SPIRIT OF MISSIONS.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

JULY, 1882.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

AT the meeting of the Board of Managers, held on the 13th ultimo, the Rev. GEORGE WILLIAMSON SMITH, S.T.D., of the Diocese of Long Island, was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of the Rev. Dr. Paddock to the Episcopate, and the Rev. HENRY Y. SATTERLEE, of New York, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Rev. John Cotton Smith, D.D.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE AT BUFFALO.

THE last Missionary Conference of the present fiscal year of the Board was held in St. Paul's and Trinity Unurches in the City of Buffalo on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 6 h, 7th and 8th of June.

On the previous Sunday, in St. Paul's Cathedral, there was held in the afternoon a very successful children's meeting at which the speakers were the Rev. Dr. Twing, and the Ven. Archdeacon Kirkby. The Church was so crowded that many were obliged to stand in the aisles, and some for want of seats left the building.

The opening Service of the Conference proper was in St. Paul's, Tuesday evening. There were present in the chancel a large number of Clergy, among whom were the Bishop of the Diocese, who presided throughout, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Starkey, the Bishop of Northern New Jersey, the Rectors of the several parishes of the city, the Secretaries for Domestic and Foreign Missions, the Secretary pro tem. for Foreign Missions, Archdeacon Kirkby, the Rev. Arthur Brooks, who was the preacher of the evening, the Rev. J. B. Wicks of the Indian Territory, the Rev. C. N. Spalding, the Rev. Dr. George Williamson Smith, the Rev. E. L. Stoddard and the Rev. Giles B. Cooke. The Service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. John W. Brown, Rector, the Bishop of the Diocese taking the Absolution, and the Rev. Drs. Van Bekkelen and G. W. Smith reading the Lessons. The musical portions of the Service were very heartily rendered by a large surpliced choir. The Sermon was based upon Acts xv. 3. The congregation was very large.

On Wednesday at 9 A. M., the Holy Communion was celebrated in Trinity Church (where all the remaining meetings were held) by Bishop Coxe, assisted by Bishop Starkey and the Rev. Drs. Ingersoll and Van Bokkelen. Forty Clergymen were counted in the congregation.

After the Benediction, an address of welcome was delivered by the presiding officer, in which also he conveyed an invitation from the Board of Trustees to all the visitors present to the new Art Institute in the city. The order of the day was then taken up. The discussion of the general topic, "Domestic Missions," was opened by the Rev. Dr. Twing, who said he spoke upon the subject in which he had been interested for eighteen years. The more time he devoted to Mission work, the more important the cause seemed. I feel, continued he, deeply grateful to GoD for being permitted to do anything in the grand work in evangelizing this country. People are not rushing to England, or Ireland, or France, or Germany, or to any other country, but they are coming to America, 2,000 a day. I say let them all come; all who wish to come—the Chinese and others. I detest that ruling of Congress in this regard. It is like shutting the poor ignorant Chinese up in his own darkness. The Doctor gave some interesting illustrations of the growth of the work, and said it was advancing along the whole line from Maine to Washington Territory. Dr. Twing was followed by the Rev. J. H. Barnard of Albion, appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese, and others. At half-past twelve, the Rev. J. B. Wicks opened the discussion on Indian Missions. His address was of great interest.

In the afternoon of that day the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary convened in the parlors of the Church, which being overcrowded, the meeting adjourned to the Sunday-school room. Mrs. Gen. Quinby of Rochester, presided, and Miss S. P. Mather acted as Secretary. Suitable devotions were conducted by the Bishop and the Rector of the parish. Miss Mather presented a report of the Committee's labors since last September. The Bishop and Miss Julia C. Emery, Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, made addresses. This was characterized as one of the best meetings of the Conference. There was an adjourned meeting of the Auxiliary the next afternoon, when addresses were made by the same persons.

