RESOLUTION TEXT

- 1 Resolved, the House of Deputies concurring, That the 77th General Convention
- 2 give thanks for the full communion relationship between The Episcopal Church
- 3 and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, which celebrated its tenth
- 4 anniversary in 2011, and be it further
- 5 Resolved, That we give thanks for the work of the Lutheran-Episcopal
- 6 Coordinating Committee (LECC), and be it further
- 7 Resolved, That we continue to encourage the LECC to seek the Holy Spirit's
- 8 guidance for new mission and ministry among our churches, and be it further
- 9 Resolved, That the LECC address the areas of our common life where our
- 10 ecclesiological practices differ, especially lay presidency and our understandings
- 11 of the role of deacons, and be it further
- 12 Resolved, That the LECC report to the Standing Commission on Ecumenical and
- 13 Interreligious Relations, who will in turn report back to the 78th General
- 14 Convention.

EXPLANATION

The document "Called to Common Mission," which initiated full communion between The Episcopal Church and The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, left some issues unresolved, as evidenced by the interpretations put forth by the Conference of Bishops of the ELCA in August 1999 and the Mind of the House resolution passed by the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church on April 3, 2000. Resolution of these issues is beyond the purview of the Lutheran Episcopal Coordinating Committee, and these issues have the potential for undermining our full communion relationship if not discussed, explored, and resolved.
