid before the House as early as may be convenient. Committees from the House of Deputies shall be admitted immediately.

XXII. The body known as the Bishops in Council, as an assemblage of Catholic Bishops, and considering and acting upon matters of duty or responsibility resting on them as a portion of the universal Episcopate, may be convened at any time, suitable notice being given by the Presiding Bishop or the Chairman of the House of Bishops.

Words spoken by any one in Council shall be held by all as strictly confidential, and no proceedings shall be made known to others than Bishops, save by order of the Council.

XXIII. The body known as the Bishops in Council, when considering matters which are subject to the authority of the House of Bishops in its constitutional and canonical capacity, shall be guided by the following rules:

1. Such meetings shall be for mutual counsel and consideration only.

2. In such meetings no resolutions shall be adopted except to adjourn, to rise, to report to the House of Bishops, to recommend to the House of Bishops, to take order for the giving out of information, or to commit; Provided, that no Committee or Commission of the Council shall be clothed with any power beyond the promotion of considerations, the preparation of reports, or the furthering of recommendations, to be submitted by the Council to the House of Bishops for action of the latter.

XXIV. Bishops admitted to honorary seats shall be conducted to the seats assigned to them by the Bishops who introduced them, and, except when privileged business is before the House, or when this House resolves itself into a Council of Bishops, shall at all times be entitled to be present.

XXV. In the event of the calling a special meeting of the House of Bishops, notice shall be issued for the same and delivered or posted at least forty-five days before the first day of the proposed meeting. A request shall accompany the notice, that an answer be returned as early as convenient from each Bishop, stating whether he will be able to attend or no. In the event of the failure to obtain a favorable reply from a sufficient number of the Bishops to constitute a majority of the whole House, notice of such failure shall be sent to each of the Bishops at least twelve days before the first day of the proposed session, and the call for such meeting shall be held as satisfied and of no further effect.

XXVI. At every special meeting of the House of Bishops, the Secretary shall present and read the official call for such meeting, and incorporate such call in the minutes.

XXVII. The ballot for the nomination of a Missionary Bishop shall not be held until the day after the presentation of the names of Presbyters suggested for the office, without unanimous consent; and it is recommended that the administration of the Holy Communion precede the ballot.

XXIX. The House shall be bidden to prayer for Missions at noon of each day of the session.

XXX. At every General Convention this House shall elect one Bishop, who, in consultation with two other Bishops also elected by this House, shall prepare the Pastoral Letter and present it to the House. To these Bishops, who shall constitute the Standing Committee on the Pastoral Letter, shall be referred all matters appertaining to such Letter and to its preparation. If practicable, a draft of the Letter shall be submitted to the House for its consideration not later than the twelfth day of its session.

XXXI. Additions or amendments to, or suspension or repeal of, these rules shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

XXXII. These Rules shall be in force in subsequent sessions of this House until otherwise ordered.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. The Senior Bishop of this Church in the order of consecration, having jurisdiction within the United States, is the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, or for its own needs by the House of Bishops; and shall hold office for life, unless he resign or be relieved from that office by a vote of a majority of the Bishops entitled to a vote in the House of Bishops.

II. WHEREAS, By provisions of Canon 9, § I. [ii.], [iii.], and Canon 10, § II. [iii.], the Presiding Bishop of the House is empowered to take order for the ordination and consecration of Diocesan and Missionary Bishops, either in his own person or by commission issued to three Bishops;

It is hereby ordered that, in all cases of Episcopal consecrations, the place for the same, if not in the Diocese or Jurisdiction of the Presiding Bishop or of the Bishop appointed by him to preside at the solemnity, shall be designated only with the consent of the Bishop in whose Diocese or Jurisdiction it is; that the Bishop elect shall have the right to designate the preacher and the two Bishops by whom he is to be presented; and that in the absence of the Presiding Bishop, the Senior Bishop of this Church present at any consecration of a Bishop is the Bishop presiding for that solemnity, unless some other Bishop shall have been assigned to such service on any special occasion by the Presiding Bishop or by the Bishops present at the consecration.