On Thursday the Conference convened at 9.30 A.M. Before proceeding to the order of business, informal addresses were made upon the work in Greece, its history, etc., by the Bishop of the Diocese, and Mr. Kimber. At 10 o'clock a very effective address was made by the Rev. Giles B. Cooke of Petersburgh, Va., upon the subject of Home Missions to Colored People. He was followed briefly by Dr. Twing and Mr. Kimber, who both took occasion to earnestly commend Mr. Cooke's own work, which they had visited. At 11 A.M. the general topic, "Foreign Missions," was opened by the Rev. Mr. Kimber, who briefly reviewed the history of our work in heathen lands, relating one or two anecdotes showing the heroism of several of the early workers. He was followed by the Rev. George S. Teller of Penn Yan, appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese. Time not serving for further discussion of this subject, after Prayer at noon (which was also offered the previous day) for the ongoing of the work and the sending forth laborers, the meeting passed immediately to the next topic, that of "The Mexican Branch of the Church." Frederick S. Winston, Esq., President of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, who has been a member of the Foreign Committee since its inception, read an able paper prepared after a somewhat extended visit of observation to Mexico.* He then offered to answer any question that might be asked as far as laid in his power, which led to an animated discussion for the purpose of promoting which, several of those present framed their questions. These were answered by Mr. Winston, the Bishop of the Diocese, and the

^{*} The Foreign Committee hope to reproduce this paper in full in the August number.

Secretaries for Foreign Missions, to the expressed satisfaction of some, at least, of those present in the congregation.

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings were held general Missionary meetings ; at the former of these the speakers were, the Rev. George F. Flichtner, Rector of St. Barnabas' Church, Newark, N. J. (for about seven months the Secretary pro tem. for Foreign Missions), the Rev. E. L. Stoddard, Rector of St. John's Church, Jersey City and Archdeacon Kirkby. At the latter the speakers were, the Rev. George Williamson Smith, S.T.D., Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Brooklyn, L. I., the Rev. C. N. Spalding, Rector of St. John's Church, Lancaster, Penn., and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Starkey. These evening speeches were entirely dissimilar, and yet all so able and so much to the purpose, that it would be invidious to particularize. A very interesting episode of the meeting was that two of the speakers the last evening were college mates and had not met before since leaving Hobart.

At the last meeting, the Rev. Dr. Fuller, Bishop of Niagara (Canada), accompanied by the venerable Dr. Shelton, appeared in the Chancel. After the appointed speaker had concluded, by invitation of the presiding officer, Bishop Fuller spoke words of God-speed, and at the close of the Conference gave the Benediction. Bishop Soxe took occasion to say some words of congratulation and thanks, in which line he was followed by the Rector of the Church, the Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen. These remarks were responded to by the Secretary for Domestic Missions.

Bishop Coxe not satisfied with this public acknowledgment, has very gracefully expressed what he considers his obligation, in the following paragraph which we cut from the The Churchman :

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.-For himself and for the reverend Clergy of the city of Buffalo, the Bishop of Western New York takes great pleasure in expressing a sense of deep obligation to those of the Clergy and others who, during the past week, have visited this city, in attendance upon the Missionary Conference. To the Rt. Rev. the Bishops of Niagara and Northern New Jersey, and to the reverend Secretaries of the Board of Managers their thanks are specially due. All the speakers, at the successive sessions of the Conference, and the Rev. Arthur Brooks, who preached the sermon, are gratefully remembered ; but to the venerable Archdeacon Kirkby and the Rev. Dr. Twing, who opened the week by their labors in the cathcdral and several parish churches, and thus gave a happy introduction to the Conference itself, especial acknowledgments must be made. Nor could the name of Miss Emery be unmentioned without something like ingratitude, in view of her valued service to the "Woman's Auxiliary." May the LORD remember these good works and those who have been our "fellow-helpers to the truth."

SUMMER WORK.

A SERMONETTE.-St. Mark, VI: 31-56.

IT needs but to read this Scripture to understand what our LORD was doing. He was still young in His ministry, full of His errand, and hailed as a His Apostles had just returned from their first mission. Except Prophet. for the sad tragedy of St. John's murder, and the rejection at Nazareth, there had been no opposition to Him from any quarter. Men said, "It is Elias !" or, "a Prophet!" and the conscience-stricken Herod said, "It is John, whom I beheaded : he is risen from the dead."

At this crisis, our LORD proposed to His disciples "a Summer vacation." The grass was green, after the Spring rains and before the Summer droughts. The wilderness and the solitary place would be glad for them, and the desert would rejoice and blossom as the rose. Roofs of dense shade and Persian rugs of wild flowers awaited them, cloudless days and translucent nights. Fish from the teeming lake, berries, locust-pods and wild honey, from its rugged Eastern shore, invited them away from busy Capernaum, where there were many coming and going, and there was no leisure so much as to eat bread. So, then, Summer vacations are not wrong, in principle.

I. Our LORD was not such a Missionary that He must evangelize Bashan. He went thither to "rest awhile." City Christians often do great damage to rural parishes by erecting a standard for three months, to which it is impossible that the parish shall conform during the rest of the year. Many a rural parish is as much upset by city visitors as a household is by a run of company. If our LORD could have spent His three years' ministry in Bashan, no doubt He would have been as busy there as He was in Capernaum or Decapolis; but since He could not there follow up the work which GOD had given Him to do, He did not begin it.

II. But He did not mean to be idle. He had many things to say unto the SUMMER WORK.

Twelve, and they were ignorant and dull of hearing. City religion is not specially conducive to household piety, and if Christian parents would use their Summer vacations to supplement their children's church-going and Sundayschool lessons with personal attention to their children's souls, there would be less danger of a generation having the form of godliness without its power.

III. But the city people saw Him going, and outwent Him, and came together unto Him and met Him, as He came out of the ship—five thousand men, besides women and children. Gathered from many cities, without leaders and without any bond of unity, our LORD had compassion on them, as sheep having no shepherd. He surrendered His vacation to His vocation, thus suddenly thrust upon him, and "began to teach them many things."

The same sort of concourse may be seen at many a sea-side or mountain resort, where there is no church nor synagogue, and all religious privilege depends upon some CHRIST-like man who may have zeal and courage to have compassion on the multitudes. Such congregations are always impressionable; for people leave many of their prejudices at home when they go journeying; as some of these men, who might not have turned a corner to hear CHRIST preach at Peter's door in Capernaum, heard Him gladly twenty miles from home. A mixed multitude will follow a very simple lead, for good or for evil; and lay-reading at a Summer hotel has sowed the seed of the Church in many fallow hearts.

IV. And our LORD was not forgetful of acts of corporal charity, in this wonderful "Summer vacation"; for He fed the multitude before he sent them away. City charities often suffer greatly by the Summer exodus, as also do sewing women, washerwomen and the host of household employés of cities, who live from hand to mouth in ministering to the Winter comforts of their richer neighbors. Summer destitution excites less sympathy than Winter poverty, but it is often no less real, and the sweltering garrets are made more intolerable when the supplies of life are dried up. A little thoughtfulness, to leave some work behind for faithful servants to do in Summer, and to pay up subscriptions to organized charities, would save much distress and anxiety. A piece of ice in the dog-days may be as great a mercy as a sack of coals at Christmas. The rural poor, also, often live singularly joyless, comfortless lives, which a little friendly suggestion might brighten. The aged and the sick among them get little care or consolation, and a visit from a refined and quick-witted Christian, familiar with the petty luxuries of life, may be as an angel's ministry to some cottage sufferer, at the end of a city visitor's ramble on a Summer day.

V. Furthermore, our LORD did not fail to increase the faith of His disciples and brethren, by a special attention to them; for He stilled the storm on the lake, and saved St. Peter when his faith failed him at the boisterous sea. Many a fellow-Christian has wind and tide against him, who only needs to be reassured that CHRIST is for him, to find a great calm; and the leisure of a Summer vacation affords many opportunities, when they that fear the LORD may speak often one to another, that they who are converted may strengthen their brethren. It must not be done officiously, or intrusively; for our LORD made as though He "would have passed by." But He went to them on the water when He could as easily have rescued them from the shore. It is good to go near enough to people to encourage their confidences.

Finally, the result of this holiday, which was so marvellously changed into a holy-day, was a great increase of the fame of JESUS, so that "whithersoever He entered, into villages, or cities, or country," the people gladly received Him. From which it is a fair conclusion that individual and local effort, in the name of CHRIST, promotes the general cause of Missions.

A FORWARD MOVEMENT.

WE commend the following paper, clear earnest consideration of all our readers in Colorado and throughout the country.