III. Seniority among the Bishops is according to the time of the consecration of each Bishop.

IV. Two or more of the Bishops shall be appointed at each General Convention to take charge, together with the Secretary of the House of Bishops, of the Journal of its proceedings, and to see that the whole, or such parts of it as the House may direct, be entered in its proper place in the Journal of the General Convention.

V. The House of Bishops shall assemble on every morning during the period of the General Convention, except the Lord's Day, for business, unless adjournment beyond that morning has been ordered by vote of the House.

VI. The daily session of this House shall be closed with the Benediction, pronounced by the Bishop presiding.

VIII. The Secretary of the House of Bishops shall keep, in a suitable book to be provided for the purpose, a Record of the mem-

The said book of record shall be the official Register of this House, and the Roll of the House made up therefrom by the Secretary shall be by him certified to its Presiding Officer, who shall at each regular or special session of the House communicate the same to the House, as its official Roll, as soon as he shall have taken the chair. Such roll shall be subject to change only by vote of the House.

IX. In making up the list of the Bishops who have retained their constituted right to seats in this House, the Secretary is instructed to leave the name of any Bishop resigned in the place which he occupies in the order of his consecration, with the addition of the word "Bishop," which shall be considered as the sufficient official title of such resigned Bishop.

X. In the event of the loss by any Bishop of his seat in the House of Bishops, with the consequent omission of his name from the roll, and his return to the House, his name shall be entered on the roll at the place corresponding with the time of such return.

(a) A motion to rise and to report to the House, with or without request for leave to sit again, may be made at any time, and shall take precedence of all other motions, and shall be decided without debate. No such motion once made shall be renewed until after further proceedings shall have been had in the Committee of the Whole.

(b) A motion that a vote upon any pending question shall be taken at some designated time, may be made and be disposed of without debate at any time; but as before provided a motion to report to the House shall take precedence.

No motion to lay on the table shall be entertained.

35. No debate shall be allowed on any motion in the House to permit the Committee of the Whole to sit again. Requests for such permission shall take precedence of all other business, and the motion therefor shall be put to vote immediately without reference.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

36. No new business shall be introduced for the consideration of the House after the twelfth day of its session, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, and for the purposes of this rule all days shall be counted excepting Sundays.

37. Whenever the election of a Bishop, the approval of his testimonials, or assent to his consecration, shall be considered, the House shall sit with closed doors.

38. No applause shall be permitted during any session of the House or of the Committee of the Whole.

39. Seats upon the platform shall be occupied by officers of the Convention or their representatives, members of the House of Bishops, and such other persons only as by special vote of the Convention shall be so authorized.

40. No one shall be admitted to the floor except Deputies, Presidents of Colleges recognized as Church Colleges by the Committee on Christian Education, Clergymen of the Church, and of other branches of the Church Catholic with which this Church is in Communion who may be sojourning in the city where the General Convention is assembled, Managers, Secretaries, and Treasurers of the Board of Missions, Trustees, Professors, and Students of the General and other Theological Seminaries of this Church, other students of Theology who are candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, former members of the House of Deputies; and the Clergy, Wardens, and Vestrymen of the Church in which the House of Deputies may sit.

41. Except with the assent of three-fourths of the members present, the House shall not accept any invitation, or participate in any exercises which shall involve suspension, interruption, or abridgement of its regular, appointed sessions.

42. Except when otherwise ordered by the House, no books, pamphlets, or other printed matter shall be distributed in the House, or be placed in the seats of members, without the express permission of the Presiding Officer; but this prohibition shall not apply to the report of a Committee, or to any paper or other document presented to and accepted by the House, or printed by its authority.

43. No rule shall be suspended without the assent of two-thirds of the members present.

APPENDIX XVII.

JOINT RULES AS TO JOINT COMMITTEES.

1. JOINT SPECIAL COMMITTEES, having made their final Report, are to be considered as having exhausted their functions, and can only be revived by the concurrent action of the two Houses.

2. It shall be the privilege of either House to refer to a Joint Committee any matter relating to the subject for which it was appointed; but neither House shall have the power, without the consent of the other, to instruct the Joint Committee as to any particular line of action.

Adopted by the House of Deputies on the twelfth day of the session, 1883. (See Journal, p. 223.)

Adopted by the House of Bishops on the seventeenth day of the session, 1883. (See Journal, p. 86.)

3. All Joint Committees and Joint Commissions reporting to the General Convention shall present such reports not later than the fifth day of the session.

The Secretaries of the two Houses shall notify the Chairmen of the Joint Committees and Joint Commissions of this rule six months prior to the meeting of every General Convention.

Adopted by the House of Deputies on the twelfth day of the session, 1907, and concurred in by the House of Bishops on the thirteenth day.

Note

The experience of a number of years has shown the writer that the so-called "Index to the Canons" is very unsatisfactory as an index, for it is in reality a table of contents, and not an index at all.

The first thing in the nature of an index to the Canons is in the Journal the General Convention of 1841, where, after a title page for the Canons, there follows a "Table of Contents," giving the captions of the Canons of 1832 (I-LVI), of 1835 (I-VIII), of 1838 (I-XI) and of 1841 (I-IX).

In the Journal of 1844, the "Table of Contents" is transposed to the end and becomes "Index to Canons," the Canons of 1844 (I-IX) being added. The same course was followed until the Journal of 1859, when we first have "Digest of the Canons," and after the title page there is "Table of Contents," comprising on one page, in large type, "The Constitution," "Title I.—Of the Orders in the Ministry, and of the Doctrine and Worship of the Church," "Title II.—Of Discipline," "Title III.—Of the Organized Bodies and Officers of the Church," and "Title IV.—Miscellaneous" and then on subsequent pages, under each Title the Canons are arranged in numerical order.

The Digest of the Canons was not printed in the Journal of 1862.

In the Journal of 1844, the "Table of Contents" is transposed to the end, and is given after the title page, with the addition of "Index to the Digest," and the balance of the "Table of Contents" of 1859 is given at the end of the Canons as "Index to the Digest."

In the Journal of 1904, the Canons are given as "Amended, Adopted and Codified," and they are printed in order from 1 to 57, the "Titles" being dropped, and "Index to the Digest" becoming "Index to the Canons."

It will be seen that, as stated above, the so-called "Index" is in fact the "Table of Contents," and a real "Index" is much to be desired.

The writer has prepared one for his own use, and has had it put in type, and it is his hope the same may serve as a basis for a real "Index" to be given in the Journal of 1910, it being his intention to bring the subject up at the General Convention at Cincinnati, to which he is a Lay Deputy-elect.

The present "Index to the Canons" might well be restored to its old position in the Journal of 1841, as "Table of Contents," and an adequate "Index to the Canons" supplied.

In the accompanying paper, the Constitution is indexed, such references being italicized, and also the several matters which are printed with the Canons.

It is a question as to how full it is desirable to make the index,—that might well be left to the Committee on Canons; the writer has not attempted to index every matter, thinking that there are some matters that one would quite naturally look for in connection with associated subjects.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. There shall be a General Convention of this Church, consisting of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, which Houses shall sit and deliberate separately; and in all deliberations freedom of debate shall be allowed. Special meetings may be provided for by Canon. Time and place of meeting.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. In every Diocese the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor shall be chosen agreeably to rules prescribed by the Convention of that Diocese. Provided, however, that when a Diocese shall be formed out of a Missionary District, the Missionary Bishop in charge of said District shall become the Bishop of said Diocese, if he shall so elect. The Presiding Bishop shall appoint Board of inquiry.

In case of the death, resignation, disqualification or inability of any member of the Board to act, the Presiding Bishop, upon being advised of such disqualification or disability, shall appoint another Presbyter or another Layman, as the case may be, to act as member of the Board. Upon acceptance of the appointment, such person shall become a member of the Board. If the Presiding Bishop shall be of opinion that the affidavit states grounds sufficient to justify reopening the case, he shall reconvene the Board, which shall determine, first, whether as matter of fact the evidence set forth in such affidavit is really new evidence and not merely cumulative; and if the Board shall find that the evidence so tendered is new, it shall proceed to receive and to consider any such evidence, and any further evidence that it may deem proper to receive; and in the light of all the evidence the Board shall determine whether there are sufficient grounds for presentment.