Our Rocky Mountain brethren seem to be fully awake to the responsibilities that Gon has laid upon them, and manfully determined to do their whole part and duty in meeting them, as well as in claiming the great privileges connected with an independent Diocesan position and life. The Church has taken deep and firm root in that new and somewhat hard soil, and promise of growth and fair fruitage is scarcely brighter in any portion of our great Home field. Many of our Dioceses are less strong in Church institutions than the Missionary District of Colorado. Hitherto large outside help has flowed thither, and has been wisely used, and for the future such help will still be greatly needed, even should the present effort for completeness in organization be successful, as we hope and believe it will be. It will be seen that the good Bishop has voluntarily taken a heavy burden upon himself, and it is believed that he will not be allowed by Churchmen elsewhere to carry it alone.

To the Members and Friends of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Colorado.

DEAR BRETHREN AND FRIENDS :

Since 1865 Colorado has been a Missionary Jurisdiction of the Protestant Episcopal nobody's legitimate offspring. We are fed Church. The Jurisdiction at first included only when we cry at the back doors of the Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico. The Missionary treasury, and beg crumbs from latter Territory has since been disconnected, the benevolent. and Colorado together with Wyoming still constitute one Jurisdiction, with a Mission- supported entirely by the Board of Missions. ary Bishop.

We think the time has fairly come when and strong, and indicating a bold and Colorado should in itself constitute a sepaheroic step in the right direction, to the rate, distinct Diocese. When its Missionary organization was first created, although its area, including the three Territories, was larger than all of the States east of the Alleghanies, yet we had then but two parishes and two churches. We have now grown to be a prosperous State, and the Church has grown with it, until we have now thirty parishes and Missions, twenty-five church buildings, with eight parsonages, and eight self-supporting parishes within the State. Our communicants number nearly two thousand, and the Church is ministering to five or six thousand people.

We ought to be a Diocese. A proper degree of self-respect, consonant with the characteristic sentiment of independence which animates the people of the State at large, should forbid our being willing to longer remain in a condition of mere Missionary dependency.

As a Territory, we were politically in a condition of provincial dependence and inferiority, with no representation except that of a delegate, with no vote, little voice, and small influence. Since this state of political vassalage has been thrown off, who dare say we reap no advantage from our rank as an independent State of the Union, with our powerful representation in the Congress of the United States?

Our present Church condition presents a parallel case. We are fostered as a mere Missionary District; nurtured, but nurtured like a foundling; everybody's child, but

Our Bishop has hitherto been, and still is Our own people have not given a dollar, and however inadequate they may be. served us faithfully, and though the laborer or preparations. is worthy of his hire, we have not been called upon to help carry out the rule, for from an episcopate fund of our own, no although, in fact, it is as much incumbent doubt the House of Bishops would appoint on us to support our Bishop as our Rectors.

Nor would we lose any- independent Diocese. thing, for the Missionary Board being relieved of his support, could devote the same a Diocese, in union with the General Conamount to the support of our Mission stations. And besides, it is possible that our present Missionary support of our Bishop may be diminished or entirely cut off. It is time we should face the possibilities of the future and take care of ourselves.

The advantages of Diocesan autonomy are many. We thereby secure the power of ment, and this is what, as we understand, legislating for ourselves, and of managing the General Convention requires as a conour own Church affairs, the same as statehood acquires, politically, legislative, judicial and executive powers and rights.

As a Church in a Missionary field, we have no such rights. Becoming a Diocese, we fund, in the opinion of the committee, should gain our full rights in the General Convention, which legislates for the whole Church -that is to say, we should be entitled to a representation of four Clerical and four lay deputies. We secure for our Standing Committee the right to act in the confirmation an area as the Diocese would include. of the election of all Bishops of the Church. The General Convention constituting the could start with $40,000, and more in time Board of Missions, we secure full representation therein of four Clergymen and four laymen, the same number that is accorded the largest Diocese. We thereby gain proportionate power in determining the appropriations to our Diocesan Missions. Should we pay our Bishop's salary, thus relieving the Board to that extent, we should doubtless be able to receive correspondingly greater aid for Missionary Clergy.

Dioceses containing large Missionary territory, as will long be the case with Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota, receive necessarily large appropriations from the General Board. It is thus easy to one fit person, or more than one if found see that we shall gain rather than lose.

Our good Bishop has made us a proposition, the grateful acceptance of which we propose, to wit: That he will raise and appropriate toward the Episcopate Endowment Fund, $1,000 for each and every like sum of $1,000 raised in Colorado by others up to the sum of $20,000. If we then can raise $20,000, we thus secure $40,000. This, it is believed, can easily be done by putting in active operation some feasible and business-like plan of canvassing for subscriptions or pledges to such fund.

WORK AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE IN VIRGINIA.

LAWRENCEVILLE, Brunswick Co., Va., May 5th, 1882.

REV. AND DEAR DR. TWING :

I would like now to give you some account of our colored Confirmation Services, held at this place on Tuesday evening, April 25th

The services previous to the sermon were conducted by Rev. James S. Russell and impossible to have them merged into any myself. Bishop Whittle preached a most effective sermon and confirmed a class of eighteen, eight from our own colored congregation here, eight from one just formed twelve miles off, and two from the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. A more earnest and sincere class of persons I have never seen. Their joy at being confirmed was very great, and they are sincerely attached to our Church. The congregation numbered about two hundred and fifty men and women, and all seemed to be deeply impressed.

The work of Rev. Mr. Russell has thus been greatly blessed by our Heavenly FATHER, and the possibilities before the Church in this field are unlimited. By the work of zealous hands for years laboring among them, they have been prepared for entrance into the Church, and are now, at several points, making earnest enquiries about the charitable people of the Church to send us way to become Episcopalians.

One man saw me yesterday. He represented the head and well-nigh all the mem- sured of more in a short time. bers of his congregation, and asked questions about entrance into our Church. We to be, cannot be stopped. The responsihope, through Mr. Russell, to occupy this bility now rests upon those who can help field also.

They are now knock- tral point, the churches that are around us ing at her doors, enquiring for themselves can receive all the instruction we can give, and seeking the way of salvation through and have Church Services gradually estabher doctrines and worship.

That we must build for them is a necessity. This congregation, steadily on the increase here in Lawrenceville, will never worship regularly at any other place than where they have been born and bred, and we must, for their safety and welfare, provide a place of worship for them.

They know our Service, and it would be other congregation at any other point, for nowhere else in the county can you find a colored congregation to go through our Service regularly and without omission.

To the others we have to improvise as best we can, inserting as much of the Prayer Book as possible and leaving out what is impracticable.

Moreover, as far as I have seen, there is no one point in the county where the congregations are not all that can comfortably worship in the room or house provided for them.

Our congregation in Lawrenceville will also generally fill the building that we propose to erect. There is, in fine, plenty of material here for a new church and plenty elsewhere to work upon without disturbing ours.

Hence I again appeal to the thinking and the means to build with. We have received a small sum, fifty-one dollars, but I feel as-

POSTSCRIPT.

Ar the meeting of the Committee for Foreign Missions held on the 13th of June, the Rev. JOSHUA KIMBER, Secretary, reported for duty, to take effect immediately upon the adjournment of the Board of Managers that afternoon; and asked the privilege of presenting the following Resolution, which, on motion of Mr. Winston, was unanimously adopted :

Resolved : That the Committee for Foreign Missions desire to express and place upon record their appreciation of the efficient service rendered by the Rev. George F. Flichtner during his term as Secretary pro tem.

The Rev. Mr. Flichtner prepared the matter for this department this month.

"OUR MISSION TO THE HEATHEN."

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE REV. GEO. F. FLICHTNER, Secretary pro tem., etc.

On the second page of the cover of this periodical the Board of Managers is particular to explain that it does not hold itself responsible for editorial opinions. Hence it cannot be held responsible for the views of a correspondent. I am informed that it was upon this principle that the honored and beloved Secretary for Domestic Missions admitted to these pages (in the May number) the following passage occurring in the communication of the Rev. H. Martyn Hart, Dean of the Cathedral, Denver, Col.:

"I believe if 'The East' could but realize our actual condition, the Church would consider this question : Does it behoove our Holy Mother to hearken to the cry of her own children, or to give her attention to aliens? With the greatest Missionary Bishop of this century a near relation of my own, and having been in the thick of Missionary effort for nigh all my life; knowing, too, from personal observation something of the Church's work in India, China, and Japan, I am not likely to be accused of lack of interest in Foreign Mission work. But surely the children ought to be fed before any food is sent to strangers. Let the Anglican Church supply the Foreign Mission field. There is not an acre of land in England which is not in some parish. A vast income has accumulated for the Church's use, and her 23,000 Clergy are maintained if not as well as many of them would like—still they exist as gentlemen, and hold their own in the very foremost rank of society. England has ability and leisure to undertake the Foreign Missionary work. With the rushing tide of immigration, and with the movements of her own thousands to occupy new territories, the American Church has surely enough to do, and will have for the next century. Let all her energies be directed to keeping her own children to their Baptismal vows. Whether is it better, to convert the heathen, or to keep those who have 'received the knowledge of the truth ' from lapsing ?"

I had ventured to think that all such argument had been refuted in the June number for 1881, of this periodical, by the editorial in the Foreign Department under the above caption. In that article, among other quotations, were embodied the words of one who certainly has had much more experience than the Dean, of the great and acknowledged needs of our tramontane regions. The Rt. Rev. Dr. Tuttle, Missionary Bishop of Utah, says:

"Our work of Foreign Missions GOD gives into our hands, and if we work not with Him in pushing it vigorously on, He will remove our candlestick. With Him only can we work aright, and with Him not unless vigorously heeding Foreign Missions."

But further: the Dean's own Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Spalding, wrote in December, 1876,

"It would gratify me very much if all my Clergy would make collections for Foreign Missions. I hope they will all do so in answer to your Epiphany Appeal. Though we are having a very hard struggle to maintain our Church work, and get a bare living for our Clergy, yet I feel that we ought to show a more decided interest in Foreign Missions. I believe that one great reason why we fall so far short of doing our duty in the matter of Domestic Missions is because we are not obeying the command to ' preach the Gospel to every creature.' We cannot succeed in our great work at home unless we do what in us lies for those who have never heard the Gospel. Therefore, for our sake as well as for the work abroad, I trust my Clergy will give their people the opportunity to contribute for Missions among the heathen, and that the response will be as liberal as their circumstances will permit."

We are satisfied to put the opinions side by side and leave them there.

So much for the general subject. What the Dean says, however, about the release of the English Church from care and anxiety touching the home work, seems to be practically set aside by the appearance in this country just now of a distinguished representative of that Church soliciting aid for the erection of a Cathedral not in one of her many Mission fields, but in England itself.

The Society is one. The field is the world; there is no desire for controversy: "Comparisons are offensive"; but may I not say that it is not just—that it is hardly ingenuous for any to say, as many do say, that the spiritual destitution in any portion of this land is akin to that in heathen lands.

Both departments of work are laid upon us.

This Church well expended in the home field for Mission work of all kinds (exclusive of charities) at least $450,000 last year. She contributed for Foreign work all told $186,000. While we do the one let us not leave the other undone.

J. KIMBER.

RICHMOND HILL, L. I., May 25th, 1882.

MARRIAGE OF MISSIONARIES.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

WITH reference to a remark made in one of the letters from Mexico, published in the last number of THE SPIRIT OF MISSIONS, to the effect that the Scholarships are only nominal, since all alike are supported from the general fund, we beg leave to say that there is evidently a misapprehension on the writer's part of the design and operation of the Scholarship system.

Scholarships in the various Mission Schools are supported by amounts given by individuals or organizations and designated for that especial purpose. It was formerly the custom to select a particular scholar to be the recipient of their benefaction, but after this method had been tried for many years it was found to be not altogether successful and the present Scholarship system was adopted in its stead. It was determined to invite from individuals, branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, churches and Sunday-schools, definite contributions of either one hundred dollars, or seventy-five dollars, or fifty dollars, or forty dollars, or twenty-five dollars, as the case might require, for the support of these Scholarships; with the understanding that some scholar should always be kept upon each, and an account of the beneficiary, for the time being, sent annually to the supporter.

In approving schedules of appropriations the Committee and Board take these Scholarships into account, though in many instances so far, they have been obliged to make their grant larger than the sum of the proceeds from Scholarships. However this may be, in all instances where the opposite is true—that is to say, where the aggregate sum from Scholarships exceeds the appropriation for any particular school—the excess has been paid over to the Missionary in charge.

It will thus be seen that the Scholarships are by no means merely nominal and it is hoped that in time they will make up the whole amount required for the support of scholars in the schools. We are gratified to say that there is a continued growth in this department of the work, which is indicated by the annual increase in the length of the Scholarship list. We shall be most happy to make further additions as rapidly as pledges are made for this purpose.

APPOINTMENTS.

China.—At the meeting of the Committee for Foreign Missions, held May 9th, the Committee, acting for the Missionary Bishop of Shanghai, appointed Miss MARTHA BRUCE and Miss ESTHER A. SPENCER; and at their meeting on June 13th, Miss SARAH E. LAWSON, all as Missionary Teachers in Shanghai.

These appointments were approved by the Board of Managers at their meeting held on the 13th of June.

These newly appointed Missionaries will probably sail for their field of labor early in the fall.

Japan .- We are informed that Mr. JAMES MCD. GARDINER and Miss FLORENCE R. PITMAN were married at Tokio on the 12th of May last by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Williams, Missionary Bishop of Yedo, assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Blanchet and Shaw, the latter of the Church of England.

DEATH IN THE FIELD.

China .- By the last mail we have the painful intelligence of the death at Hankow, on the 19th of April, of Miss ELIZABETH K. BOYD, who sailed from San Francisco in August of last year for her field of labor in Wuchang.

MOVEMENTS OF MISSIONARIES.

China .- The Rt. Rev. Dr. SCHERESCHEWSKY has removed from Paris to Geneva, and is now at the Champel les Bains, Hotel Beau Sejour, Geneva. He may be addressed care of Drexel, Harjes & Co., Paris.

The Rev. E. H. THOMSON and family at last advices were in passage for Europe. Their address will be, for a time, care Messrs. Brown, Shipley & Co., London.

Japan.-Miss SARAH L. RIDDICK, who sailed from San Francisco in the steamer of April 4th, arrived at Tokio on the 28th of that month, in good health.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

OBJECT

The Commission was established October 25th, 1880, by the Board of Missions, comprising in its mem-bership both Houses of the General Convention. It consists of all the Bishops, of one Clergyman and one Layman from each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction, and of twenty members at large appointed by the Presiding Bishop. Its object is to create a Fund of One Million Dollars, the income of which shall be given, and portions of the principal of which may be loaned, to aid the building of new churches. The Commission wish to complete the Fund by October, 1883, that the General Convention may then present it as an offering to God, a memorial of His care in the past; for the extension of His Kingdom in the future; and that it may commemorate the Centennial of the American Church as a Branch of the Church Catholic. These fore anneal to all to whom these presents come. facts appeal to all to whom these presents come.

It is an axiom that history is philosophy your living voices will have to begin their teaching by example. Therefore, there is work again from the beginning, once, at sound wisdom in the work of the Com- least, every ten years." mission ; for there is abundant example of the usefulness of Church Building Societies. We have previously referred to the work accomplished by such societies under the auspices of Baptists, Methodists, Congregationalists and Presbyterians in our own country. They teach us that this work is not an experiment; that it has proved itself a right hand of strength in the work of Church extension. Let us learn the lesson, and put it into practice.

The Rt. Rev. Edward White Benson, D.D., Lord Bishop of Truro, in his recent sermon, preached in behalf of the English helped half the parishes of England and Church Building Society, entitled, "The Wales; has provided two millions of places Voice and its Homes," says, "Send out the in church, and three-fourths of these free ; living voices fast and free ; penetrate with has greatly contributed to that wonderful rethem, if you can, the heathen wilderness vival, in England, in church architecture and that has reappeared round all our towns; beauty which has had no equal for four clear the pagan tangle and brushwood that centuries; has built, rebuilt, or repaired has crept back over our trim, reclaimed 7,041 places of worship; has bestowed fields. But as fast as possible occupy the grants amounting to $4,449,115; and has ground you win with shrines for the Divine called forth for church building a further oracles-at least, do not commit the folly of expenditure on the part of Churchmen of omitting them on principle. If you do, all not less than $55,000,000.

We wish the Church at large could read the appeals for help that come from many quarters to the office of the Commission. They reach us from earnest, though poor, churches ; and, usually, ask only to borrow a few hundred, in some cases a few thousand, dollars for three or five years. Immediate help is what they want. In many cases a loan has all the practical advantage of a gift.
